Jesus Lois Keffer, 2004 13 week multiage summer program allows kids to journey to the Holy Land meeting the people Jesus met and seeing the difference Jesus made in their lives The Accidental Immigrant David Bouchier, 2004-06-24

Transatlantic humorist David Bouchier brings wit wisdom and a touch of philosophy to the everyday dramas of American suburban life This book brings together more than a hundred essays originally broadcast on National Public Radio or published in his Out of Order column in the Sunday New York Times When work and marriage brought David Bouchier to Long Island in 1986 the endless suburbs seemed mysterious and exotic to him He was inspired to begin writing essays and newspaper columns about his life there a personal and public diary of the Resident Alien experience In 1992 a weekly public radio essay was added to the newspaper columns and thousands of listeners still enjoy David's weekly radio broadcasts These are the affectionate and sometimes acerbic observations of an Accidental Immigrant who still finds life in America endlessly stimulating and wonderfully strange David Bouchier's thoughts about love life liberty and the pursuit of happiness in the suburbs will make you smile and make you think Boring suburban rituals like lawn care mall shopping wedding rehearsals and barbecues will never seem the same again The Book of Life Recovery Stephen Arterburn, David Stoop, 2012-08-17

Do you struggle with addictions or dependencies or do you want to help someone who does From the authors of the popular Life Recovery series that has guided millions of readers back to health and wholeness now comes the ultimate recovery book written from a Christian perspective As authors and counselors Stephen Arterburn and David Stoop walk readers through the Twelve Steps of recovery They share real life personal stories from survivors as well as Biblical stories and verses to support readers in their journey Whether using the book alone or as a companion to the popular Life Recovery Bible this is an essential resource for anyone wanting to walk closer with God through recovery as well as for their counselors pastors and loved ones Republished as Life Recovery Journey The Desert Remembers My Name Kathleen Alcalá, 2007-04-26 My parents always told me I was Mexican I was Mexican because they were Mexican This was sometimes modified to Mexican American since I was born in California and thus automatically a U S citizen But my parents said this too was once part of Mexico My father would say this with a sweeping gesture taking in the smog the beautiful mountains the cars and houses and fast food franchises When he made that gesture all was cleared away in my mind's eye to leave the hazy impression of a better place We were here when the white people came the Spaniards then the Americans And we will be here when they go away he would say and it will be part of Mexico again Thus begins a lyrical and entirely absorbing collection of personal essays by esteemed Chicana writer and gifted storyteller Kathleen Alcalá Loosely linked by an exploration of the many meanings of family these essays move in a broad arc from the stories and experiences of those close to her to those whom she wonders about like Andrea Yates a mother who drowned her children In the process of digging and sifting she is frequently surprised by what she unearths Her family she discovers were Jewish refugees from the Spanish Inquisition who took on the trappings of Catholicism in order to survive Although the essays are in many ways personal they are also universal When she examines her family history she is encouraging us to inspect our own families too When she investigates a family secret she is supporting our own search for meaning And when she writes that being separated from our indigenous culture is a form of illiteracy we know exactly what she means After reading these essays we find that we have discovered not only why Kathleen Alcalá is a writer but also why we appreciate her so much She helps us to find ourselves Making It
