approach centring on analysing audience responses including feedback from teaching practitioners and learners of Chinese languages and utilising corpus based data to evaluate the consistency and appropriateness of vocabulary translations This book is an essential resource for scholars and educators as well as students in education Chinese studies translation studies and language learning

Interculturality in Chinese Language Education Tinghe Jin,Fred Dervin,2017-06-27 This book calls for a change in the way interculturality is introduced in Chinese language education while the demand for Chinese language teaching increases around the world The concept of culture as in the phrase Chinese culture has often been one of the main emphases of Chinese language education providing students with facts about China and recipes on how to meet Chinese people and how to behave like them However Chinese culture like all cultures does not constitute a closed system but is constantly evolving and exchanging with other cultures This unique volume comprises studies from around the world that promote intercultural awareness dialogue and encounters in Chinese language education Written in a clear and readable style this book will appeal to a diverse readership from practising and training teachers of Chinese to researchers interested in language and intercultural education

Teacher Voices in Chinese Language Teaching Scott Smith,2023-01-24 This book reports the results of an ethnographic study focusing primarily on the experiences of four teachers of the Chinese language in Australian secondary schools The author creates an audience for their voices as they reflect on their own understandings of culture language teaching and culture in language teaching through semi structured interviews and compares these reflections with written stimulus dialogues designed to elicit culture in language reflections as well as curriculum and policy documents produced by the Australian government The book s findings indicate that teachers of the Chinese language are diverse in their views on culture language teaching and the ways in which culture can or should inform language teaching and the author argues that language teacher intercultural competence cannot be assessed through a synthesis of the current English only research literature This book will be of interest to teachers and teacher trainers of Chinese as a foreign language as well as students and scholars of applied linguistics and language education more broadly

Pedagogic Practices, Student Engagement and Equity in Chinese as a Foreign Language Education Wen Xu,2021-12-27 This book explores and analyses Chinese as a Foreign Language CFL pedagogic practices and learning experiences within a cohort of low socio economic status students within an Australian primary classroom It demonstrates that in spite of policy and educational discourses underpinning Asian literacies Chinese teaching and learning is a fragile undertaking in Australian schooling The politicisation of CFL education especially in the post COVID 19 era has exacerbated public stereotypes concerning racism and multiculturalism in Australia today Drawing upon Bernstein s theorisation and engagement framework Wen Xu sketches out CFL education as a democratic space where power and control relations can be deliberately operated to reinforce engaging learning experiences She suggests that pedagogic interventions in the name of social justice have the potential to make consequential differences in disadvantaged students life trajectories and CFL education can be envisioned as an avenue towards socioeconomic mobility instead of being criticised as a platform opposing to liberal ideas In turn she provides insights into teaching younger age CFL learners in the global context in terms of the structuring of pedagogy and curriculum Wen Xu s research will be of interest to students and scholars in sociology of education student engagement pedagogy and curriculum CFL education and languages education as well as pre service teachers and practitioners who teach Chinese as a Foreign Language

The Future of Teaching ,2023-02-06 Teaching born of the period of the ancient sages developed as the moral art of living that introduced humanity to teaching as a moral pursuit to the formation of value to a moral and religious mode of being and to a set of moral principles that have survived into the modern day The idea that the future of teaching represents a technological disruption of moral traditions of teaching and what teaching might become has become a serious concern for the current generation of philosophers in both China and the West

Chinese Language Teachers' Beliefs and Experiences in Denmark Li Wang,2024-12-26 This book presents recent advances in foreign language education as well as recent work on Chinese language education and CFL teacher development in international contexts It also reports the results of three qualitative studies on the experiences and beliefs of teachers of the Chinese language in in Denmark There are rising concerns over quality issues in both Chinese language education and teacher development in Scandinavian countries and worldwide broadly due to China s rapid growth and the increasing worldwide popularity of Chinese What CFL Chinese as a Foreign Language teachers believe in teaching and experience in the intercultural context have proposed new questions and issues The book addresses issues and topics such as teacher beliefs about Chinese language teaching factors shaping teacher beliefs the teaching of Chinese by both native and non native teachers Chinese language and culture teaching intercultural encounters and challenges etc It provides both macro and micro level insights into the key issues and challenges in the development of Chinese language teachers in Denmark and the Scandinavian region Taking the perspectives of Chinese language teachers beliefs and experiences this book reveals teachers beliefs about their roles objectives and ways of teaching at the micro level It also discusses the macro level factors that promote or impede the adaptation of native speaking teachers of Chinese and the development of Chinese language education in this Nordic country It will be of interest to teachers teacher educators administrators of Chinese as a foreign language and researchers concerned with foreign language education in an intercultural context

Rethinking the Asian Language Learning Paradigm in Australia Kayoko Hashimoto,2024-11-21 This edited book calls for a rethink of the current Asian language learning paradigm that frames Asian languages as strategic and economic tools rather than an inherent part of Australian society As an increasing number of Australians have Asian ancestry and speak languages other than English at home it argues that we must reset the paradigm and understand Asian languages as intrinsically Australian to maximise existing linguistic and cultural assets The interdisciplinary chapters focusing on Japanese Chinese Korean and Vietnamese report on the state of Asian language learning and teaching in mainstream educational settings as well as

heritage language education in informal contexts in Australia With an additional chapter on implications for other Anglophone countries this volume urges a transformative approach to Asian language education in the context of current global migration and multilingual demographics in order to nurture global citizenship and honour linguistic diversity The book will be suitable for academics policy makers practitioners and teachers Teaching and Learning Culture Mads Jakob Kirkebæk,Xiang-Yun Du,Annie Aarup Jensen,2013-11-19 This book is based on educational research conducted by researchers from the Department of Learning and Philosophy and the Confucius Institute for Innovation and Learning at Aalborg University Empirically it reports on different approaches to teaching and learning of culture including a student centered task based problem based learning PBL approach a digital technology supported approach and more It also reports on how when teaching and learning culture teachers professional identity and the informal teaching and learning environment impact the teaching and learning of culture in different educational settings from primary school to university A central theme in the book is the power of context The studies illustrate in multiple ways and from different angles that culture is not taught in a vacuum or learned in isolation but may be influenced by many factors both inside and outside the classroom at the same time culture also influences the context of the learning The context may be invisible and hide itself as tacit knowledge or embedded values or it may be very visible and present itself as a fixed curriculum or an established tradition No matter what forms and shapes the context takes the studies in this book strongly indicate that it is essential to be aware of the power of context in teaching and learning culture in order to understand it and negotiate it This book suggests that teachers should not try to limit or avoid contextual influences but instead should explore how the context may be integrated into and used constructively in the teaching and learning of culture This allowance of context in the classroom will allow for teachers students subjects and contexts to enter into a dialogue and negotiation of meaning that will enrich each other and achieve the established goal acquisition of cultural awareness and intercultural understanding Linguistic Entrepreneurship in Sino-African Student Mobility Wen Xu,2024-05-04 This book explores African international students lived experience within Chinese higher education including their language ideologies investment in Chinese language learning and the re shaping of identities and aspirations Whilst high English proficiency has been sought by globally mobile students to play the class game and gain entrance to the circle of elites considerably less attention has been paid to how shifting global structures and China's semi peripheral position shape its language learners investment and identity construction Drawing upon a series of interviews the book deciphers African students logics of linguistic exchanges within the geopolitical and geo economic context of China African relations The students invested heavily into Chinese language learning and use while displaying perfectionism linguistic entrepreneurship and linguistic insecurity As the value of their Chinese linguistic capital increases they reassessed their sense of themselves and produced different social identities which includes the idea of the world is my oyster contributing to Africa's sustainable development and the disposition to tell China's story well This work transgresses monolingual dominance i.e English in the existing body of international student mobility and second language acquisition SLA research as great importance is assigned to Chinese as linguistic capital in South South student migration The book is of interest to researchers in international higher education international student mobilities sociolinguistics applied linguistics languages education and Chinese language teaching and learning Supporting the Learning of Chinese as a Second Language: Implications for Language Education Policy Joseph Lo Bianco, Elizabeth Ka Yee Loh, Mark Shiu-kee Shum, 2024-10-25 The research in this volume takes account of the context of policy promoting Chinese as a second language CSL in several countries and regions Australia East Asia and South East Asia and the wider social context of multilingual and multicultural societies Furthermore this book reports results of two research studies which investigated how to develop effective strategies to promote learners motivation and the motivational developments of adult learners in real life settings helping to overcome gaps in this under researched area Findings reported in this book have been scientifically examined and found to be effective in enhancing the learners CSL proficiency increasing their learning motivation and addressing the need for a diversity of targeted approaches to CSL Most are applicable across preschool to secondary levels The theoretical grounding of this research work represents a new direction for research in teaching Chinese as a second language

Multilingual Education Yearbook 2020 Wenhao Tao, Indika Liyanage, 2020-02-27 This book focuses on the challenges of teaching in diversely multilingual classrooms discussing how these challenges and complexities interact in the preparation of teachers language content areas in and for multilingual settings and how they impact on educational processes developments and outcomes Teacher education in multilingual contexts is a key topic and occupies an important position in efforts to improve educational outcomes and quality for all stakeholders It is seen as essential for competitive participation in global economic activity and for providing opportunities to enjoy the benefits of increased prosperity Teacher education is generally expected to address both the demand for multilingualism and the challenges of teaching in diversely multilingual classrooms which are important foci at policy and institutional levels For example the demand for quality outcomes is manifested in state administered standards and performance cultures that regulate entry and practices and poses ethical and pedagogic dilemmas for teachers This book presents high quality empirical research on education in multilingual societies highlighting findings that in addition to providing descriptions of language learning development and use in language contact and multilingual contexts will help shape future language education policy and practices in multilingual societies
