By Rachel Carson

'One swallow does not make a summer,' so imagine spring without birdsong? Silent Spring was written in response to this very real reality.

Carson came from humble beginnings, and was a graduate student at Johns Hopkins University. She studied biology and took up part-time work, but had to leave her doctoral studies prematurely. To make ends meet, she got a job at the United States Bureau of Fisheries as a writer. Her ability to tell passionate and informative stories, led her to write three books on the ocean, which combined science and narrative reflection.

Some letters change the course of history. In 1958 Rachel Carson received one such letter, describing birds dropping dead. 'Over
