Finance, Accumulation and Monetary Power Daniel Woodley, 2019-10-29 This accessible yet rigorous book examines the development of financial socialism in advanced capitalist economies in the decade since the global financial crisis of 2007-2009 This new term refers to an attempt to resolve the accumulation crisis of capital through coordinated central bank activism where state circuits of monetary capital assume a critical role in the reproduction of capitalist social relations The book explains the dynamics of the crisis as it has developed and assesses the response of monetary elites to systemic financial risk in the global economy Their failure to re engineer growth following the technology boom of the late 1990s and the global financial crisis are driving fundamental changes in the form and function of capitalist money which have yet to be theorized adequately Finance Accumulation and Monetary Power presents a revealing and radical critique of the failure of the International Political Economy to apprehend changes taking place within capitalism employing a critical theoretical analysis of contradictions in the capitalist reproduction scheme The book will be of key interest to scholars students and readers of international political economy critical political economy heterodox economics globalization international relations international political sociology business studies and finance

Mothers as the Image of God Juliann Bullock, 2022-12-12 Is God a man If God is our Heavenly Father does that require God to be male Does the Bible ever describe God as a mother as well as a father If human fathers can show us what God is like can we see God's image in our mothers too How do women uniquely reveal the nature of the One who created both male and female in the image of God Mothers as the Image of God explores answers to these important questions along with many others This book guides the reader on a series of biblical reflections designed to help both men and women experience the motherly love of God revealed in Scripture and to nourish women with the deep confidence that the most feminine aspects of their nature are a profound reflection of the very image of God an image that is exquisitely displayed through mothering whether that takes place biologically through adoption or by pouring into spiritual children
