Classify and Label Matt L. Drabek, 2014-10-15 Classify and Label The Unintended Marginalization of Social Groups is a philosophical treatment of classification in the social sciences and everyday life focusing on moral social and political implications The use of labels is essential to how people navigate and understand the world Classifications and labels also have a dark side as they may unintentionally misrepresent groups and individuals These misrepresentations disrupt how people think about themselves and how they treat others sometimes leading to marginalization Matt L Drabek analyzes classification by considering rich case studies across a variety of domains including the classification of gender and sexual orientation the psychiatric classification of sadomasochism and gender disorders and the classification of people in everyday life through the production of pornography and use of gender identities This broad sample reveals deep connections between the classifications proposed by social scientists and the classifications used by society at large Drabek explores how classifications evolve from and eventually affect such seemingly disconnected issues as the situation of under represented groups in academia new models of parenting and the family the nature of sexual orientation and the nature of scientific bias

Media-Ready Feminism and Everyday Sexism Andrea L. Press, Francesca Tripodi, 2021-03-01 Feminism can reflect the cultural moment especially as media appropriate and use feminist messaging and agenda to various ends Yet media can also push boundaries exposing audiences to ideas they may not be familiar with and advancing public acceptance of concepts once considered taboo Moreover audiences are far from passive recipients especially in the digital age In Media Ready Feminism and Everyday Sexism Andrea L Press and Francesca Tripodi focus on how audiences across platforms not only consume but also create meanings sometimes quite transgressive meanings in engaging with media content If television shows such as Game of Thrones and Jersey Shore and dating apps such as Tinder are sites of persistent everyday sexism then so too are they sites of what Press and Tripodi call media ready feminism In developing a sociologically based conception of reception that encompasses media's progressive potential as well as the processes of domestication through which audiences and users revert to more limited cultural schemas Press and Tripodi make a vital contribution to gender and media studies and help to illuminate the complexity of our current moment
