The author's perspective is reinforced in the Journal discussion of the conflict in Vietnam. The implementation of the country's economic policy has been an "important step toward the realization of a highly centralized, free-market economy" (p. 106). The author's comments, however, are not without criticism. The Journal of Economics and Management Science will be used in the paper below, particularly in the role of business ethics. The Journal discussion cited above, in 1980, has been criticized (p. 106). The author's perspective on the high level of corruption in the 1980s, however, is not without merit.
