Wild Races Lalruatkima, 2024-01-05 This book analyzes the narrative dynamics of social formations in British India using statistical and ethnographic records visual cultures and linguistic exercises to describe the British Empire's production of knowledge about so called strange new worlds Lalruatkima then labels these narrative dynamics as scripturalizing to account for the creation or writing of these worlds into existence This focus underscores empire as one of many such formations imagined against the backdrop of contested conversations about what it is and what it could be When reverse engineered empire throws into sharp relief its constituent narrative placeholders and the sequences of meaning making that connect them Power differentials between the imperial center and frontier determine the
