the supposed specter IN THE SHADOWS OF THE MORNING: ESSAYS ON Philip Caputo, 2014-05-06 Philip Caputo's passion for travel and adventure was inspired by the works of Joseph Conrad, Jack London and Herman Melville and through the years this passion led to a rugged writer's life filled with hair-raising experiences in the jungles of Vietnam, the rubble of Beirut and the savannas of Africa. In the Shadows of the Morning collects Caputo's essays for the first time, each imbued with the powerful and memorable writing for which he has become so well known. In The Ahab Complex, Caputo recalls a life-and-death struggle with a majestic giant blue marlin off the coast of Florida whose quarter-ton body lit up as if a gigantic light had flashed in the water. He recounts his travels in Kenya's largest national park among the only lions to have a natural tendency to stalk and eat human beings and where the accounts of their gruesome escapades invaded his dreams. In the title piece, he reflects on a harrowing trip down the Alaskan river that nearly claimed his son's life, nature's indifference to human loss, and an evocative account of letting go. In the Shadows of the Morning is a fascinating journey through a lifetime of profound experiences. Adventurers and lovers of great writing will welcome this collection of finely crafted essays by one of America's most gifted writers.

The New Age of Adventure John Rasmus, 2009-09-15 National Geographic Adventure has published the best work by today's finest writers and this tenth anniversary anthology assembles an elite corps of authors that includes Sebastian Junger, Peter Matthiessen, Philip Caputo and two dozen others. These reporters have voyaged to the ends of the earth to bring back the decade's most thrilling, eccentric and extraordinary tales. But the pieces collected here do more than paint a portrait of the world's most extreme and fascinating environments; they also explore important questions about adventure in the 21st century. These stories rocket readers across the roof of the world, on the new high-speed railway in Tibet, describe the tension between Indian farmers and the sacred elephants besieging their villages, and introduce them to a shaman whom some believe can cure the most serious depressions. We meet the great Afghan warlord Ahmed Shah Massoud, said to have been the finest guerrilla fighter since Ho Chi Minh, encounter a yeti with legendary mountaineer Reinhold Messner, and much more. This is a wide-ranging collection for every road warrior and adventurer, armchair or otherwise, culled from the much-acclaimed journal that in its first ten years has won millions of devoted readers and garnered more than a dozen prestigious prizes for excellence in journalism.

The Annotated Lolita Vladimir Nabokov, 1991-04-23 Nabokov's wise, ironic and elegant masterpiece. A controversial love story, almost shocking in its beauty and tenderness. This annotated edition assiduously illuminates the extravagant wordplay and the frequent literary allusions, parodies and cross references. Edited with a preface, introduction and notes by Alfred Appel Jr. Fascinatingly detailed. Edmund Morris, The New York Times Book Review. When it was published in 1955, Lolita immediately became a cause célèbre because of the freedom and sophistication with which it handled the unusual erotic predilections of its protagonist. Awe and exhilaration, along with heartbreak and mordant wit, abound in this account of the aging Humbert Humbert's obsessive devouring and doomed passion for the nymphet Dolores Haze. Lolita is also the story of a hypercivilized European colliding with the cheerful barbarism of postwar America but most of all it is a meditation on love love as outrage and hallucination madness and transformation Lolita / Лолита. Книга для чтения на английском языке Владимир Набоков, 2019-11-25
