Teaching and Researching Speaking Rebecca Hughes, Beatrice Szczepek Reed, 2016-12-19 Teaching and Researching Speaking provides an overview of the main approaches to researching spoken language and their practical application to teaching classroom materials and assessment The history and current practices of teaching and researching speaking are presented through the lens of bigger theoretical issues about the object of study in linguistics social attitudes to the spoken form and the relationships between spoken and written language A unique feature of the book is the way it clearly explains the nature of speaking and how it is researched and puts it into the context of a readable and holistic overview of language theory This new edition is fully updated and revised to reflect the latest developments on classroom materials and oral assessment as well as innovations in conversation analysis The resources section is brought up to date with new media and currently available networks online corpora and mobile applications This is a key resource for applied linguistics students

English language teachers teacher trainers and novice researchers Assessing L2 Listening Gary J. Ockey, Elvis Wagner, 2018-08-08 This book is relevant for language testers listening researchers and oral proficiency teachers in that it explores four broad themes related to the assessment of L2 listening ability the use of authentic real world spoken texts the effects of different speech varieties of listening inputs the use of audio visual texts and assessing listening as part of an interactive speaking listening construct Each theme is introduced with a review of the relevant literature and then is examined through either two or three empirical studies The notion of authenticity underlies each of these four themes By creating more authentic test tasks that are similar to real world language tasks test developers can create listening assessments that not only more effectively assess test takers communicative competence but can also have a positive washback effect on educational systems Aligning Tests with the CEFR Waldemar Martyniuk, 2010-11-11 This volume explores the process of aligning language tests with the Common European Framework of Reference CEFR
