Schumacher, 2005-09-22 This book combines theoretical and experimental aspects of the establishment of dependency It provides an account of dependency relations by focusing on the representation and interpretation of referentially dependent elements particularly regular reflexives logophors and pronouns First the establishment of dependency is discussed within a model of syntax-discourse correspondences that predicts an economy based dependency hierarchy contingent on the level of representation at which the dependency is formed as well as the internal structure of the dependent element and its antecedent Secondly the model's predictions are substantiated by a series of experimental studies conducted in English and Dutch providing evidence from three sources of online sentence comprehension reaction time studies Broca's aphasia patient studies and event related brain potential studies The findings show that dependencies are established at distinct levels of linguistic encoding i.e. syntax or discourse determined by the presence or absence of coargumenthood and the representation of the dependency forming elements Descriptive Writing, Grades 1-2 Jennifer Overend Prior,2000-10 Interactive Notebook: Language Arts Workbook, Grade 7 Schyrlet Cameron,Carolyn Craig,2019-01-02 Encourage students to create their own learning portfolios with the Mark Twain Interactive Notebook Language Arts for grade 7 This 64 page interactive notebook includes 28 lessons in nouns verbs adjectives adverbs prepositions and more Students are encouraged to be creative use color and work with interactive content to gain a greater understanding of the topics covered This workbook helps students record store and organize essential information and serve as resources for review and test prep The Interactive Notebook Language Arts Series for grades 6 through 8 is designed to allow students to become active participants in their own learning by creating interactive notebooks Each book provides an easy to follow plan for setting up creating and maintaining interactive notebooks for the language arts classroom Mark Twain Media Publishing Company specializes in providing engaging supplemental books and decorative resources to complement middle and upper grade classrooms Designed by leading educators this product line covers a range of subjects including mathematics sciences language arts social studies history government fine arts and character
