Honourable Mention in the 2023 British Association for Contemporary Literary Studies Monograph Prize

The Short Story after Apartheid offers the first major study of the anglophone short story in South Africa since apartheid's end. By focusing on the short story, this book complicates models of South African literature dominated by the novel and contributes to a much needed generic and formalist turn in postcolonial studies. Literary texts are sites of productive struggle between formal and extra formal concerns, and these brief fragmentary elliptical formally innovative stories offer perspectives that reframe or revise important concerns of post apartheid literature: the aesthetics of engaged writing, the politics of the past, class and race, the legacies of violence, and the struggle over the land. Through an analysis of key texts from the period by Nadine Gordimer, Ivan Vladislavi, Zo Wicomb, Phaswane Mpe, and Henrietta Rose Innes, this book assesses the place of the short story in post apartheid writing and develops a fuller model of how artworks allow and disallow forms of social thought.

The South African Short Story in English, 1920-2010 Marta Fossati, 2024-09-05

Through detailed close readings alongside investigations into the history of print culture, Marta Fossati traces the development of the South African short story in English from the late 1920s to the first decade of the twenty-first century. She examines a selection of short stories by important Black South African writers: Rolfes and Herbert Dhlomo, Peter Abrahams, Can Themba, Alex La Guma, Mtutuzeli Matshoba, Ahmed Essop, and Zo Wicomb, with an alertness to the dialogue between ethics and aesthetics performed by these texts. This new history of Black short fiction problematises and interrogates the often polarised readings of Black literature in South Africa that can be torn between notions of literariness, protest, and journalism. Due to material constraints, short fiction in South Africa circulated first and foremost through local print media, which Fossati analyses in detail to show the cross-fertilisation between journalism and the short story. While rooted in the South African context, the short stories considered also hold a translocal dimension, allowing us to explore the ethical and aesthetic practice of intertextuality. These are writings that complicate the aesthetics/ethics binary, generic classifications, and the categories of the literary and the political. Theoretically eclectic in its approach, although largely underpinned by a narratological analysis, The South African Short Story in English, 1920-2010: When Aesthetics Meets Ethics offers a fresh perspective on the South African short story in English, spotlighting several hitherto marginalised figures in South African literary studies.

The Man That Got Away Walter Rimler, 2015-09-15

Over the Rainbow, Stormy Weather, and One for My Baby are just a few of Harold Arlen's well-loved compositions. Yet his name is hardly known except to the musicians who venerate him. At a gathering of songwriters, George Gershwin called him the best of us. Irving Berlin agreed. Paul McCartney sent him a fan letter, and became his publisher. Bob Dylan wrote of his fascination with Arlen's bittersweet lonely world. A cantor's son, Arlen believed his music was from a place outside himself a place that also sent tragedy When his wife became mentally ill and was institutionalized he turned to alcohol It nearly killed him But the beautiful songs kept coming Blues in the Night My Shining Hour Come Rain or Come Shine and The Man That Got Away Walter Rimler drew on interviews with friends and associates of Arlen and on newly available archives to write this intimate portrait of a genius whose work is a pillar of the Great American Songbook The Nation ,1923
