Old Fashioned Football for Secondary Schools in the Twenty-First Century Dr. Marvin A. Martin, 2012-11-29 In observing today's football coaching techniques on the high school level I have noticed that some coaches try to follow college and even pro football coaches sophisticated methods such as elaborate signals multitude of plays etc It seems to me that on the high school level the KISS Keep it Simple Stupid technique should only be as sophisticated as the boys who are new to the game Fancy signals etc which are confusing to say the least just add unnecessary stress With this in mind I am introducing a straightforward approach based on sound plays sound fundamentals hard workouts discipline and repetition so that each player has an automatic response under game conditions

So You Wanna Be a Legend. so Did I. Hadley Hicks, 2010-07-30 Do you know what it takes to be a great teacher coach Hadley Hicks knows He was mentored by five collegiate Hall of Fame coaches he was a teammate of well known professional football players on a National Championship military team He even had a cup of coffee in professional baseball Hadley was successful as a high school and college coach Yet he never reached the greatness he felt was due him Hadley Hicks shares his heart in his search for significance His poignant humorous and down to earth writing style makes an enjoyable read He is candid in his heartbreaks the sin of divorce and the death of his eldest son He survived a parental petition for his dismissal as football coach He livened up his teaching experiences with an accidental shooting and a premeditated murder He kept his fellow faculty alert with numerous practical jokes Among student athletes he mentored was a Cy Young Award winner and three professional football players Hadley s marriage to a Godly woman who is his spiritual teammate provided impetus for finding eternal significance in a relationship with Jesus Christ
