The Race to Be Myself Young Readers Edition Caster Semenya, 2024-05-28 A New York Public Library Best Book of 2024 A School Library Journal Best Book of 2024 In this memoir for young readers Olympic champion runner Caster Semenya reflects on her groundbreaking career and her fight for identity in professional sports Caster Semenya is a two time Olympic gold medalist and a three time world champion in track from South Africa Since her first spectacular performance at the 2009 World Championship in Berlin she has been at the center of a growing debate about female eligibility rules in professional athletics because of her naturally high testosterone levels After she was forced to take devastating hormone altering drugs in order to continue competing this debate has moved to center stage in the future of inclusivity for professional athletes In this middle grade adaptation of her debut adult memoir Caster recounts her childhood growing up in a small village in South Africa the love for and acceptance of her identity from her community and her trailblazing fight for the right to compete in professional sports The Race to Be Myself is an illuminating and necessary story of identity and self acceptance that will resonate with young readers

The Works of Virgil Translated Into English Prose [by - Davidson] ... with the Latin Text and Order of Construction on the Same Page; and ... Notes in English ... New Edition. Lat. and Eng Virgil, 1810 Writing Alone and with Others Pat Schneider, 2003 For more than a quarter of a century Pat Schneider has helped writers find and liberate their true voices Now Schneider's acclaimed methods are made available in a single well organized and highly readable volume So There I Was... Rob Gordon, 2010-03-11 This book is a collection of my all time favorite stories from working with patients as a medical professional over the past seventeen years I have witnessed and been a part of some amazing experiences ranging from hilarious to shocking to just plain disgusting I've told these stories many times at family gatherings parties and in conversations with friends After much encouragement I took the time to write them down before they became distant memories Each chapter of this book is dedicated to a specific incident which should give the reader an inside look into the often entertaining world of a health care provider The names of course have been changed to protect the innocent but I didn't leave out or alter any of the colorful details Path Chosen

Delane Quiver Boyer, 2014-04-09 This is my story of my memories thoughts and interpretations that I made from my experiences starting at the beginning of my age of awareness I grew up on the Pine Ridge Indian Reservation in South Dakota where I faced living in two different cultures to the time I joined the U S Army My story is not about the accumulation of wealth or being famous or being some savior It is about a simple dream My story starts from the time I remember reaching the age of awareness to the present I do not claim to be a writer so my story may not be a well planned or polished literary work that meets all the high standards of writing The story is about being on a path out of poverty I was raised by my grandparents from a baby to the time I joined the U S Army For some reason my mother left me to be raised by her parents They were poor people seasonal laborers who lived with a strong belief in their God We lived in a two room shack with tarpaper siding that had not inside toilet running water or electricity That was our home They were always short of money to buy necessities and usually faced hunger However they were a good couple and had a faith to believe in God However I was fortunate to get a good education and had the opportunity to join the army for a career I experienced new horizons that exposed me to new learning s that tempered my attitude I wish to share my experiences and thoughts from traveling along a path chosen with especially the Lakota youth and the non Lakota youth what have written in this book Pilamaya Thank you

The Living Age ,1852 Wildflower April R. Schreiber,2012-01-06 A blind date introduces April to a man she nicknames Jimmer and her life is changed forever He exposes her to the finer things in life but more importantly he teaches her what true love is She finds herself telling him things she never told anyone before and cannot understand why he loves her when he could have someone not as damaged as she She is an addict when they meet had been raped and had a childhood filled with severe physical and mental abuse The more she tells him the more deeply he falls in love with her Coming from a small town where hunting and guns are common place she thinks nothing of it when she learns he carries a 38 under his suit coat to work After living on a rough part of a reservation where her sister handed her a rifle because she though someone was coming to steal their gas she assumes his guns are to protect the large amounts of cash he has both in his car trunk and apartment She is unfamiliar with city life and assumes this is normal Because she trusts him so completely she is not suspicious of his job when he takes spur of the moment out of state business trips that can last for an undetermined amount of time When he tells her something fell off a truck he laughs as she wonders why it didn t break Wildflower is true the story of their time spent together events that happened and murder It is a story every woman of every age can relate to It is the author s hope that you enjoy this glimpse of the not so average life one woman was lucky enough to survive May you be in heaven half an hour before the devil knows you re dead The Japanese Community in Pre-War Britain Keiko

Itoh,2013-07-04 Explores the origins of the community and compares the experience of the Japanese to that of other national groups The book discusses the community s involvement in the arts religion and sport intermarriage and the second generation and concludes by considering the impact of deteriorating relations in the 1930s and of the Second World War

The Nine Lives of Arnold Arnold Von der Porten,2001-12-01 Who would want to read The Nine Lives of Arnold Serious people who have wondered how it was possible for an intelligent and cultured people like the Germans to vote for a maniac like Hitler history buffs and students who are interested in an entertaining and often humorous report on the time between the two World Wars World War II and its aftermath Born in 1917 Arnold von der Porten is raised in a family whose religion was democracy he describes how the ominous threat of Nazism was fed by the fear of a Communist Revolution and by the foreign politics of the victorious Allies of the first World War As he left home Arnold a boy of 15 brought up in the genteel German middle class was suddenly tossed into extreme poverty in the British Crown Colony of Jamaica He describes all aspects of Jamaican life before World War II as he works himself up and eventually starts his own neon shop This narration and Arnold's 26 drawings are sure to be of great interest to people of all backgrounds and nationalities who wish to understand the time between the two World Wars with the rise of Hitler. Certainly it will be of great interest to British and Jamaican people as well as others who ever lived in or read about a colony. War comes. He interned with Nazis, Fascists and Jews alike. Life in a British internment camp. Released, he describes his experience in the Kingston business world. Arnold becomes prominent. He marries Amy Barry of a prominent family. Arnold illuminates a lot of historical events causing Hitler's rise leading to World War II, the changing fortunes of that War, the Cold War. He was there when the British Empire was breaking up. The independence movement became hostile to foreigners. Amy and Arnold decided to migrate to America in 1953.
