The Mirrored World A Novel:

The Mirrored World Debra Dean, 2012-08-28 The critically acclaimed author of The Madonnas of Leningrad Elegant and poetic the rare kind of book that you want to keep but you have to share Isabel Allende Debra Dean returns with The Mirrored World a breathtaking novel of love and madness set in 18th century Russia Transporting readers to St Petersburg during the reign of Catherine the Great Dean brilliantly reconstructs and reimagines the life of St Xenia one of Russia's most revered and mysterious holy figures in a richly told and thought provoking work of historical fiction that recounts the unlikely transformation of a young girl a child of privilege into a saint beloved by the poor The Mostly True Story of Jack Kelly Barnhill, 2011-08-02 Newbery Medal winner Kelly Barnhill's debut novel is an eerie tale of magic friendship and sacrifice Enter a world where magic bubbles just below the surface When Jack is sent to Hazelwood Iowa to live with his strange aunt and uncle he expects a summer of boredom Little does he know that the people of Hazelwood have been waiting for him for quite a long time When he arrives he begins to make actual friends for the first time in his life but the town bully beats him up and the richest man in town begins to plot Jack's imminent and hopefully painful demise It's up to Jack to figure out why suddenly everyone cares so much about him Back home he was practically invisible The Mostly True Story of Jack is a stunning debut novel about things broken things put back together and finding a place to belong There's a dry wit and playfulness to Barnhill's writing that recalls Lemony Snicket and Blue Balliett a delightfully unusual gem Los Angeles Times

The Cartesian Split Brandon D. Short, 2020-06-03 The Cartesian Split examines the phenomenon of Cartesian influence as a psychological complex in the Jungian tradition It explores the full legacy of Cartesian rationality in its emphasis on abstract thinking and masculinisation of thought often perceived in a negative light despite the developments of modernity The book argues that the Cartesian creation of the Modern Age as accompanied by a radical dualism is better understood as a myth while acknowledging the psychological reality of the myth The Cartesian myth is a collective dream and the urgency of its rhetoric suggests that an important message is being left unheeded This message may lead us to answers in the most unexpected place of all The book brings forth the Cartesian myth in a new context and shows it to have potential meaning for us today The book will be of great interest for academics researchers and post graduate students in the fields of analytical psychology mental health comparative mythology and Jungian studies The Story of Innovation James Trefil, 2017

Documenting the interconnectedness among the crucial milestones of our time and illustrated with full color photography a comprehensive tour of modern science and technology explores the most important innovations and inventions in engineering physics medicine chemistry biology and more Publisher's description Illuminating Eco Charlotte Ross, 2017-03-02 Illuminating Eco covers the range of British scholarship on the prolific literary and theoretical work of Umberto Eco With essays by scholars such as Michael Caesar and David Robey the volume provides an overview of current research being carried out by a new generation of academics In addition it provides an opportunity to view the interaction between Eco's fiction and his theoretical texts and suggests future avenues of research. The interdisciplinary nature of the contributions makes this collection accessible to Italianists and non-Italian speakers alike in order to situate Eco's work in the wider literary and critical sphere. Contributions have been divided into four sections with the first containing essays that engage with Eco's writing through a strong awareness of the reading strategies suggested and required by his texts. The second section is composed of essays that discuss different approaches to interpretative strategies including the relationship between Eco's theoretical writing and his own fiction. The third part consists of new responses to Eco's work each of which questions previous theoretical interpretations and creates new applications for established approaches. Finally the fourth section contains a written response from Eco himself to some of the questions raised by these essays and a translation of the final chapter from his most recent publication Sulla letteratura which discusses the development of his narrative works from conception to execution.

Inhaltsangabe

Introduction Every thing's got a moral if only you can find it Lewis Carroll 1865 In 2015 the first edition of Alice in Wonderland will have its 150th anniversary. The novel as well as its sequel Through the Looking Glass and What Alice Found There have been read by people of all ages and all origins ever since. Due to the widespread success of the literary work Lewis Carroll's novels have not only been illustrated by hundreds of artists but also frequently adapted for film, theatre, opera, music and other forms of art. Among these numerous adaptations are two motion pictures produced by the Walt Disney Company which is known for warm-hearted movies for audiences of all ages. The relationship between Alice in Wonderland and Walt Disney even dates back to 1923 when he founded the famous film studio due to a distribution contract for his first completed short film called Alice's Wonderland. This thesis however focuses on the Disney adaptation from 1951 a 2-D cartoon animation as well as the most recent film adaptation from 2010 a combination of live-action film and computer-generated animation. Thus the main part of this thesis constitutes a comparative analysis of both adaptations regarding the following aspects: the evolution of the visualisations, the different characters of the heroine Alice, the influences of Walt Disney and Tim Burton on the story lines and the styles of the adaptations and the responses to both films. Thereby the following research questions should be answered: What are the specificities of Carroll's novels? Why did it attract so many filmmakers? Why did both adaptations employ the medium of animation? Did the medium get implemented successfully? How did Walt Disney and Tim Burton affect the story lines and the styles of the adaptations? How did the heroine's character change under their influence? How did the audiences react to the adaptations? What are the reasons for that? The first theoretical part hence starts with a description of the literary model which aims at defining the novels' specificities respectively the essence Carroll tried to convey. Chapter 2 outlines the most important issues of today's adaptation discourse since the theory of adaptation serves as the theoretical basis for the comparative analysis. In chapter 3 an overview of the medium of animation will be given including the medium's possibilities and challenges as well as its techniques With Subject of the Event Sebastian Huber, 2017-11-30 What does falling in love have in common with the fall of the Berlin Wall Or the fall of the Twin Towers In the light of postmodernism's programmatic critique of a humanist notion of the subject and an emphatic understanding of events Subject of the Event shows that selected American novels after 2000 offer an alternative to the death of the subject As the first book to comprehensively engage with Alain Badiou's writings outside of a philosophical context Subject of the Event analyzes five critically acclaimed novels of the new millennium Cormac McCarthy's The Road 2006 Jess Walter's The Zero 2006 Mark Z Danielewski's Only Revolutions 2006 Paul Beatty's Slumberland 2008 and Thomas Pynchon's Against the Day 2006 and argues that they create different subjects of the event that are empowered with reagency The subject of the event and its empowerment what this book calls reagency implies that subjects only evolve out of their confrontation with the revolutionary impetus that events propel Unlike a humanist capability of having agency reagency is defined as a repetitive subjective praxis that is contingent upon events which is given a concrete literary form in the novels under investigation Sebastian Huber explores how the American penchant for events new beginnings clean slates apocalypse is being critically dealt with in the novels at hand while still offering an emphatic idea of singular disruptions that open up ways for subjects to affirm and become empowered by the new propositions of these happenings Cognitive Grammar in Contemporary Fiction Chloe Harrison, 2017-05-24 This book proposes an extension of Cognitive Grammar Langacker 1987 1991 2008 towards a cognitive discourse grammar through the unique environment that literary stylistic application offers Drawing upon contemporary research in cognitive stylistics Text World Theory deixis and mind modelling amongst others the volume scales up central Cognitive Grammar concepts such as construal grounding the reference point model and action chains in order to explore the attenuation of experience and how it is simulated in literary reading In particular it considers a range of contemporary texts by Neil Gaiman Jennifer Egan Jonathan Safran Foer Ian McEwan and Paul Auster This application builds upon previous work that adopts Cognitive Grammar for literary analysis and provides the first extended account of Cognitive Grammar in contemporary fiction Reading Eco Rocco Capozzi, 1997-02-22 Examines some of Eco's writings together with secondary sources in order to arrive at a more comprehensive critique of his literary theories and his notions of general semiotics as a cognitive social cultural practice Articles on literary semiotics which comprise the second section focus primarily on Eco Peirce Bakhtin Greimas Borges and Derrida Part three examines aspects of Eco's fiction Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Disability in Science Fiction K. Independent Stance W. J. Keith,1991 Part One of this strongly worded informed and wide ranging collection examines key issues for the future of Canadian criticism Part Two offers new readings of important works by Grove Wilson MacLennan Davies Laurence Hood Wiebe Hodgins and Atwood As W J Keith argues We still have a mission to have our literature recognized as an essential reflection of our national life This is what I mean by retrenchment and consolidation Literature can survive without literary criticism but it cannot survive if it is unknown and unread It is criticism s prime function at the present time to see that it is both known and read with that mature enjoyment which is a combination of emotional sensitivity and humane intelligence As critics scholars editors we shall not be fulfilling our responsibilities or justifying our existence if we attempt anything less Or as Keith modestly observes in his introduction to this collection If this book is of any interest it will be because Canadian literature is an important subject Literary commentators like myself are middle men and should be prepared to admit the fact If this book succeeds in helping readers to appreciate the works of Canadian writers that I discuss and to derive increased pleasure and insight from them it will have served its purpose I can see no other justification for it or for any other work of criticism

Spiegelman,2014-07-14 Writing with the vigor and elan that readers have come to expect from his many astute reviews and essays Willard Spiegelman maintains that contemporary American poets have returned to the poetic aims of an earlier era to edify as well as to delight and thus to serve the didactic muse What Spiegelman says about individual poets such as Nemerov Hecht Ginsberg Pinsky Ammons Rich and Merrill among others is wonderfully insightful Furthermore his outlook on their work the way he takes quite literally the teacherly elements of their poems challenges long standing conceptions both about contemporary writing and about the poetry of the Eliot Pound Stevens Williams generation Beginning the book with a meditation on W H Auden s legacy to American poets Spiegelman ends with a discussion of the multiple scenes of learning in Merrill s The Changing Light at Sandover which he identifies as not only the major epic poem of the second half of the twentieth century but also as the period s most important georgic a textbook full of scientific mythic artistic and human instruction The Didactic Muse reminds us that poets have traditionally acknowledged their function as teachers from Horace s advice that poetry should please and instruct to Robert Frost s aphorism that a poem begins in delight and ends in wisdom Whereas many of the critical remarks of the most important Romantic and modern poets suggest their desperate attempts to separate poetry from instruction Spiegelman demonstrates that their practices often contradicted their theories And he shows that our best contemporary poets are now embracing the older classical paradigms Originally published in 1989 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905
