The Memory English Edition:

Heritage, Ideology, and Identity in Central and Eastern Europe Matthew Rampley, 2012 Essays looking at heritage practices and the construction of the past along with how they can be used to build a national identity The preservation of architectural monuments has played a key role in the formation of national identities from the nineteenth century to the present The task of maintaining the collective memories and ideas of a shared heritage often focused on the historic built environment as the most visible sign of a link with the past The meaning of such monuments and sites has however often been the subject of keen dispute whose heritage is being commemorated by whom and for whom The answers to such questions are not always straightforward particularly in Central and Eastern Europe the recent history of which has been characterized by territorial disputes the large scale movement of peoples and cultural dispossession This volume considers the dilemmas presented by the recent and complex histories of European states such as Germany Greece Poland Hungary Romania and Bulgaria Examining the effect of the destruction of buildings by war the loss of territories or the unwanted built heritage of the Communist and Nazi regimes the contributors examine how architectural and urban sites have been created destroyed or transformed in the attempt to make visible a national heritage Matthew Rampley is Professor of History of Art at the University of Birmingham Contributors Matthew Rampley Juliet Kinchin Paul Stirton Susanne Jaeger Arnold Bartetzky Jacek Friedrich Tania Vladova George Karatzas Riitta Oittinen Witnessing the Witness of War Crimes, Mass Murder, and Genocide Manuela Consonni, Philip Galland Nord, 2023-07-24 Rethinking the concepts of witnessing and witness is highly relevant to the study of war crimes mass murder and genocide Through multiple readings the volume shows the meanings and functions of witnessing in a political and historical context marked by the emergence of multiculturalism The ultimate goal is the exploration of divergent and intersectional positions of the witness and witnessing as both concrete and hermeneutical categories As a result the mechanisms of social political and psychological oppression murder and genocide will become tangible and understandable with greater precision and finesse Nichol's Library Edition of the British

Poets George Gilfillan, 1864 Handbook of Autobiography / Autofiction Martina Wagner-Egelhaaf, 2019-01-29 Autobiographical writings have been a major cultural genre from antiquity to the present time General questions of the literary as e g the relation between literature and reality truth and fiction the dependency of author narrator and figure or issues of individual and cultural styles etc can be studied preeminently in the autobiographical genre Yet the tradition of life writing has in the course of literary history developed manifold types and forms Especially in the globalized age where the media and other technological cultural factors contribute to a rapid transformation of lifestyles autobiographical writing has maintained even enhanced its popularity and importance By conceiving autobiography in a wide sense that includes memoirs diaries self portraits and autofiction as well as media transformations of the genre this three volume handbook offers a comprehensive survey of theoretical approaches systematic aspects and historical developments in an international and interdisciplinary perspective While autobiography is usually considered to be a European tradition special emphasis is placed on the modes of self representation in non Western cultures and on inter and transcultural perspectives of the genre The individual contributions are closely interconnected by a system of cross references The handbook addresses scholars of cultural and literary studies students as well as non academic readers

Episodes in Early Modern and Modern Christian-Jewish Relations Paolo L. Bernardini,2016-09-23 The history of the Christian Jewish relations is full of curious intense and occasionally tragic episodes In the dialectical development of the Western monotheistic religions Judaism plays the role of the thesis of the origins and background for the rise of Christianity and Islam With the rise of Christianity Judaism was progressively marginalized since it was denied the same essence and validity of Christianity which grew immensely in terms of spiritual and secular power Christian scholars since the Middle Ages looked at Judaism as at the broken staff in the evolutionist line of religion to quote the insightful work of the late Frank E Manuel At the same time while re discovering Judaism Christian scholars redefined themselves and Christianity as well However while Christianity encompassed many sects and many nations the relatively weak diversity within Judaism the religion of a single nation seemed to hinder its evolution and development While the intellectual battle was fought in a scholarly way the emergence of the Christian State condemned the Jews to perpetual discrimination and occasional toleration until a lay State Nazi Germany threatened the survival of the Jewish people Neutral controversial works became powerful extermination tools when used in the political arena This volume casts light on some crucial episodes in the long dialectics within the same intellectual and religious framework touching upon themes such as the conception of time future in the age of Spinoza the early encounters of Judaism and Christianity in eighteenth century England the memory of the Shoah and the political revolution present in the system of the Jewish Commonwealth From early to late Modernity there is a history of friendship and diffidence mutual understanding and dramatic disagreements which even today largely conditions the Western intellectual world

The Holocaust and Memory in the Global Age Daniel Levy,Natan Sznaider,2006 Daniel Levy and Natan Sznaider examine the forms that collective memory take in the age of globalisation They explore how the Holocaust has been remembered in Germany Israel and the US over the past 50 years and demonstrate how this event has become detached from its precise context

Hospitality, Volume II Jacques Derrida,2024-04-05 Jacques Derrida explores the ramifications of what we owe to others Hospitality reproduces a two year seminar series delivered by Jacques Derrida at the cole des hautes tudes en sciences sociales in Paris between 1995 and 1997 In these lectures Derrida asks a series of related questions about responsibility and the foreigner How do we welcome or turn away the foreigner What does the idea of the foreigner reveal about kinship and the state particularly in relation to friendship citizenship migration asylum assimilation and xenophobia Central to his project is a rigorous distinction between conventional finite hospitality with its many conditions and the aspirational idea of hospitality as something offered unconditionally to the stranger This volume collects the second year of the seminar which considers an Islamic problematic of hospitality the relevance of forgiveness and the work of Emmanuel Levinas

Theopneustia Louis Gaussen, 1841 Theopneustia; the plenary inspiration of the Holy Scriptures, from the French of L. G. Samuel Robert Louis GAUSSEN, 1841 Displaced Memories M. Edurne Portela, 2009 Displaced Memories analyzes the representation of traumatic memories political imprisonment torture survival and exile in the literary works of Alicia Kozameh Alicia Partnoy and Nora Strejilevich survivors of Argentina's Dirty War 1976-1983 Beginning with an examination of the history of Argentina's last dictatorship the conditions that led the authors to exile and the contexts in which the texts were published Portela provides the theoretical tools for the understanding of narratives of trauma and displacement caused by political violence The author proposes a theory that critiques post structuralist paradigms of trauma which present trauma as an unclaimed experience impossible to apprehend as she argues for an analysis of the symbolic uses of language presenting trauma as a claimed experience that can be brought into representation and therefore create the conditions of possibility for working through The Beast and the Sovereign, Volume I Jacques Derrida, 2010-12-15 When he died in 2004 Jacques Derrida left behind a vast legacy of unpublished material much of it in the form of written lectures With The Beast and the Sovereign Volume 1 the University of Chicago Press inaugurates an ambitious series edited by Geoffrey Bennington and Peggy Kamuf translating these important works into English The Beast and the Sovereign Volume 1 launches the series with Derrida's exploration of the persistent association of bestiality or animality with sovereignty In this seminar from 2001-2002 Derrida continues his deconstruction of the traditional determinations of the human The beast and the sovereign are connected he contends because neither animals nor kings are subject to the law the sovereign stands above it while the beast falls outside the law from below He then traces this association through an astonishing array of texts including La Fontaine's fable The Wolf and the Lamb Hobbes's biblical sea monster in Leviathan D H Lawrence's poem Snake Machiavelli's Prince with its elaborate comparison of princes and foxes a historical account of Louis XIV attending an elephant autopsy and Rousseau's evocation of werewolves in The Social Contract Deleuze Lacan and Agamben also come into critical play as Derrida focuses in on questions of force right justice and philosophical interpretations of the limits between man and animal The Death Penalty, Volume II Jacques Derrida, 2017-05-31 In the first volume of his extraordinary analysis of the death penalty Jacques Derrida began a journey toward an ambitious end the first truly philosophical argument against the death penalty Exploring an impressive breadth of thought he traced a deeply entrenched logic throughout the whole of Western philosophy that has justified the state's right to take a life He also marked literature as a crucial place where this logic has been most effectively challenged In this second and final volume Derrida builds on these analyses toward a definitive argument against capital punishment Of central importance in this second volume is Kant's explicit justification of the death penalty in the Metaphysics of Morals Thoroughly deconstructing Kant's position which holds the death penalty

as exemplary of the eye for an eye Talionic law Derrida exposes numerous damning contradictions and exceptions Keeping the current death penalty in the United States in view he further explores the anesthetical logic he analyzed in volume one addressing the themes of cruelty and pain through texts by Robespierre and Freud reading Heidegger and in a fascinating improvised final session the nineteenth century Spanish Catholic thinker Donoso Cortés Ultimately Derrida shows that the rationality of the death penalty as represented by Kant involves an imposition of knowledge and calculability on a fundamental condition of non knowledge that we don't otherwise know what or when our deaths will be In this way the death penalty acts out a phantasm of mastery over one's own death Derrida's thoughts arrive at a particular moment in history when the death penalty in the United States is the closest it has ever been to abolition and yet when the arguments on all sides are as confused as ever His powerful analysis will prove to be a paramount contribution to this debate as well as a lasting entry in his celebrated oeuvre

The Beast and the Sovereign, Volume II Jacques Derrida, 2017-02-02 Following on from The Beast and the Sovereign Volume I this book extends Jacques Derrida's exploration of the connections between animality and sovereignty In this second year of the seminar originally presented in 2002-2003 as the last course he would give before his death Derrida focuses on two markedly different texts Heidegger's 1929-1930 course The Fundamental Concepts of Metaphysics and Daniel Defoe's Robinson Crusoe As he moves back and forth between the two works Derrida pursues the relations between solitude insularity world violence boredom and death as they supposedly affect humans and animals in different ways Hitherto unnoticed or underappreciated aspects of Robinson Crusoe are brought out in strikingly original readings of questions such as Crusoe's belief in ghosts his learning to pray his parrot Poll and his reinvention of the wheel Crusoe's terror of being buried alive or swallowed alive by beasts or cannibals gives rise to a rich and provocative reflection on death burial and cremation in part provoked by a meditation on the death of Derrida's friend Maurice Blanchot Throughout these readings are juxtaposed with interpretations of Heidegger's concepts of world and finitude to produce a distinctively Derridean account that will continue to surprise his readers

The Turks in Egypt and their Cultural Legacy Ekmeleddin Ihsanoglu, 2012-09-01 Though Egypt was ruled by Turkish speakers through most of the period from the ninth century until 1952 the impact of Turkish culture there remains understudied This book deals with the period from 1805 to 1952 during which Turkish cultural patterns spread through reforms based on those of Istanbul may have touched more Egyptians than ever before An examination of the book's newspapers and other written materials produced in Turkish including translations and of the presses involved reveals the rise and decline of Turkish culture in government the military education literature music and everyday life The author also describes the upsurge in Turkish writing generated by Young Turk exiles from 1895 to 1909 Included is a CD containing appendices of extensive bibliographic information concerning books and periodicals printed in Egypt during this period

Among the issues examined are the extent of the human destruction the degree of collaboration Jewish reactions and efforts to save the Jews Hannah Arendt and the Limits of Total Domination Michal Aharony, 2015-03-05 Responding to the increasingly influential role of Hannah Arendt's political philosophy in recent years Hannah Arendt and the Limits of Total Domination The Holocaust Plurality and Resistance critically engages with Arendt's understanding of totalitarianism According to Arendt the main goal of totalitarianism was total domination namely the virtual eradication of human legality morality individuality and plurality This attempt in her view was most fully realized in the concentration camps which served as the major laboratories for the regime While Arendt focused on the perpetrators logic and drive Michal Aharony examines the perspectives and experiences of the victims and their ability to resist such an experiment The first book length study to juxtapose Arendt's concept of total domination with actual testimonies of Holocaust survivors this book calls for methodological pluralism and the integration of the voices and narratives of the actors in the construction of political concepts and theoretical systems To achieve this Aharony engages with both well known and non canonical intellectuals and writers who survived Auschwitz and Buchenwald concentration camps Additionally she analyzes the oral testimonies of survivors who are largely unknown drawing from interviews conducted in Israel and in the U S as well as from videotaped interviews from archives around the world Revealing various manifestations of unarmed resistance in the camps this study demonstrates the persistence of morality and free agency even under the most extreme and dehumanizing conditions while cautiously suggesting that absolute domination is never as absolute as it claims or wishes to be Scholars of political philosophy political science history and Holocaust studies will find this an original and compelling book Hospitality, Volume I Jacques Derrida, 2023-11-09 In Hospitality Volume I Jacques Derrida continues a seminar series he inaugurated in 1991 under the general title of Questions of Responsibility Delivered at the Ecole des Hautes Etudes en Sciences Sociales EHESS in Paris from November 1995 through June 1996 the seminar is guided by questions that focus on responsibility and the foreigner How is the foreigner welcomed and or repressed What does the notion of the foreigner reveal about kinship ethnicity the city the state and the nation What are the stakes of the opposition between friend and enemy How should we think of this in relation to borders citizenship displaced populations immigration exile asylum integration assimilation xenophobia and racism Derrida approaches these questions through readings of several classical texts as well as more modern texts from Heidegger Arendt and Camus among others Central to his project is a rigorous distinction between conventional hospitality always finite and conditional and the idea of a hospitality open unconditionally to the newcomer
