The different Dialects spoken in Eswatini Lwandze Dlamini, 2024-01-09 Bachelor Thesis from the year 2020 in the subject African Studies Linguistics grade 2 7 course Languages and literature language English abstract With a sociolinguistic scope the present research work is aimed to investigate and examine SiSwati variations dialects in the four regions of Eswatini Hhohho Lubombo Shiselweni and Manzini Since dialectal study is comparative the SiSwati texts in the four regions have been compared to a standardized version of the language that is the SiSwati variant that is being taught in schools The major linguistic focus of this study is morphological variation lexical variation and syntactical variation Four speakers from the four different regions have been interviewed for this study The results indicated that SiSwati just like any other language spoken by a large speech community has variations Major linguistic differences have been noted in the construction of words the choice of vocabulary used by the speakers and the construction of sentences Many scholars like Khumalo have deliberated on the dialects of Emaswati These studies mainly focus on the phonological variations So far little attention has been paid to awareness regarding other areas of dialect variation such as lexical variation and grammatical variation This study will present the morphological lexical and syntactic differences of the dialects of SiSwati in the different regions of Eswatini The effort of this study is to research the different dialects is an effort to understand the differences in the society It will identify the possible similarities and differences between the lexical items of these dialects and the standard SiSwati also with the aim of showing peculiarities as far as their morphologic systems are concerned

Christian identity and justice in a globalized world from a Southern African perspective Hermen Kroesbergen, 2014-08-01 What does the globalized world that we live in mean for our Christian identity and for our struggle for social justice That is the central question that is addressed in this book from a wide array of angles by members of the Association of Theological Institutions of Southern and Central Africa ATISCA and Justo Mwale Theological University College Lusaka Zambia This book is about the struggle for social justice in relation to the self understanding of Christians from Southern and East Africa in a globalizing world Among other concerns it brings out the connection between theology and disability where disability is reflected as an issue that calls for self identity and self re definition This book is an important resource on contextualisation of theology and it is worthy reading Dr Samuel Kabue Executive Director of the World Council of Churches network EDAN In a work long overdue theologians and other researchers in Christianity investigate discuss and critique the influence of globalization on Christian identity in Southern Africa and its consequences in the struggle for justice Despite all talk about a global village the voices of Christians from Southern Africa are hardly ever heard This book represents an important change in this respect The book has been well edited by Hermen Kroesbergen and it is a must read for all theologians and ministers who want to reflect on our shifting identifies Christian Literature Fund Working Papers in Linguistics ,1997 Language Policy and Economics: The Language Question in Africa Nkonko M. Kamwangamalu,2016-04-23 This book addresses the perennial question of how to promote Africa s indigenous languages as medium of instruction in educational systems Breaking with the traditional approach to the continent s language question by focusing on the often overlooked issue of the link between African languages and economic development Language Policy and Economics argues that African languages are an integral part of a nation s socio political and economic development Therefore the book argues that any language policy designed to promote these languages in such higher domains as the educational system in particular must have economic advantages if the intent is to succeed and proposes Prestige Planning as the way to address this issue The proposition is a welcome break away from language policies which pay lip service to the empowerment of African languages while by default strengthening the stranglehold of imported European languages Teaching English in Swaziland Sarah Mkhonza,2011-12-14 The book Teaching English in Swaziland The Life and Days of Gordon Thomas is about Gordon the teacher and mentor His life at Manzini Nazarene is one that all his students remember as filled with great moments of teaching and learning In this book his ideas on teaching are written about in a semi fictional manner that enables readers to think about their own teaching The dedication he brought to the teaching task has been analyzed to bring out how he taught composition poetry drama and the novel His students in the class of 75 called him Chaucer We thank York University and the Church of the Nazarene for making it possible for such a great teacher and thinker to sow into our lives His students have grown to be professors ministers ambassadors and many other important careers that are serving the nation of Swaziland in wonderful ways The life of a Christian teacher is something that can never be replaced in the lives of students Gordon will be remembered in all the countries around the world where he worked for all that he gave Gordon Thomas died of melanoma cancer in 2006
