Serviceology for Smart Service System Yuriko Sawatani, James Spohrer, Stephen Kwan, Takeshi Takenaka, 2016-10-05
Services are key activities in a globalized economy and they also underlie the quality of life of local residents. The advanced work presented in this book was selected from the proceedings of the Third International Conference on Serviceology ICServ2015 held July 7-9 2015 in San Jose CA USA. The conference was supported by the Society for Serviceology. The society was established in 2012 in Japan to explore the scientific systematization of services and to promote technological developments for solutions to industrial issues. This book provides a useful general guide to the state of the art in the theory and practice of services. It can also serve as a valuable reference book for researchers in a wide range of fields from engineering to marketing and economics.

Developing Digital Marketing Park Thaichon, Vanessa Ratten, 2021-06-11

Advances in the Human Side of Service Engineering Christine Leitner, Walter Ganz, Debra Satterfield, Clara Bassano, 2021-07-02
This book reports on cutting edge research and best practices in developing innovative service systems. It covers issues concerning the suitability of a given system for human use, human services, and excellent human experiences. It explores a wide range of ways in which human factors in engineering, ergonomics, human computer interaction, HCI, cognitive engineering, and many other disciplines can contribute to the design and management of service systems. It considers aspects related to cost effectiveness, ethics, and privacy among others and covers applications in many areas from healthcare to education, transportation, and the economy. Based on the AHFE 2021 Conference on the Human Side of Service Engineering held virtually on 25-29 July 2021 from USA, this book provides readers with a comprehensive overview of current research and future challenges in the field of service engineering, together with practical insights into the development of innovative services for various kinds of organizations.
