What A Carve Up Jonathan Coe:

What a Carve Up! Jonathan Coe, 1994 Novel of corruption in high places The Winshaw Legacy Jonathan Coe, 1996-01-03 If Charles Dickens and Agatha Christie had ever managed to collaborate they might have produced this shamelessly entertaining novel which introduces readers to what may be the most powerful family in England and is certainly the vilest A tour de force of menace malicious comedy and torrential social bile this book marks the American debut of an extraordinary writer Understanding Jonathan Coe Merritt Moseley, 2016-07-30 An examination of the life career and oeuvre of the British novelist and biographer In Understanding Jonathan Coe the first full length study of the British novelist Merritt Moseley surveys a writer whose experimental technique has become increasingly well received and critically admired Coe is the recipient of the John Llewellyn Rhys Prize the Prix Medicis the Priz du Meilleur Livre Entranger the Bollinger Everyman Wodehouse Prizes for Fiction and the Samuel Johnson Prize for Nonfiction His oeuvre includes eleven novels and three biographies two of famous Hollywood actors Humphrey Bogart and Jimmy Stewart and one of English modernist novelist B S Johnson Following an introductory overview of Coe s life and career Moseley examines Coe s complex engagement with popular culture his experimental technique his political satire and his broad canvased depictions of British society Though his first three books An Accidental Woman A Touch of Love and The Dwarves of Death received little notice upon publication Moseley shows their strengths as literary works and as precursors In 1994 Coe gained visibility with What a Carve Up which has remained his most admired and discussed novel He has since published a postmodern take on sleep disorders and university students The House of Sleep a two volume roman fleuve consisting of The Rotters Club and The Closed Circle a touching account of a lonely woman s life The Rain before It Falls a satiric vision of a misguided life The Terrible Privacy of Maxwell Sim and a domestic comedy thriller set at the 1958 world s fair in Brussels Expo 58 Moseley explicates these works and discusses the recurring features of Coe s fiction political consciousness a deep artistic concern with the form of fiction and comedy Jonathan Coe Philip Tew, 2018-03-22 In novels such as What A Carve Up and The Rotters Club Jonathan Coe has established himself as one of the great satirical writers of our time Covering all of his major novels including his most recent book Number 11 Jonathan Coe Contemporary British Satire includes chapters by leading and emerging scholars of contemporary British writing The book features a preface by Coe himself and covers the ways in which his work grapples with such themes as class politics popular music sex gender and the media A Reading of "What a Carve Up!" by Jonathan Coe Nathalie Debeve, 2000 Jonathan Coe Vanessa Guignery, 2015-12-01 Jonathan Coe is one of the most popular and critically acclaimed contemporary British writers This comprehensive introduction places his work in clear historical and theoretical context offering extensive readings of the author s ten novels from The Accidental Woman to Expo 58 including the remarkable What a Carve Up The book explores Coe s biography and his experimentations with narrative genre and comedy as well as his thematic preoccupations with history memory loss and nostalgia The first volume devoted entirely to Coe this book includes A supporting timeline of key dates in literature and current events An examination of the critical reception to Coe s works An exclusive interview with Jonathan Coe himself The Cambridge Introduction to Modern British Fiction, 1950-2000 Dominic Head,2002-03-07 In this introduction to post war fiction in Britain Dominic Head shows how the novel yields a special insight into the important areas of social and cultural history in the second half of the twentieth century Head s study is the most exhaustive survey of post war British fiction available It includes chapters on the state and the novel class and social change gender and sexual identity national identity and multiculturalism Throughout Head places novels in their social and historical context He highlights the emergence and prominence of particular genres and links these developments to the wider cultural context He also provides provocative readings of important individual novelists particularly those who remain staple reference points in the study of the subject Accessible wide ranging and designed specifically for use on courses this is the most current introduction to the subject available An invaluable resource for students and teachers alike Power in Politics and Academia in Jonathan Coe's Novels Denisa Dumitrascu,2018-04-18 This book explores the intricate manifestations of contemporary power its related ideology and the resistance and reaction to the dominant discourse in Jonathan Coe s political fiction covering the dismantling of the British social democratic consensus Thatcherism and Blairism up to the new ideology of Globalism Beyond the predictable dichotomy of support opposition to power the book argues the modern individual seems to have found another ontological approach for which it coins the concept of intentional unpower Furthermore it demonstrates that there are three possibilities regarding the evolution of this type of social response and invites the readers to discover them while enjoying Coe s subtlety and humour Given its broad approach the book will appeal to researchers in a wide range of domains including literary and cultural studies political theory and sociology as well as any reader fascinated with the essence of power intellectual response and discourses containing their own elements of subversion Like a Fiery Elephant Jonathan Coe,2005-04-28 The most critically acclaimed literary biography published in the UK in 2004 tells the story of B S Johnson one of Britain s most innovative passionate and controversial writers of the 1960s and 70s an unflinching advocate for the avant garde who worked firmly in the tradition of Joyce and Beckett The 2010s Emily Horton,Nick Bentley,Nick Hubble,Philip Tew,2024-02-08 This volume relates the British fiction of the decade to the contexts in which it was written and received in order to examine and explain contemporary trends such as the rise of a new working class fiction the ongoing development of separate national literatures of Scotland Wales and Ireland and shifts in modes of attention and reading From the aftermath of the 2008 global financial crash to the Covid 19 pandemic of 2020 the 2010s have been a decade of an ongoing crisis which has penetrated every area of everyday life Internationally there has been an ongoing shift of global power from the US to China and events and developments such as the election of Donald Trump as US President the emergence of the Black Lives Matter movement the rise of the populist right across Europe and very gradually the incipient effects variously of AI

Nationally there has been a decade of austerity economics punctuated by divisive referendums on Scottish independence and whether Britain should leave or remain in the EU Balancing critical surveys with in depth readings of work by authors who have helped define this turbulent decade including Nicola Barker Anna Burns Jonathan Coe Alys Conran Bernadine Evaristo Mohsin Hamid James Kelman James Robertson Kamila Shamsie Ali Smith Zadie Smith and Adam Thirlwell among others this volume illustrates exactly how their key themes and concerns fit within the social and political circumstances of the decade

Prequels, Coquels and Sequels in Contemporary Anglophone Fiction Armelle Parey, 2018-09-03 This book offers to delineate a key phenomenon in contemporary Anglophone fiction novel expansion when the plot and characters from a finished novel are retrieved to be developed in new adventures set before after or during the narrative time of the source text If autographic and allographic sequels are almost as old as literature prequels that imagine the anteriority of a narrative and coquels that develop secondary characters in the same story time as the source text are more recent The overall trend for novel expansion spread in the mid 1980s and 1990s and has since shown no sign of abating This volume is organised following three types of relationships to the source texts even if these occasionally combine to produce a more complex structure This book comprises 11 essays preceded by an introduction that examine narrative strategies aesthetic ethical and political tendencies underlying these novel expansions Following the overview provided in the introduction the reader will find case studies of prequels coquels and sequels before a final chapter that encompasses them all and more Money,

Speculation and Finance in Contemporary British Fiction Nicky Marsh,2007-01-01 A key monograph surveying the portrayal of finance and money in British fiction over the last thirty years Late Cold War Literature and Culture

Daniel Cordle,2017-03-03 This book analyses the 1980s as a nuclear decade focusing on British and United States fiction Ranging across genres including literary fiction science fiction post apocalyptic fiction graphic novels children s and young adult literature thrillers and horror it shows how pressing nuclear issues were particularly the possibility of nuclear war and how deeply they penetrated the culture It is innovative for its discussion of a nuclear transatlantic placing British and American texts in dialogue with one another for its identification of a vibrant young adult fiction that resonates with more conventionally studied literatures of the period and for its analysis of a politics of vulnerability animating nuclear debates Placing nuclear literature in social and historical contexts it shows how novels and short stories responded not only to nuclear fears but also crystallised contemporary debates about issues of gender the environment society and the economy

Adult Themes Anne Etienne,Benjamin Halligan,Christopher Weedman,2023-08-24 Between the late 1950s and mid 1970s British cinema experienced an explosion of X certificated films In parallel with an era marked by social political and sexual ferment and upheaval British filmmakers and censors pushed and guarded the permissible limits of violence horror revolt and sexuality on screen Adult Themes is the first volume entirely devoted to the exploration of British X certificate films across this transformative period since identified as the long 1960s How did the British Board of Film Censors harried on one side by the censorious and moralistic and beset on the other by demands for greater artistic freedom oversee and manage this provocative body of films How did the freedoms and restrictions of the X certificate hasten determine and reshape post war British cinema into an artistic exploitative and unapologetically adult medium Contributors to this collection consider these central questions as they take us to swinging parties on youthful crime sprees into local council meetings on police raids of cinemas and around Soho strip clubs and introduce us to mass murderers lesbian vampires apoplectic protestors eroticised middle aged women and rebellious working class men Adult Themes examines both the workings and negotiations of British film censorship the limits of artistic expression and a wider culture of X certificate cinema This is an important volume for students and scholars of British Film History and censorship Media Studies the 1960s and Cultural and Sexuality Studies while simultaneously an entertaining read for all connoisseurs of British cinema at its most vivid and scandalous

Educational Bilingualism Natalia A. Gunina,Radislav P. Millrood,2019-08-18 This volume focuses on the recent trend in English language pedagogy of educational bilingualism that is teaching English language contents and cultures in bilingual lessons It draws on the critical revision of the monolingual tradition of language instruction rooted in the outdated direct method once powerful at the turn of the 20th century The realities of education are that the English language is spreading to foreign lands circulating alongside native tongues functioning as a universal communication tool for multinational groups or individuals and emerging as a global language in education This book proves the hypothesis that in the epoch of information breakthroughs and global migration the value of English in education lies in it being the key to innovative knowledge This leads to its integration with the learners own language providing alternative sources of information and marking cultural self identity
