David Searles, 2021-05-11 Alice Spencer Geddes Lloyd was a New England woman with a mission in life In 1916 she settled on Caney Creek in Eastern Kentucky determined to bring higher education to this remote corner of Appalachia The school she founded now Alice Lloyd College continues to serve the area and its people and to stand as a tribute to Lloyd s remarkable energy determination and vision Lloyd s program combined a rigorous academic curriculum with an intense effort to instill a sense of service in the school s graduates This education was provided free and required only that the students abide by Lloyd s strict rules of conduct and pledge to remain in the mountains after graduating In the first full scale study of Lloyd s life and work and the institution she founded David Searles shows how this courageous and complex woman struggled throughout her long life against seemingly insurmountable odds to create an institution dedicated to improving life in Appalachia But as he acknowledges Lloyd s fundraising activities relied on harmful stereotypes that caused resentment among her mountain neighbors and she often angered others working in the mountains Despite the negative aspects of Lloyd s activities Searles casts serious doubt on the now fashionable conclusion that the women who came to the mountains to do good created more problems than they solved Lloyd s story he argues demonstrates that much good was indeed accomplished and that the people of the mountains recognized and appreciated her achievement

Divided We Stand Michiel Schwarz, Michael Thompson, 1990 This book provides a down to earth account of the virtues and failures of environmental risk assessment The assessment process involves politics technology and issues of social choice an unstructured grouping that often presents contradictory and confusing standpoints the virtues of science and the scientific method are extolled on the one hand and condemned on the other no viable solutions are offered and there is no real understanding of the issues being discussed This chaotic situation is analyzed using cultural theory to offer a powerful and groundbreaking account of such topics as technological decision making politics energy engineering and technology as a whole CBSE Class 12 Business Studies Handbook - MINDMAPS, Solved Papers, Objective Question Bank & Practice Papers Disha Experts, 2019-09-25 Reason and Less Vinod Goel, 2022-02-08 A new biologically driven model of human behavior in which reason is tethered to the evolutionarily older autonomic instinctive and associative systems In Reason and Less Vinod Goel explains the workings of the tethered mind Reason does not float on top of our biology but is tethered to evolutionarily older autonomic instinctive and associative systems After describing the conceptual and neuroanatomical basis of each system Goel shows how they interact to generate a blended response Goel s commonsense account drives human behavior back into the biology where it belongs and provides a richer set of tools for understanding how we pursue food sex and politics Goel takes the reader on a journey through psychology cognitive behavioral developmental and evolutionary neuroscience philosophy ethology economics and political science to explain the workings of the tethered mind One key insight that holds everything together is that feelings generated in old widely conserved brain stem structures are evolution s solution to initiating and selecting all behaviors and provide the common currency for the different systems to interact Reason is as much about feelings as are lust and the taste of chocolate cake All systems contribute to behavior and the overall control structure is one that maximizes pleasure and minimizes displeasure Tethered rationality has some sobering and challenging implications for such real world human behaviors as climate change denial Trumpism racism or sexism They cannot be changed simply by targeting beliefs but will require more drastic measures the nature of which depends on the specific behavior in question Having an accurate model of human behavior is the crucial first step Two-party Line Jane Carter Goodale, Ann Chowning, 1996 This honest glimpse into the nature of ethnographic fieldwork revolves around letters written by the author to illustrate the daily adventures of learning to understand a largely unknown culture through participant observation and interactive discourse

Literacy and Advocacy in Adolescent Family, Gang, School, and Juvenile Court Communities Debra Smith, Kathryn F. Whitmore, 2006-08-15 The goal of this book is to encourage educators and researchers to understand the complexities of adolescent gang members lives in order to rethink their assumptions about these students in school The particular objective is to situate four gang members as literate caring students from loving families whose identities and literacy keep them on the margins of school The research described in this book suggests that advocacy is a particularly effective form of critical ethnography Smith and Whitmore argue that until schools as communities of practice enable children and adolescents to retain identities from the communities in which they are full community members frightening numbers of students are destined to fail The stories of four Mexican American male adolescents who were active members of a gang and Smith's students in an alternative high school program portray the complicated multiple worlds in which these boys live As sons and teenage parents they live in a family community as CRIP members they live in a gang community as at risk students drop outs and graduates they live in a school community and as a result of their illegal activities they live in the juvenile court community The authors theorize about the boys literacy in each of their communities Literacy is viewed as ideological related to power and embedded in a sociocultural context Vivid examples of conversation art tagging rap poetry and other language and literacy events bring the narratives to life in figures and photographs in all the chapters Readers will find this book engaging and readable yet thought provoking and challenging Audiences for Literacy and Advocacy in Adolescent Family Gang School and Juvenile Court Communities include education researchers professionals and students in the areas of middle high school education at risk adolescent psychology and alternative community programs specifically those interested in literacy education sociocultural theory and popular culture

Field Leadership Ken Shelton, 2020-06-10 You already live work or play in a field but do you exercise proactive and principled leadership in your field During the decade of the 2020s you will be challenged and may be displaced your life disrupted by unforeseen events and conditions requiring you to make uncomfortable changes and perhaps enter new fields Field Leadership is an inspiring and practical guide for all those who perform in any field that expects them to excel as individuals and as team members and achieve desired wins and impressive results in spite of tough competition and market undulations With faith and focus you might lead yourself and others to achieve a 3X yield in your field The Semiotics of New Spaces Charlyn Dyers,2018-11-28 In South Africa the township or sub economic state housing development has achieved a very significant position as a site for sociolinguistic research The Semiotics of New Spaces Language and Literacy Practices in one South African Township looks at the ways in which people are responding through their semiotic practices to the intense socio historical changes taking place in post apartheid South Africa The study is set against the backdrop of Wesbank one of the first racially mixed housing developments in the Western Cape The result is a range of related topics such as how cross cultural and crosslinguistic families influence the language practices of their younger members the impact of translingual friendships on language practices and attitudes the ways in which older people use their existing literacies to negotiate the multilingual realities of the township and aspects such as identity voice and agency as markers of a developing participatory citizenship Developing and Sustaining a Successful Family Business Louis Cauffman,2022-03-17 This practical and important book offers ideas examples and suggestions that address the challenges inherent to developing and sustaining a successful family business It explores the complex dynamics involved in working with loved ones and how to pass a business on to a new generation Structured around the story of a family that has built a successful enterprise now facing the issues of succession the book utilizes the solution focused model to provide step by step instructions to creating good working relationships and orienting toward common goals while building trust respect and love Complete with summaries toolkits and case studies this book is an essential read for any member of a family business as well as those who provide services to family businesses including coaches consultants and non family employees Global Citizen Action Michael Edwards,John Gaventa,2014-04-08 Civil society or citizen s groups have taken centre stage in international policy debates and global problem solving They hold out the promise of a global community and global governance This volume by leading scholars and participants shows how to understand the changes that are occurring particularly in relation to the international institutions involved It includes case studies from all the major social movements of the 1990s Fracturing Resemblances Simon Harrison,2006-12-01 Western societies draw crucially on concepts of the individual in constructing their images of the ethnic group and nation and define these in terms of difference This study explores the implications of these constructs for Western understanding of social order and ethnic conflicts Comparing them with the forms of cultural identity characteristic of Melanesia as they have developed since pre colonial times the author arrives at a surprising conclusion he argues that these kinds of identities are more properly and adequately viewed as forms of disguised or denied resemblance and that it is these covert commonalities that give rise to and prolong social divisions and conflicts between groups Medical Pluralism in the Andes Christine Greenway,Joan D. Koss-Chioino,Thomas Leatherman,2003-09-02 Medical Pluralism in the Andes is the first major collection of anthropological approaches to health in the Andes for over twenty years Written in tribute to Libbet Crandon Malamuds pioneering work on Andean medicine this readable extensively illustrated and instructive book reflects the diversity of approaches in medical anthropology that have evolved during the past two decades Capturing the intricacies of health practice within the context of Andean social history cultural tradition community and folklore this is a remarkable and intimate chronicle of Andean culture and everyday life which will appeal across a wide range of readers from professional anthropologists to those interested in alternative medicines
