

Residential Policies

This pamphlet is being provided for you in order to preview the policies that you will be promising to abide by if you were to be accepted into the Rainbow Haven program. A complete explanation of each policy will be made available to you if you are accepted into Rainbow Haven's Residential Program.

Becoming a Rainbow Haven Resident

Intake Policy

Applicants will be evaluated for appropriateness in an intake process with three progressively more involved steps – phone / face-to-face referral, application, interview.

Resident Criteria Policy

Rainbow Haven residents are carefully screened and chosen to participate in the residential Housing program based on their qualifications for potential success. Not every applicant is guaranteed a spot in residency.

Victims of Domestic Violence Policy

Victims of recent domestic violence will not be eligible for housing at Rainbow Haven due to security factors. Under certain circumstances and with appropriate investigation, women who have exhibited an extended separation from a former abuser may be allowed to live at Rainbow Haven provided all contact is cut off from that abuser in the future.

Rainbow Haven Program Policies

Budget Accountability Policy

All residents living at Rainbow Haven are required to faithfully live on a budget that they have helped to construct during the entire time she lives at Rainbow Haven. Residents will have to turn in proof of their income and expenses and fill out accurate weekly income / expense sheets as well as to live on a budget during the entire time they are in our program.

Case Management Policy

The Case Manager and resident will work together on an individualized plan of care to assess and meet resident needs and empower residents to set and accomplish personal short and long term goals. Focus of care plan is to begin with the end in mind. "What needs to happen so that you are prepared to leave Rainbow Haven by your exit date? By when does it need to happen?, etc.

Church Attendance Policy

All Rainbow Haven residents are required to visit at least three different churches during their first month at Rainbow Haven. Residents must choose a home church which they will attend weekly during their entire stay at Rainbow Haven by the end of their first month. Residents will then be assigned a mentor from within the church they choose to attend, and they must maintain weekly contact with that mentor throughout their stay at Rainbow Haven.

Evaluation Policy and Procedure

All residents living at Rainbow Haven will be evaluated periodically throughout their stay to ensure program compliance. Residents scoring at least a 90% on their Evaluation Tool can be considered successful graduates and can be eligible for a housing extension if needed.

Group Class Policy

Attendance at Biblically based Group Classes will be required for all residents throughout their stay at Rainbow Haven. Classes meet on Mondays, Tuesdays, and Thursdays from 7 – 8:30 pm. Childcare is provided for all residential children.
