Radical Hospitality for a Prophetic Church Amanda D. Quantz, 2019-11-13 Anchored in Scripture and Tradition Radical Hospitality for a Prophetic Church conveys Amanda D Quantz's firsthand experiences as a chaplain working with emerging ministries that meet people where they are Building on the biblical concept that all wisdom was present in the mind of God before creation Quantz argues that this wisdom has filtered into the world's varied religious traditions so that Christians have much to gain approaching others from different religious or spiritual creeds and learning about their faith traditions and values Whether seekers are experimenting with open Communion church without walls or ancient but little known Christian practices this book is a resource for those who feel stuck in outdated ideas about what it means to be a church

Literary Conceptualizations of Growth Roberta Trites, 2014-07-15 Literary Conceptualizations of Growth explores those processes through which maturation is represented in adolescent literature by examining how concepts of growth manifest themselves in adolescent literature and by interrogating how the concept of growth structures scholars' ability to think about adolescence Cognitive literary theory provides the theoretical framework as do the related fields of cognitive linguistics and experiential philosophy historical constructions of the concept of growth are also examined within the context of the history of ideas Cross cultural literature from the traditional Bildungsroman to the contemporary Young Adult novel serve as examples Literary Conceptualizations of Growth ultimately asserts that human cognitive structures are responsible for the pervasiveness of growth as both a metaphor and a narrative pattern in adolescent literature Reid's Read-Alouds 2 Rob Reid,2011 From humor and drama to science fiction and history Reid makes it easy to find just the right place to begin with unique 10 minute read aloud suggestions drawn from 200 carefully selected titles

Postmillennial Trends in Anglophone Literatures, Cultures and Media Soňa Šnircová,2019-02-08 The book offers a collection of papers that draw on contemporary developments in cultural studies in their discussions of postmillennial trends in works of Anglophone literature and media The first section of the book Addressing the Theories of a New Cultural Paradigm comprises ten essays that present respectively performatist metamodernist digimodernist and hypomodernist readings of selected texts in order to test the usefulness of recent theories in explorations of the new paradigm in literary media and food studies The papers cover a wide variety of genres including the novel the film the documentary the cookbook the food magazine and the food commercial and present a number of themes which shed light on the nature of the new paradigm The second part of the volume Mapping the Dynamics of a New Sensibility offers a wider perspective and presents seven papers that search for evidence of a new sensibility in selected examples of postmillennial texts These contributions move beyond the frameworks of the theories explored in the first part in order to offer new perspectives in the contributors' respective fields of interest David Almond Rosemary Johnston,2017-12-15 David Almond is one of the most exciting and innovative authors writing for children and young people today Since the publication of his award winning first book Skellig 1998 his novels have pushed the boundaries of children's literature and magical realism This vibrant collection of original essays by leading international children's literature scholars and researchers provides a theoretically informed overview of Almond's novels and fresh analysis of individual texts Exploring broad themes such as philosophy theology and cognitive science the volume also introduces new concepts such as mystical realism literary Catholicism and radical landscape Age in David Almond's Oeuvre Vanessa Joosen,Michelle Anya Anjirbag,Leander Duthoy,Lindsey Geybels,Frauke Pauwels,Emma-Louise Silva,2023-07-28 In recent decades age studies has started to emerge as a new approach to study children's literature This book builds on that scholarship but also significantly extends it by exploring age in various aspects of children's literature the age of the author the characters the writing style the intended readership and the real reader Moreover the authors explore what different theories and methods can be used to study age in children's literature and what their affordances and limits are The analyses combine age studies with life writing studies cognitive narratology digital humanities comparative literary studies reader response research and media studies To ensure coherence the book offers an in depth exploration of the oeuvre of a single author David Almond The aesthetic and thematic richness of Almond's works has been widely recognised This book adds to the understanding of his oeuvre by offering a multi faceted analysis of age In addition to discussing the film adaptation of his best known novel Skellig this book also offers analyses of works that have received less attention such as Counting Stars Clay and Bone Music Readers will also get a fuller understanding of Almond as a crosswriter of literature for children adolescents and adults Zaide Rich Merne,2016-05-11 Adventure and romance by sea and land Jan Janszoon van Haarlem was a notorious seventeenth century pirate who preyed on merchant ships and plied the vast slave trade to the Barbary coast He was Dutch by birth but became naturalised to the Barbaries Not confining his depredations to the Mediterranean he visited and slaved from England Iceland and notoriously Ireland His most daring raid was to Baltimore on Irelands south coast on June 20th 1631 where he took most of the villages inhabitants to slavery This raid is remembered in song and story to the present day Teen Talkback with Interactive Booktalks! Lucy Schall,2013-05-01 Covering the genres popular with today s teens fiction and nonfiction including poetry and graphic novels this resource provides 110 great book choices for young adult reading interactive booktalks and individual writing activities All educators and library professionals need practical resources with easily accessible information and activities that can be immediately applied Teen Talkback with Interactive Booktalks is such a resource supplying ready to use interactive booktalks and curriculum connections for more than 100 recently published young adult books This unique book is an invaluable tool for motivating teens to read It shows how to make booktalks interactive and get teens participating in the presentation rather than passively listening Book selections include titles published from 2008 to 2012 organized in seven categories Issues Contemporary Adventure Survival Mystery Suspense Fantasy Heritage and Multiple Cultures Complete bibliographical information for each selection is included along with a literary classification as well as an age grade level and gender designation The read alouds passages include talkback questions to facilitate discussion and related works are supplied as suggestions for additional reading choices Silence and Society Charles Lemert,2025-07-31 Silence and Society addresses the reality that social sciences have ignored the importance of silence in human communication Without communication there is no community and thus no society Yet as classic communication theory explains communication must always deal with noise Increasingly as cyber technologies and media have gained the upper hand in social life so have they become purveyors of empty noise from mindless sitcom television to uninformed talk radio to cable news blather and more The book is organized into three sections each corresponding to a level of social order Each bears a distinctive relation to the general problem of silence and noise in human community Part One Social Facts of Silence presents examples of the ways silence intrudes on vital aspects of human life in personal self understanding in the irony that direction communication requires a third absent party such as Goffman s ego identity in the fact that personal identity is the challenge of dealing with the trouble of deciding who we are in a given social setting Part Two Noise Dreams and Identity Confusions considers a range of community issues from the strange noises of quiet neighborhoods to the way the necessity of social conformity silences individual autonomy to the fact that the dead are ever present in daily language and behavior especially in common religious practices Finally Part Three Waste Death and the Beyond of Time suggests the principal ways the growing global environment aggravates human inequality by forcing the poor into zones of exclusion by increasing the mountain of human waste that in turn wastes human lives by the extent to which global theories and programs for economic development are little more
