From Testing to Assessment Clifford Hill, Kate Parry, 2014-09-19 From Testing to Assessment English as an International Language provides a critical review of conventional and alternative approaches to the assessment of English literacy skills in various parts of the world. It presents empirical studies conducted in three major settings in countries such as Japan and Brazil where English functions as the language of international commerce in multilingual countries such as Nigeria and Zimbabwe where English is the national language of education and government and in such countries as Canada the United Kingdom and the United States where English is the dominant language. The book opens with a discussion of language assessment in relation to debates about the nature of literacy; it concludes with a discussion of policy implications which is grounded in literacy theory as well as in practical constraints such as available human and material resources. High School Days Dr. Ross Gordon Cooper, 2019-08-02 High school days in Africa were ones of challenge, hard work and fun. I attended a total of four high schools commencing Form 1 at Vainona High School, Forms 3 at Benoni and Churchill High Schools and sixth form college at ILSA. During my time I faced many struggles and adjustments but throughout my high school era I never failed a public exam: ZJC O AS and A Levels and Maths Olympiad. I also took a keen interest in sport and clubs. In particular I represented my schools in innumerable chess tournaments. There were also the times of flirting and romance. Punishments included the cane, manual labour and detention. Suspension and expulsions were only for very serious offences. I hope that this book brings back high school memories to each reader. Horizon, 1992 Gender Inequalities in Education in the Southern Africa Region Betty Jo Dorsey, 1996 Zimbabwe Books in Print, 1998 Report of the Presidential Commission of Inquiry Into Education and Training Zimbabwe.
