A Political Theology of Nature Peter Scott, 2003-03-06 This book argues that the modern separation of humanity from nature can be traced to the displacement of the triune God Locating the source of our current ecological crisis in this separation Peter Scott argues that it can only be healed within theology through a revival of a Trinitarian doctrine of creation interacting with political philosophies of ecology Drawing insights from deep ecology ecofeminism and social and socialist ecologies Scott proposes a common realm of God nature and humanity Both Trinitarian and political the theology of this common realm is worked out by reference to Christ and Spirit Christ's resurrection is presented as the liberation and renewal of ecological relations in nature and society the movement of the Holy Spirit is understood as the renewal of fellowship between humanity and nature through ecological democracy and the Eucharist is proposed as the principal political resource Christianity offers for an ecological age

The Limit of Responsibility Esther D. Reed, 2018-08-23 This volume frames the question of responsibility as a problem of agency in relation to the systems and structures of globalization According to Ricoeur responsibility is a shattered concept when considered too narrowly as a problem of act agency and individual freedom To examine this Esther Reed develops a short genealogy of modern liberal and post liberal concepts of responsibility in order to understand better the relationship dominant modern framings of the meanings of responsibility Reed engages with writings by major modern Schleiermacher Hegel Marx Weber and post liberal Buber Levinas Derrida Badiou Butler Young Critchley theorists to illustrate the shift from an ethnic responsibility built on notions of accountability and attributions to an ethic responsibility that starts variously from the other Reed sees Dietrich Bonhoeffer as the most promising partner of this theological dialogue as his learning of responsibility from the risen Christ present now in the global church is a welcome provocation to new thinking about the meaning of responsibility learned from land distant neighbour global church and the bible Bonhoeffer's reflections on the centre boundaries and limits of responsibility remain helpful to Christian people struggling with an increasingly exhausted concept of accountability

Cooper,2014-05-01 Naturally Human Supernaturally God seeks to open a small window upon an interesting case of theological convergence between three of the most important theologians of the pre Conciliar period of Catholic theology R ginald Garrigou Lagrange O P Karl Rahner S J and Henri de Lubac S J each of whom played a vital role in the Second Vatican Council The differences between these three figures sometimes seem to run so deep as to defy resolution Yet Cooper argues they were strangely united in a shared conviction today's church urgently needs to renew its acquaintance with an ancient Christian theme the doctrine of deification A Protestant Dictionary Charles Henry Hamilton Wright,Charles Neil,1904 Church as a Communion Ferdinand Nwaigbo,1996 Originally presented as the author's thesis doctoral University of Bamberg 1995 New Testament Theology Philip Francis Esler,2005 Esler's innovative proposal features a cutting edge combination of theology exegesis and social analysis He argues for new thinking about New Testament theology in light of the early social history of Christian communities His detailed analysis of Paul's letters to the Romans and 1 Corinthians validates his thesis and clarifies its significance for scholarship Using both the tradition of the communion of the saints and social scientific methods Esler brings the discipline of New Testament theology back to its theological core He argues that interpreters also need to take into account both the history of interpretation and the multitude of voices within the contemporary church Deepening Communion Catholic Church.
