Autobiography: A Critical Study Dipak Giri, 2025-03-01 Dalit Autobiography is a distinctive literary form in the sense that it shifts from personal I to communal we This shifting from individual to communal differentiates such autobiographies from mainstream autobiographies where the autobiography mainly centers round personal experiences of the autobiographer concerned On the other hand Dalit Autobiographies deal not only with the individual writer but also with the community he or she belongs to Transformation of individualistic I into communal we makes such autobiographies completely distinctive literary form Such autobiography reflects not only Dalit life and suffering but also their voice of protest and resistance In this sense Dalit autobiographers are activists and writers as well Among Dalit autobiographers irrespective of gender there are innumerable autobiographies written by male and female Dalit writers The present book is my little endeavour to articulate the voice of Dalit autobiographers which is often neglected by the mainstream socio cultural life Fanon's Dialectic of Experience Ato Sekyi-Otu, 1996 In this reinterpretation of Franz Fanon Ato Sekyi Otu ensures the reader s awareness of the formal complexity of Fanon s work Fanon advocated national liberation and resistance to colonial power in his books such as Black Skin White Masks Money, Autonomy and Citizenship Alessandro Pinzani, Walquiria Leão Rego, 2018-10-26 This book analyzes the impacts on peoples lives of the largest antipoverty social program in the world the Brazilian Bolsa Fam lia Program Created by the government of former Brazilian president Luiz In cio Lula da Silva Bolsa Fam lia has been for a time the largest conditional cash transfer program in the world serving more than 50 million Brazilians who had a monthly per capita income of less than USD 50 The program is regarded as one of the key factors behind the significant poverty reduction Brazil experienced during the first decade of the 21st century Bolsa Fam lia is neither a credit scheme nor a loan It is a program of civic inclusion it aims to help citizens meet their most basic needs and sometimes just to survive Its goal is to create citizenship not to merely train the entrepreneurial spirit Having this in mind the authors of this book spent five years 2006-2011 interviewing more than 150 women registered in the program to see how the cash transfers impacted their everyday lives The authors concluded that the program produces significant social impacts in the beneficiaries' lives by increasing their levels of moral, economic and political autonomy promoting citizenship Money, Autonomy and Citizenship: The Experience of the Brazilian Bolsa Família will be of interest to both academic researchers and public agents involved with the study, development and implementation of public policies aimed at reducing poverty and promoting social justice

New Self, New World Philip Shepherd, 2011-05-31 In the tradition of Quantum Healing and Guns, Germs and Steel Philip Shepherd's New Self, New World makes an intellectual inquiry into how we might restore freedom, creativity and a sense of presence in the moment by rejecting several fundamental myths about being human New Self, New World challenges the primary story of what it means to be human the random and materialistic lifestyle that author Philip Shepherd calls our shattered reality This reality encourages us to live in our heads, self-absorbed in our own anxieties Drawing on diverse sources and inspiration New Self, New World reveals that our state of head-consciousness falsely teaches us to see the body as something we possess and to try to take care of it without ever really learning how to inhabit it Shepherd articulates his vision of a world in which each of us enjoys a direct, unmediated experience of being alive He petitions against the futile pursuit of the known self and instead reveals the simple grace of just being present In compelling prose Shepherd asks us to surrender to the reality of what is that enables us to reunite with our own being Each chapter is accompanied by exercises meant to bring Shepherd's vision into daily life what the author calls a practice that facilitates the voluntary sabotage of long-standing patterns New Self

Making and Faking Kinship Caren Freeman,2011-11-22 In the years leading up to and directly following rapprochement with China in 1992 the South Korean government looked to ethnic Korean Chos njok brides and laborers from northeastern China to restore productivity to its industries and countryside South Korean officials and the media celebrated these overtures not only as a pragmatic solution to population problems but also as a patriotic project of reuniting ethnic Koreans after nearly fifty years of Cold War separation As Caren Freeman s fieldwork in China and South Korea shows the attempt to bridge the geopolitical divide in the name of Korean kinship proved more difficult than any of the parties involved could have imagined Discriminatory treatment artificially suppressed wages clashing gender logics and the criminalization of so called runaway brides and undocumented workers tarnished the myth of ethnic homogeneity and exposed the contradictions at the heart of South Korea's transnational kin making project Unlike migrant brides who could acquire citizenship migrant workers were denied the rights of long term settlement and stringent quotas restricted their entry As a result many Chosŏn migrants arranged paper marriages and fabricated familial ties to South Korean citizens to bypass the state apparatus of border control Making and Faking Kinship depicts acts of counterfeit kinship false documents and the leaving behind of spouses and children as strategies implemented by disenfranchised people to gain mobility within the region's changing political economy

Confessional Subjects Susan David Bernstein, 2000-11-09 Susan Bernstein examines the gendered power relationships embedded in confessional literature of the Victorian period Exploring this dynamic in Charlotte Brontë's Villette Mary Elizabeth Braddon's Lady Audley's Secret George Eliot's Daniel Deronda and Thomas Hardy's Tess of the d'Urbervilles she argues that although women's disclosures to male confessors repeatedly depict wrongdoing committed against them they themselves are viewed as the transgressors Bernstein emphasizes the secularization of confession but she also places these narratives within the context of the anti Catholic tract literature of the time Based on cultural criticism poststructuralism and feminist theory Bernstein's analysis constitutes a reassessment of Freud's and Foucault's theories of confession In addition her study of the anti Catholic propaganda of the mid nineteenth century and its portrayal of confession provides historical background to the meaning of domestic confessions in the literature of the second half of the century Originally published in 1997 A UNC Press Enduring Edition UNC Press Enduring Editions use the latest in digital technology to make available again books from our distinguished backlist that were previously out of print These editions are published unaltered from the original and are presented in affordable paperback formats bringing readers both historical and cultural value

Chain Her by One Foot Karen Anderson, 1993-06-14 In this highly original volume of social history Karen Anderson makes a provocative claim the subjugation of women in seventeenth century New France was linked with the brutal colonization of native Indian populations Before colonization the Huron and Montagnais tribes lived in gender egalitarian societies The domination of women by men was only one effect of French civilization along with warfare disease famine and Jesuit proselytization which combined to destroy Indian culture and sexual equality Anderson's is an interdisciplinary cross cultural feminist case study of the historical and political construction of gender and racial inequality

Winter in America Daniel Robert McClure, 2021-10-22 Neoliberalism took shape in the 1930s and 1940s as a transnational political philosophy and system of economic political and cultural relations Resting on the fundamental premise that the free market should be unfettered by government intrusion neoliberal policies have primarily redirected the state's prerogatives away from the postwar Keynesian welfare system and toward the insulation of finance and corporate America from democratic pressure As neoliberal ideas gained political currency in the 1960s and 1970s a reactionary cultural turn catalyzed their ascension The cinema music magazine culture and current events discourse of the 1970s provided the space of negotiation permitting these ideas to take hold and be challenged Daniel Robert McClure's book follows the interaction between culture and economics during the transition from Keynesianism in the mid 1960s to the triumph of neoliberalism at the dawn of the 1980s From the 1965 debate between William F Buckley and James Baldwin through the pages of BusinessWeek and Playboy to the rise of exploitation cinema in the 1970s McClure tracks the increasingly shared perception by white males that they had lost their long standing rights and that a great neoliberal reckoning might restore America's repressive racial sexual gendered and classed foundations in the wake of the 1960s

Exile and Return in African and Caribbean Literature Patoimbasba Nikiema, 2025-08-26 Exile is often perceived as an irreversible rupture a state of loss and estrangement Yet in African and Caribbean literature exile and return form a dynamic interplay that reshapes personal collective and national identities This book challenges traditional notions of exile as suffering and return as simple reconnection with homeland and loved ones arguing that in many instances exile fosters deep introspection and transformation while return serves as active engagement with the homeland's sociopolitical and cultural realities Through close readings of works by transnational writers namely Khadi Hane Malika Mokeddem Dany Laferrière and Alain Mabanckou this study explores how exile and return create new forms of belonging political consciousness and cultural renewal It gives voice to exiles navigating the displacement alienation and contradictions of the return At a time when migration remains a polarizing issue in political discourses across Europe and the United States this book reconsiders exile beyond narrative despair revealing its potential as a space of reinvention By bridging exilic imagination and homeland realities this book offers a fresh perspective on how African and Caribbean writers envision the return as an Afrotopian project a participative endeavor that rethinks the future of Africa and the Caribbean as a space of possibilities
