Similarities And Defferent Between Nfsas And Studend Loan:

Perspectives on Student Affairs in South Africa McGlory Speckman, Martin Mandew, 2014-07-17 The goal of Perspectives on Student Affairs in South Africa is to generate interest in student affairs in South Africa The papers contained herein are based on best practice local experience and well researched international and local theories The papers in this book deal with matters pertaining to international and national trends in student affairs academic development access and retention counselling and material support for students coming from disadvantaged backgrounds They are linked to national and international developments as described in the first two papers This publication will assist both young and experienced practitioners as they grow into their task of developing the students entrusted to them All contributors are South Africans with a great deal of experience in student affairs and all are committed to the advancement of student affairs in South Africa The editors are former heads of student affairs portfolios at two leading South African universities Social Justice and Education in the 21st Century Willie Pearson Jr., Vijay Reddy, 2021-04-10 The world is not an equal place There are high and low income countries and high and low income households For each group there are differential educational opportunities leading to differential educational outcomes and differential labor market opportunities This pattern often reproduces the privileges and inequalities of groups in a society This book explores this differentiation in education from a social justice lens Comparing the United States and South Africa this book analyzes each country s developmental thinking on education from human capital and human rights approaches in both primary and higher education The enclosed contributions draw from different disciplines including legal studies sociology psychology computer science and public policy Fees Must Fall Susan Booysen, 2016-10-01 This book explores the student discontent a year after the start of the 2015 South African FeesMustFall revolt FeesMustFall the student revolt that began in October 2015 was an uprising against lack of access to and financial exclusion from higher education in South Africa More broadly it radically questioned the socio political dispensation resulting from the 1994 social pact between big business the ruling elite and the liberation movement The 2015 revolt links to national and international youth struggles of the recent past and is informed by black consciousness politics and social movements of the international left Yet its objectives are more complex than those of earlier struggles The student movement has challenged the hierarchical top down leadership system of university management and it s double speak of professing to act in workers and students interests yet entrenching a regressive system for control and governance University managements while on one level amenable to change have also co opted students into their ranks to create co responsibility for the highly bureaucratised university financial aid that stands in the way of their social revolution This book maps the contours of student discontent a year after the start of the FeesMustFall revolt Student voices dissect colonialism improper compromises by the founders of democratic South Africa feminism worker rights and meaningful education In depth assessments by prominent scholars reflect on the complexities of student activism its impact on national and university governance and offer provocative analyses of the power of the revolt Let's Talk About Varsity ,2009 QUALITY OF LIFE SURVEY V (2017/18) THE QUALITY OF LIFE OF STUDENTS IN GAUTENG Christian Hamann,Kate Joseph,2020-07-29 GCRO Data Brief on quality of life of students The Next Twenty-five Years David Lee Featherman,Marvin Krislov,Martin Hall,2009-12-18 A must read for anyone who cares about the future of higher education in diverse democracies OECD Development Policy Tools Evidence-based Policy Making for Youth Well-being A Toolkit OECD,2017-10-17 With 1 2 billion people today s youth population aged 15 24 represents the largest cohort ever to enter the transition to adulthood Close to 90% of these young people live in developing countries and the numbers will practically double in the least developed countries Mergers and Alliances in Higher Education Adrian Curaj,Luke Georghiou,Jennifer Cassingena Harper,Eva Egron-Polak,2015-03-31 This volume casts light on mergers and alliances in higher education by examining developments of this type in different countries It combines the direct experiences of those at the heart of such transformations university leaders and senior officials responsible for higher education policy with expert analysts of the systems concerned Higher education in Europe faces a series of major challenges The economic crisis has accelerated expectations of an increased role in addressing economic and societal challenges while at the same time putting pressure on available finances Broader trends such as shifting student demographics and expectations globalisation and mobility and new ways of working with business have contributed to these increased pressures In the light of these trends there have been moves both from national or regional agencies and from individual institutions to respond by combining resources either through collaborative arrangements or more fundamentally through mergers between two or more universities After an introductory chapter by the editors which establishes the context for mergers and alliances the book falls into two main parts Part 1 takes a national or regional perspective to give some sense of the historical context the wider drivers and the importance of these developments in these cases Included are both systemic accounts for countries as France Sweden Romania Russia Wales and England and specific cross cutting initiatives including a major facility at Magurele in Romania and a Spanish programme for promoting international campuses of excellence Part 2 is built from specific cases of universities either in mergers or alliances with examples from different countries such as France UK Romania Spain Germany Denmark Finland Switzerland A concluding chapter by the editors assesses these experiences and indicates the implications and future needs for understanding in this domain Universities, Employability and Human Development Melanie Walker,Samuel Fongwa,2017-01-20 The book makes a significant contribution to critical higher education studies specifically to graduate employability research and to capabilities and education research The book moves beyond the simplistic conception of alleged gaps in graduate skills and mismatches between employers and universities and instead provides an innovative multi dimensional and intersectional human capabilities conceptualisation of graduate employability The book challenges an individualised notion of employability instead locating employability issues in social and economic conditions and argues that employability choices cannot be divorced from inequality Qualitative and quantitative data from multiple case study universities in South Africa are used to explore the perceptions and experiences of diverse students lecturers support officers and employers regarding what each university is doing or should be doing to enhance graduate economic opportunities and contribute to inclusive development The book will be highly relevant to students scholars and researchers in the fields of education and sociology particularly those with an interest in graduate employability

Accessing Post-School Studies Venicia McGhie & Madge du Preez, 2017-12-01 Accessing Post School Studies A student's GPS to successful learning makes a valuable contribution to often problematic and pertinent South African higher education issues such as student access and success student learning student support and student engagement In this regard the authors draw on the works of higher education theorists such as Kuh Tinto Marton and Sij The book is primarily a helpful resource for South African learners in school students at universities life orientation teachers as well as parents of prospective university students It will especially assist students to adapt to the university environment Prof Victor N Teise Sol Plaatje University Kimberley South Africa

Government Managing Risk Bruce Chapman, 2006-09-27 Higher education rates are increasing throughout the Western world yet at the same time government budgets face increasing constraints This has ensured that the importance of student support is recognized in many countries In recent years there has been a world wide movement towards the use of income contingent loans ICL for higher education ICLs are now used in six countries following the Australian innovation of 1989 with the governments of many more countries looking very seriously at the model This impressive new book by Bruce Chapman analyzes ICLs particularly their use in supporting students exploring the experiences of a number of other countries adopting them Chapman presents analysis of a number of disparate case studies to illustrate how ICLs can aid risk management policy reforming in both progressive and administratively feasible ways This book describes examines and promotes an exciting new role for the public sector as a manager of risk and argues that ICLs have enormous potential to change the extent and nature of social and economic activities With the author's experience in the design and implementation of the Australian student financial support schemes this is a knowledgeable informative and enlightening book that will be useful to researchers students and policy makers alike
