The Timbuktu School for Nomads Nicholas Jubber,2016-11-15 A passionate paeon to the Sahara New York Times Season s Best Travel Books The Sahara a dream like far away landscape of Lawrence of Arabia and Wilfred Thesiger The English Patient and Star Wars and home to nomadic communities whose ways of life stretch back millennia Today it s a teeth janglingly dangerous destination where the threat of jihadists lurks just over the horizon Following in the footsteps of 16th century traveller Leo Africanus Nicholas Jubber went on a turbulent adventure to the forgotten places of North Africa and the legendary Timbuktu Once the seat of African civilization and home to the richest man who ever lived this mythic city is now scarred by terrorist occupation and is so remote its own inhabitants hail you with the greeting Welcome to the middle of nowhere From the cattle markets of the Atlas across the Western Sahara and up the Niger river Nicholas joins the camps of the Tuareg Fulani Berbers and other communities to learn about their craft their values and their place in the world The Timbuktu School for Nomads is a unique look at a resilient city and how the nomads pit ancient ways of life against the challenges of the 21st century

The Memory Palace Mira Bartok,2011-01-11 In the tradition of The Glass Castle two sisters confront schizophrenia in this New York Times bestselling poignant memoir about family and mental illness Through stunning prose and original art The Memory Palace captures the love between mother and daughter the complex meaning of truth and one family s capacity for forgiveness A Washington Post Best Book of the Year The National Book Critics Circle Award Winner for Best Autobiography People have abandoned their loved ones for much less than you ve been through Mira Bart k is told at her mother s memorial service It is a poignant observation about the relationship between Mira her sister and their mentally ill mother Before she was struck with schizophrenia at the age of nineteen beautiful piano prot g Norma Herr had been the most vibrant personality in the room She loved her daughters and did her best to raise them well but as her mental state deteriorated Norma spoke less about Chopin and more about Nazis and her fear that her daughters would be kidnapped murdered or raped When the girls left for college the harassment escalated Norma called them obsessively appeared at their apartments or jobs threatened to kill herself if they did not return home After a traumatic encounter Mira and her sister were left with no choice but to change their names and sever all contact with Norma in order to stay safe But while Mira pursued her career as an artist exploring the ancient romance of Florence the eerie mysticism of northern Norway and the raw desert of Israel the haunting memories of her mother were never far away Then one day a debilitating car accident changes Mira's life forever Struggling to recover from a traumatic brain injury she was confronted with a need to recontextualize her life she had to relearn how to paint read and interact with the outside world In her search for a way back to her lost self Mira reached out to the homeless shelter where she believed her mother was living and discovered that Norma was dying Mira and her sister traveled to Cleveland where they shared an extraordinary reconciliation with their mother that none of them had thought possible At the hospital Mira discovered a set of keys that opened a storage unit Norma had been keeping for seventeen years Filled with family photos childhood toys and ephemera from Norma's life the storage unit brought back a flood of previous memories that Mira had thought were lost to her forever

The Memory Palace is a breathtaking literary memoir about the complex meaning of love truth and the capacity for forgiveness among family Through stunning prose and original art created by the author in tandem with the text The Memory Palace explores the connections between mother and daughter that cannot be broken no matter how much exists or is lost between them

The Core of Fire Khrys Stella, 2014-06-03 The Core of Fire Poetic Shades of Intimacy is a very stimulating account of love romance and raw feelings from various degrees of physical and emotional intimacy As you turn the pages feel the unclothed thoughts revealed that will take you on an exploration of what happens when the deepest part of the heart is mesmerized by the allure of another person's physical and emotional shades of chemistry

Materiality and Visuality in North East India Tiplut Nongbri, Rashi Bhargava, 2021-07-16 This edited book set in the context of North East India explores issues concerning symbols meanings representations and social implications of materiality and visuality as well as the dynamics of power social reproduction ideological dominance and knowledge production from an interdisciplinary perspective It seeks to answer the question of why some things matter more than others or what happens when certain things are made more visible than others The book provides valuable insights into the process of identity construction through the use of cultural sources both material and visual Following on the debates discussions on material and visual culture in the 1970s and 1980s the book argues that instead of viewing objects as mere representations one should see them as active agents in creating perceptions bodily practices discourses and perceptions of our social world Each chapter in the book unravels and engages with these pertinent issues in order to arrive at a more comprehensive understanding of the status quo The book is of interest to scholars of ethnicity identity construction politics and state cultural studies media studies visual social and cultural anthropology and sociology as well as lay readers who want to learn more about the region
