Creating the New African University, 2023-05-25 Creating the New African University grapples with the existence of African universities particularly in post independent Africa where Higher Education Institutions HEIs are supposed to live up to the expectations of being adaptive in dealing with prevalent complex dynamic contemporary and future challenges facing African societies The book tackles the issue of what ought to be done for African universities to maintain a structure and identity that ensures their relevance in Africa's development through generating and transforming knowledge into actions for the common good It engages issues within the context of how post colonial transformative obligations have been managed in light of the prevalent epistemological and pedagogical underpinnings that form the foundations of these universities as they seek to break from the clutches of colonial legacies This book further highlights an urgent need to do away with silos and embrace a multidisciplinary interdisciplinary transdisciplinary and cross disciplinary dialogical approach towards knowledge generation Such an approach is essential in efforts aimed at enhancing the sustainable reconfiguration of university structures and functions whilst linking knowledge produced to diverse social economic and political facets of African societies in ways that promote and sustain competitiveness in a rapidly globalising world beset with technological advancements

Knowledge Beyond Colour Lines Monwabisi K. Ralarala, Salochana Lorraine Hassan, Rajani Naidoo, 2021-05-25 Knowledge remains timely in education The need for academics to contemplate its relevance worth use and everything in between deems a continuous intellectual project rather than a conundrum to be solved This book takes the South African context by the horns as it challenges the often dormant and traditionalist ways in which higher education spaces see knowledge Through original research and the voices of academics and students this book argues for repurposing knowledge generation knowledge sharing and critical pedagogy so that more inclusive teaching and learning environments can be both imagined and sustained The contentious tensionalities that this creates for LoLT and SoTL in particular are unlocked so as to trouble the South African higher education landscape with the intent to proffer alternative pathways for a knowledge beyond colour lines Prof Shan Simmonds PhD NWU This edited volume bristles with fresh scholarly approaches and insights of an emergent generation of engaged scholars grappling with the issues and problems of higher education in South Africa The issues dealt with here are varied and encompassing They are treated with intellectual delicacy and probing sensitivity articulating informed data and bold conclusions They serve well Prof Kwesi Kwaa Prah Emeritus Professor of Sociology University of the Western Cape Founder of the Centre for Advanced Studies of African Society

Low-Income Students, Human Development and Higher Education in South Africa Melanie Walker, Monica McLean, 2022-07-15 This book explores learning outcomes for low income rural and township youth at five South African universities The book is framed as a contribution to southern and Africa centred scholarship adapting Amartya Sen s capability approach and a framework of key concepts capabilities functionings context conversion factors poverty and agency to investigate opportunities and obstacles to achieved student outcomes This approach allows a reimagining of inclusive learning outcomes to encompass the multi dimensional value of a university education and a plurality of valued cognitive and non cognitive outcomes for students from low income backgrounds whose experiences are strongly shaped by hardship Based on capability theorising and student voices the book proposes for policy and practice a set of contextual higher education capability domains and corresponding functionings orientated to more justice and more equality for each person to have the opportunities to be and to do what they have reason to value The book concludes that sufficient material resources are necessary to get into university and flourish while there the benefits of a university education should be rich and multi dimensional so that they can result in functionings in all areas of life as well as work and future study the inequalities and exclusion of the labour market and pathways to further study must be addressed by wider economic and social policies for inclusive learning outcomes to be meaningful and that universities ought to be doing more to enable black working class students to participate and succeed Low Income Students Human Development and Higher Education in South Africa makes an original contribution to capabilitarian scholarship conceptually in theorising a South based multi dimensional student well being higher education matrix and a rich reconceptualisation of learning outcomes as well as empirically by conducting rigorous longitudinal in depth mixed methods research on students lives and experiences in higher education in South Africa The audience for the book includes higher education researchers international capabilitarian scholars practitioners and policy makers

Power Shift? Political Leadership and Social Media David Taras, Richard Davis, 2019-12-09 Power Shift Political Leadership and Social Media examines how political leaders have adapted to the challenges of social media including Facebook Instagram Twitter and memes among other means of persuasion Established political leaders now use social media to grab headlines respond to opponents fundraise contact voters directly and organize their election campaigns Leaders of protest movements have used social media to organize and galvanize grassroots support and to popularize new narratives narratives that challenge and sometimes overturn conventional thinking Yet each social media platform provides different affordances and different attributes and each is used differently by political leaders In this book leading international experts provide an unprecedented look at the role of social media in leadership today Through a series of case studies dealing with topics ranging from Emmanuel Macron and Donald Trump s use of Twitter to Justin Trudeau s use of selfies and Instagram to how feminist leaders mobilize against stereotypes and injustices the authors argue that many leaders have found additional avenues to communicate with the public and use power This raises the question of whether this is causing a power shift in the relationship between leaders and followers Together the chapters in this book suggest new rules of engagement that leaders ignore at their peril The lack of systematic theoretically informed and empirically supported analyses makes Power Shift Political Leadership and Social Media an indispensable read for students and scholars wishing to gain new understanding on what social media means for leadership

Quality and Inclusion in Education N.V. Varghese, Anjana Mangalagiri, A. Mathew, 2023-05-12 This book calls for an equitable and qualitative access to education for all It proposes paradigms of educational governance that are based on coalition building between key stakeholders are grounded in local and cultural contexts sensitive to the language needs of communities It underlines the significance of gender sensitive and inclusive approaches that ensure equity for marginalized children and minorities Based on research based studies the volume focuses on equity quality and learning covering a broad spectrum from school to higher to adult education It discusses the multiple learner deprivations amongst the marginalized communities and the severe impact of events such as pandemics that exacerbate learner inequities and the recent developments in India under the National Education Policy 2020 It also presents research based country experiences in the Asian India Bangladesh China and African Ghana South Africa contexts showing how external influences on the changing priorities in policy perspectives cut across developing countries Compiled in honour of Professor R Govinda this volume of insightful articles will be of interest to students and researchers of educational policy and studies sociology of education equity and human rights It will also be useful for decision makers and think tanks

Discerning Critical Hope in Educational Practices Vivienne Bozalek, Brenda Leibowitz, Ronelle Carolissen, Megan Boler, 2013-12-04 How can discerning critical hope enable us to develop innovative forms of teaching learning and social practices that begin to address issues of marginalization privilege and access across different contexts At this millennial point in history questions of cynicism despair and hope arise at every turn especially within areas of research into social justice and the struggle for transformation in education While a sense of fatalism and despair is easily recognizable establishing compelling bases for hope is more difficult This book addresses the absence of sustained analyses of hope that simultaneously recognize the hard edges of why we despair The volume posits the notion of critical hope not only as conceptual and theoretical but also as an action oriented response to despair Our notion of critical hope is used in two ways it is used firstly as a unitary concept which cannot be disaggregated into either hopefulness or criticality and secondly as an analytical concept where critical hope is engaged and diversely theorized in ways that recognize aspects of individual and collective directions of critical hope The book is divided into four sub sections Critical Hope in Education Critical Hope and a Critique of Neoliberalism Critical Race Theory Postcolonial Perspectives on Critical Hope Philosophical Overviews of Critical Hope Education can be a purveyor of critical hope but it also requires critical hope so that it as a sector itself can be transformative With contributions from international experts in the field the book will be of value to all academics and practitioners working in the field of education

Widening Higher Education Participation

Mahsood Shah,Anna Bennett,Erica Southgate,2015-10-19 Governments have introduced policies to widen the participation of disadvantaged students in higher education Widening participation policies are also introduced to ensure that higher education contributes to social and economic outcomes This book includes important insights from 23 leading scholars across 11 countries on a wide range of topics that focus on government policies institutional structures and the social and economic impacts of widening participation While widening participation policies and outcomes in developed countries are more widely documented the policies achievements and challenges in other countries such as Brazil China Indonesia South Africa and Palestine are not so widely disseminated Therefore the untold stories of policies and outcomes of widening participation are a key part of this book The chapters are organised according to three overarching themes which include national and transnational studies of the history of widening participation and current policies inclusive learning and academic outcomes and socioeconomic structures concepts and theories Engages prominent academics earlier career researchers and research students Provides a wide range of topics related to widening participation Explores social and economic impact of widening student participation Presents untold stories of widening participation in developing countries experiencing growth in youth population

Imaging and Assessing Mobile Technology for Development Richard Musabe,John Sören

Pettersson,2024-04-08 Imaging and assessing mobile technology for development M4D means understanding the use of appropriate technologies and services and how they directly or indirectly address socio economic challenges This book adopts various perspectives to identify the obstacles to affordable digital technologies in order to enable enhance and effect development The book plays on the tension between success reports and optimistic projections on one hand and empirical evidence of technological belly splash on the other hand The areas covered include infusion of service education in computing education the Rwandan establishment of African Centres of Excellence to promote the development of appropriate technology the metaverse s realisation in a mobile network enabled metaversity and difficulties detected when evaluating digitisation of distance learning students security awareness dissemination of agricultural information and mobile payment The decolonisation of community based media and attempts to step outside the mobile network and Internet are also covered

Governance and the postcolony David Everatt, 2019-08-01 Civil society NGOs governments and multilateral institutions all repeatedly call for improved or good governance yet they seem to speak past one another Governance is in danger of losing all meaning precisely because it means many things to different people in varied locations This is especially true in sub Saharan Africa Here the postcolony takes many forms reflecting the imperial project with painful accuracy Offering a set of multidisciplinary analyses of governance in different sectors crisis management water food security universities in different locales across sub Saharan Africa and from different theoretical approaches network to adversarial network governance this volume makes a useful addition to the growing debates on how to govern It steers away from offering a correct definition of governance or from promoting a particular position on postcoloniality It gives no neat conclusion but invites readers to draw their own conclusions based on these differing approaches to and analyses of governance in the postcolony As a robust critical assessment of power and accountability in the sub Saharan context Governance and the Postcolony Views from Africa brings together topical case studies that will be a valuable resource for those working in the field of African international relations public policy public management and administration
