Her Neighbor's Wife Lauren Jae Gutterman, 2019-11-01 At first glance Barbara Kalish fit the stereotype of a 1950s wife and mother Married at eighteen Barbara lived with her husband and two daughters in a California suburb where she was president of the Parent Teacher Association At a PTA training conference in San Francisco Barbara met Pearl another PTA president who also had two children and happened to live only a few blocks away from her To Barbara Pearl was the most gorgeous woman in the world and the two began an affair that lasted over a decade Through interviews diaries memoirs and letters Her Neighbor's Wife traces the stories of hundreds of women like Barbara Kalish who struggled to balance marriage and same sex desire in the postwar United States In doing so Lauren Jae Gutterman draws our attention away from the postwar landscape of urban gay bars and into the homes of married women who tended to engage in affairs with wives and mothers they met in the context of their daily lives through work at church or in their neighborhoods In the late 1960s and 1970s the lesbian feminist movement and the no fault divorce revolution transformed the lives of wives who desired women Women could now choose to divorce their husbands in order to lead openly lesbian or bisexual lives increasingly however these women were confronted by hostile state discrimination typically in legal battles over child custody Well into the 1980s many women remained ambivalent about divorce and resistant to labeling themselves as lesbian therefore complicating a simple interpretation of their lives and relationship choices By revealing the extent to which marriage has historically permitted space for wives relationships with other women Her Neighbor's Wife calls into question the presumed straightness of traditional American marriage

Love, Lust and Life Cheryl Lavin,

Paradise Lust Kit McCann, 2011-12-31 Everywhere you look for heaven's sake there are ladies Never mind for heaven's sake this is heaven It is the Garden of Eden where you are allowed to eat all the apples you want The air itself is sexy Never mind meanderings on hill tribes and Buddhist temple architecture or burble about meditation and mantras and dire warnings about prostitutes and the sex industry Because that is why you have come here You are a man with ample leisure time and money in your pocket and you are here for the ladies Because they do it Welcome to Thailand where hundreds of thousands of male tourists are lured every year by thoughts of luscious silk skinned maidens whose smiles promise ecstasy And despite the exotic sights gorgeous beaches and mouth watering food for many the magic of the east means sex In the raucous seaside resorts like Patang and Pattaya armies of sultry young temptresses ensnare the hearts and bankrolls of besotted foreigners Totally frank Kit McCann charts his own uninhibited rake's progress through the moonscape of lust and its pitfalls A vast comedy of corruption deceit drugs murder despair suicide and above all greed He should know he saw it all Assad or We Burn the Country Sam

Dagher,2019-05-28 From a Pulitzer Prize nominated journalist specializing in the Middle East this groundbreaking account of the Syrian Civil War reveals the never before published true story of a 21st century humanitarian disaster In spring 2011 Syrian President Bashar al Assad turned to his friend and army commander Manaf Tlass for advice about how to respond to Arab Spring inspired protests Tlass pushed for conciliation but Assad decided to crush the uprising an act which would catapult the country into an eight year long war killing almost half a million and fueling terrorism and a global refugee crisis Assad or We Burn the Country examines Syria's tragedy through the generational saga of the Assad and Tlass families once deeply intertwined and now estranged in Bashar's bloody quest to preserve his father's inheritance By drawing on his own reporting experience in Damascus and exclusive interviews with Tlass Dagher takes readers within palace walls to reveal the family behind the destruction of a country and the chaos of an entire region Dagher shows how one of the world's most vicious police states came to be and explains how a regional conflict extended globally engulfing the Middle East and pitting the United States and Russia against one another Timely propulsive and expertly reported Assad or We Burn the Country is the definitive account of this global crisis going far beyond the news story that has dominated headlines for years Work & Leisure Iis 166 Nels Anderson,2013-10-15 First Published in 1998 This is Volume XVII of the eighteen in the Sociology of Work and Organization series This study on work and leisure looks at present materials that point to the fields of study of non work obligations family and home leisure centredness declining worker interest in the job passivity and the cultural level
