

Placement Test

Name _____

Class _____

This Placement Test has been designed to place students into groups corresponding to the different CEFR levels (A1+, A2, B1, B1+, B2, B2+ and C1). Students with no previous knowledge of English would not normally be required to take this test.

General Marking Guidelines

This Placement Test consists of 60 multiple-choice items (39 grammar and 21 vocabulary) that are worth one mark each, three reading tasks worth five marks each and two writing tasks worth five marks each. It has a maximum score of 85. Give one mark for every correct answer.

Note that the placement test items are progressively more difficult from questions 1 to 60. Before deciding the level, check the test carefully for the number of incorrect questions per section. If students answer questions incorrectly at the beginning of the test, but answer questions correctly at the end of the test, they may be guessing randomly and could be placed in the wrong level.

Writing: Marking Guidelines

Use the writing guidelines to give a score out of 5. The same scale is used to assess the students' performance for both writing tasks.

Description of Performance	Points
No answer is written, the student has not understood the question, he or she has answered a different question completely, or what is written is largely unintelligible and does not convey the intended meaning or show any awareness whatsoever of	0
The student has shown a very basic understanding of the question and has made an attempt at answering it. The student has written substantially less than the specified word count, and there are serious inconsistencies and inaccuracies in the language. Ideas are not linked together in a logical and clear manner and meaning is not conveyed	1
The question has been partially or almost fully understood. The student has written less than the specified word count and he or she has covered some or all of the points, but only partially. There are some issues with sentence construction and inconsistencies and inaccuracies in the grammar and vocabulary that interfere with	2
The question has been almost fully understood, and the student has written close to or less than the specified word count. The student has made a reasonable effort to cover everything. He or she has mostly used appropriate tenses, grammar, and vocabulary, although with frequent errors. Meaning is reasonably clear and the sentences follow a	3
The question is fully or almost fully answered in the specified word count. The student has made a reasonable effort to cover everything. He or she has demonstrated a good command of the appropriate language and used relevant grammar and vocabulary accurately, although with occasional errors (that don't interfere with meaning). The student has used cohesive devices, such as linking expressions and sequencers.	4
