Professional writers research thoroughly before picking up a pen. Students need to do the same. This book guides teachers through the process, exploring a range of topics from story starters through genre writing to how historical events and topical debates can be used as launching pads for story writing. The guide also contains vocabulary banks and examples of pupils writing. Following it will result in personal narratives which children of any ability can enjoy sharing in the classroom.

The first step in forming a strategic vision is for the leader to develop a personal vision. This personal vision grows into an all-encompassing kingdom vision with every other level of vision between. From the foundation of a vision leader, all other elements of vision flow.

Vance Wilson offers insight to anyone, whether parent or teacher, responsible for guiding children on the joyous, difficult, and ever-unpredictable path to becoming their best selves: intellectually, socially, morally, and spiritually.
