Notes and Queries ,1900 The Boundaries of Medicare Katherine Fierlbeck,Gregory P. Marchildon,2023-02-15 While almost all universal health coverage in Canada is provided under the Canada Health Act there is Medicare coverage that is provided outside of the act This is the first book to explain the nature of these boundary health services why they exist and how to navigate them in practice The Boundaries of Medicare examines the complex range of public health care services and coverage arrangements that predate or have developed alongside the Canada Health Act These provisions including for workers compensation military personnel and veterans incarcerated persons migrants and Indigenous Peoples are often not well understood even by those working at policy and delivery levels Katherine Fierlbeck and Gregory Marchildon aim to improve understanding of these boundary services why they were established who is eligible for them how services are provided how they are paid for and how they are managed within a multilevel governance system They also look at the dramatic increase in virtual health care services since the onset of the COVID 19 pandemic and their relationship to the Canada Health Act Explaining the origins operations and tensions of government funded health care outside the Canada Health Act The Boundaries of Medicare is an essential resource for policymakers providers administrators and patients seeking to navigate Medicare in Canada

Place of Performance Chukwuma Okoli, 2020-05-28 This book provides an unprecedented analysis on the place of performance The central theme is that the place of performance is of considerable significance as a connecting factor in international commercial contracts This book challenges and questions the approach of the European legislator for not explicitly giving special significance to the place of performance in determining the applicable law in the absence of choice for commercial contracts It also contains inter alia an analogy to matters of foreign country mandatory rules and the coherence between jurisdiction and choice of law It concludes by proposing a revised Article 4 of Rome I Regulation which could be used as an international solution by legislators judges arbitrators and other stakeholders who wish to reform their choice of law rules

Mechanisms of Innate Neuroprotection Giuseppe Pignataro, 2016-07-27 As clinical trials of pharmacological neuroprotective strategies in stroke have been disappointing attention has turned to the brain's own endogenous strategies for neuroprotection Two endogenous mechanisms have been recently characterized ischemic preconditioning and ischemic postconditioning In the present topic newly characterized mechanisms involved in preconditioning and postconditioning neuroprotection will be discussed The understanding of the mechanisms involved in the neuroprotective pathways induced by preconditioning and postconditioning will be clinically relevant for identifying new druggable target for neurodegenerative disorder therapy Furthermore the importance of these neuroprotective strategies resides in that it might be easily translatable into clinical practice Therefore the data presented here will highlight the capacity of ischemic preconditioning and postconditioning to be of benefit to humans
