The Oxford Handbook of the Bronze Age Aegean (ca. 3000-1000 BC) Eric H. Cline, 2010 This Oxford handbook provides a comprehensive overview of our current understanding of the Bronze Age Aegean ca 3000 1000 BC and describes the most important debates and discussions within the discipline 66 articles in 4 sections cover topics ranging from chronological and geographical to thematic to site specific

The Oxford History of the Ancient Near East Karen Radner, Nadine Moeller, D. T. Potts, 2022-05-13 The Oxford History of Ancient Near East Volume 3 covers broadly the period from 1600 to 1100 BC or in archaeological terms the Late Bronze Age Twelve chapters present the history of the Near East from the Hyksos state of Lower Egypt to the Elamites in southwestern Iran examining the Hittites in Central Anatolia the kingdom of Mittani in Northern Mesopotamia the Kassites in southern Iraq and the Mycenaeans in the Aegean

Space and Time in Mediterranean Prehistory Stella Souvatzi, Athena Hadji, 2013-10-15 Space and Time in Mediterranean Prehistory addresses these two concepts as interrelated rather than as separate categories and as a means for understanding past social relations at different scales The need for this volume was realised through four main observations the ever growing interest in space and spatiality across the social sciences the comparative theoretical and methodological neglect of time and temporality the lack in the existing literature of an explicit and balanced focus on both space and time and the large amount of new information coming from prehistoric Mediterranean It focuses on the active and interactive role of space and time in the production of any social environment drawing equally on contemporary theory and on case studies from Mediterranean prehistory Space and Time in Mediterranean Prehistory seeks to break down the space time continuum often assumed rather than inferred into space time units and to uncover the varying and variable interrelations of space and time in prehistoric societies across the Mediterranean The volume is a response to the dissatisfaction with traditional views of space and time in prehistory and revisits these concepts to develop a timely integrative conceptual and analytical framework for the study of space and time in archaeology

1177 B.C. Eric H. Cline, 2015-09-22 A bold reassessment of what caused the Late Bronze Age collapse In 1177 B C marauding groups known only as the Sea Peoples invaded Egypt The pharaoh's army and navy managed to defeat them but the victory so weakened Egypt that it soon slid into decline as did most of the surrounding civilizations After centuries of brilliance the civilized world of the Bronze Age came to an abrupt and cataclysmic end

Kingdoms fell like dominoes over the course of just a few decades No more Minoans or Mycenaeans No more Trojans Hittites or Babylonians The thriving economy and cultures of the late second millennium B C which had stretched from Greece to Egypt and Mesopotamia suddenly ceased to exist along with writing systems technology and monumental architecture But the Sea Peoples alone could not have caused such widespread breakdown How did it happen In this major new account of the causes of this First Dark Ages Eric Cline tells the gripping story of how the end was brought about by multiple interconnected failures ranging from invasion and revolt to earthquakes drought and the cutting of international trade routes Bringing to life the vibrant multicultural world of these great civilizations he draws a sweeping panorama of the empires and globalized peoples of the Late Bronze Age and shows that it was their very interdependence that hastened their dramatic collapse and ushered in a dark age that lasted centuries A compelling combination of narrative and the latest scholarship 1177 B C sheds new light on the complex ties that gave rise to and ultimately destroyed the flourishing civilizations of the Late Bronze Age and that set the stage for the emergence of classical Greece Communication Uneven Jan

Moyes, 2012-09-01 Caves have been used in various ways across human society but despite the persistence within popular culture of the iconic caveman deep caves were never used primarily as habitation sites for early humans Rather in both ancient and contemporary contexts caves have served primarily as ritual spaces In Sacred Darkness contributors use archaeological evidence as well as ethnographic studies of modern ritual practices to envision the cave as place of spiritual and ideological power and a potent venue for ritual practice Covering the ritual use of caves in Europe Asia Australia Africa Mesoamerica and the US Southwest and Eastern woodlands this book brings together case studies by prominent scholars whose research spans from the Paleolithic period to the present day These contributions demonstrate that cave sites are as fruitful as surface contexts in promoting the understanding of both ancient and modern religious beliefs and practices This

Bronzization: Essays in Bronze Age Archaeology Heide W. Nørgaard, Samantha S. Reiter, 2025-02-20 A collection of state of the art articles which integrate new insights from the many advances in research on the subject into a new and up to date vision of the Bronze Age as a Europeanised or even globalised period Papers revise current understanding of bronzization and bronzification in line with a holistic view of recent scientific advances The Collapse of the Mycenaean Economy Sarah C. Murray, 2017-04-24 In this book Sarah Murray provides a comprehensive treatment of textual and archaeological evidence for the long distance trade economy of Greece across 600 years during the transition from the Late Bronze to the Early Iron Age Analyzing the finished objects that sustained this kind of trade she also situates these artifacts within the broader context of the ancient Mediterranean economy including evidence for the import and export of commodities as well as demographic change Murray argues that our current model of exchange during the Late Bronze Age is in need of a thoroughgoing reformulation She demonstrates that the association of imported objects with elite self fashioning is not supported by the evidence from any period in early Greek history Moreover the notional decline in trade during Greece s purported Dark Age appears to be the result of severe economic contraction rather than a severance of access to trade routes
