4. Once funding is secured, the next step is to launch the business. This involves setting up the company's infrastructure, hiring staff, and implementing the marketing plan. It is important to monitor the business closely and make adjustments as needed.

5. Finally, the last step in the process is to evaluate the business's performance. This involves tracking key performance indicators (KPIs) and comparing them to the goals set in the business plan. This will help the business owner understand what is working and what needs to be improved.
