Life. Indexes* Jeremy Taylor, Reginald Heber, 1854 Ferris Wheel Katie Jackson, 2011-06-01 When a new family moves into the house across the street Kathryn Price has no clue just how much her life will soon become intertwined with theirs and what fate has in store for her and Carson the only child of the gracious Ferris family Kathryn soon realizes that she and Carson have a lot in common Not only will they be starting their freshman year of high school together at the end of the summer Carson's mother is dying something Kathryn has already experienced years before Before long they're inseparable For Kathryn and Carson everything seems nearly perfect until their happiness is overshadowed by the specter of Huntington's disease which threatens to destroy everything they hold dear

Frontiers of Embedded Muslim Communities in India Vinod K. Jairath, 2013-04-03 This volume approaches the study of Muslim societies through an evolutionary lens challenging Islamic traditions identities communities beliefs practices and ideologies as static frozen or unchangeable It assumes that there is neither a monolithic essential or authentic Islam nor a homogeneous Muslim community Similarly there are no fixed binary oppositions such as between the ulama and sufi saints or textual and lived Islam The overarching perspective that there is no fixity in the meanings of Islamic symbols and that the language of Islam can be used by individuals organizations movements and political parties variously in religious and non religious contexts underlies the ethnographically rich essays that comprise this volume Divided in three parts the volume cumulatively presents an initial framework for the study of Muslim communities in India embedded in different regional and local contexts The first part focuses on ethnographies of three Muslim communities Kuchchhi Jatt Irani Shia and Sidis and their relationships with others with shifting borders and frontiers part two examines the issue of caste of certain Muslim communities and the third part containing chapters on Tamil Nadu Andhra Pradesh Mumbai and Gujarat looks at the varied responses of Muslims as Indian citizens in regional contexts at different historical moments Although the volume focuses on Muslim communities in India it is also meant to bridge an important gap in and contribute to the sociology of India which has been organized and taught primarily as a sociology of Hindu society The book will appeal to those in sociology history political science education modern South Asian Studies and to the general reader interested in India South Asia generation has consistently commanded widespread attention both scholarly and popular little has been written about Generation X the 46 million Americans born between the mid 1960s and late 1970s But with Baby Boomers now moving into retirement members of Generation X have come to the forefront of American society Consequently understanding Generation X and the potential impact of the independent sometimes rebellious spirit that characterizes it is critical In Generation X Professors Speak Voices from Academia Elwood Watson has assembled a unique collection of thematically arranged essays by academics that offers insights into the issues conflicts and triumphs that epitomize this often overlooked generation One essayist writes about her determination to achieve her career goals without sacrificing time with her family while another speaks about being a stay at home dad and teaching part time at a university Another essay covers disabilities depression and mental illness pointing to the sympathetic approach Gen Xers tend to take toward individuals often marginalized by society The acceptance of interracial marriage on the part of members of Generation X is engagingly presented by an ivy league educated white man married to a woman of African descent And the role religion plays in the lives of Gen Xers is movingly expressed by an essayist whose commitment to his spiritual faith have allowed him to combat racial social family personal and academic issues These and the other essays in this collection passionately and sometime provocatively cover topics ranging from career class family life health music and physical disabilities to race religion and sexuality Together the essays define the characteristics and demonstrate the diversity of Generation X and will appeal to scholars students and others interested in social history psychology gender studies and popular culture A dissuasive from popery ; Letters ; A
