Ralarala, Salochana Lorraine Hassan, Rajani Naidoo, 2021-05-25 Knowledge remains timely in education The need for academics to contemplate its relevance worth use and everything in between deems a continuous intellectual project rather than a conundrum to be solved This book takes the South African context by the horns as it challenges the often dormant and traditionalist ways in which higher education spaces see knowledge Through original research and the voices of academics and students this book argues for repurposing knowledge generation knowledge sharing and critical pedagogy so that more inclusive teaching and learning environments can be both imagined and sustained The contentious tensionalities that this creates for LoLT and SoTL in particular are unlocked so as to trouble the South African higher education landscape with the intent to proffer alternative pathways for a knowledge beyond colour lines Prof Shan Simmonds PhD NWU This edited volume bristles with fresh scholarly approaches and insights of an emergent generation of engaged scholars grappling with the issues and problems of higher education in South Africa The issues dealt with here are varied and encompassing They are treated with intellectual delicacy and probing sensitivity articulacy informed data and bold conclusions They serve well Prof Kwesi Kwaa Prah Emeritus Professor of Sociology University of the Western Cape Founder of the Centre for Advanced Studies of African Society ETDP SETA Scarce & Critical Skills Guide 2010/11 , In Pursuit of Epistemic Healing in South African Universities Wanelisa Xaba, 2025-09-30 This book demonstrates the epistemic challenges in the South African education system and asks readers to think critically about the university's role in a decolonial future Wanelisa Xaba reveals how Western colonial educational models severed indigenous ways of knowing and learning across the Global South and settler colonial contexts Presenting narratives capturing ongoing histories of violence this book shows how Black South African students navigate intersecting identities of race class gender and spirituality within university settings It shows how racial discrimination from fellow students academics and staff coupled with discriminatory language policies financial exclusion and violent colonial curricula affects Black students wellbeing on university campuses Xaba argues that these intersecting colonial violences mirror spiritual violence hinder their holistic citizenship in South African universities and result in psycho spiritual disease By centring Black students voices this book provides crucial insights for educators policymakers activists healers and institutions committed to creating affirming academic spaces and epistemic healing It is an insightful read for scholars researching decoloniality in higher education as well as students of feminist studies decolonial theory educational justice and critical university studies Higher Education in Regional and City Development: The Free State, South Africa 2012 OECD,2012-02-14 This publication explores a range of helpful policy measures and institutional reforms to mobilise higher education for regional development in the Free State of South Africa Open Learning as a Means of Advancing Social Justice Tabisa Mayisela,Shanali Govender,2024-01-23 This volume investigates the uptake of open learning in South African Technical Vocational Education and Training TVET colleges and higher education institutions Comprised of 16 studies focused on activities at a range of colleges and universities across the country these chapters aim to promote a better understanding of open learning practices across the Post School Education and Training PSET sector including issues such as recognition of prior learning access for students with disabilities work integrated learning professional development novel student funding mechanisms leadership for open educational practices institutional culture student support blended and online learning flexible learning online assessment open educational resource development models and funding and micro credentials This collection of peer reviewed chapters contributes to understanding the ways in which South African PSET institutions and educators are interpreting open learning as a means of advancing social justice It includes a historical and contemporary understanding of the economic cultural and political obstacles facing PSET drawing on Nancy Fraser s theory of social justice as participatory parity to better understand the ways in which open learning may address systemic social injustices in order to allow South African students and educators to thrive This volume emerges from research conducted by the Cases on Open Learning COOL project an initiative by the Department of Higher Education and Training in partnership with the Centre for Innovation in Learning and Teaching CILT at the University of Cape Town UCT in South Africa Universities, Employability and Human Development Melanie Walker,Samuel Fongwa,2017-01-20 The book makes a significant contribution to critical higher education studies specifically to graduate employability research and to capabilities and education research The book moves beyond the simplistic conception of alleged gaps in graduate skills and mismatches between employers and universities and instead provides an innovative multi dimensional and intersectional human capabilities conceptualisation of graduate employability The book challenges an individualised notion of employability instead locating employability issues in social and economic conditions and argues that employability choices cannot be divorced from inequality Qualitative and quantitative data from multiple case study universities in South Africa are used to explore the perceptions and experiences of diverse students lecturers support officers and employers regarding what each university is doing or should be doing to enhance graduate economic opportunities and contribute to inclusive development The book will be highly relevant to students scholars and researchers in the fields of education and sociology particularly those with an interest in graduate employability The Youth Dividend Jan H. Hofmeyr, 2012 Social Justice and Education in the 21st Century Willie Pearson Jr., Vijay Reddy, 2021-04-10 The world is not an equal place There are high and low income countries and high and low income households For each group there are differential educational opportunities leading to differential educational outcomes and differential labor market opportunities This pattern often reproduces the privileges and inequalities of groups in a society This book explores this differentiation in education from a social justice lens Comparing the United States and South Africa this book analyzes each country's developmental thinking on education from human capital and human rights approaches in both primary and higher education The enclosed contributions draw from different disciplines including legal studies sociology psychology computer science and public policy Education and Leadership Tom Claes, Frank McMahon, David Seth Preston, 2008 This truly international book brings together authors from different regions of the world including North America South Africa Europe Iran and Russia all of whom are concerned with aspects of the challenges involved in the expansion of higher education both in student numbers and areas of study Some are concerned about the loss of guiding principles which steered university education for centuries The traditional purposes of higher education have come under such pressure that we have achieved conflicting models of the university Claes and ambiguity in regard to teaching and research Simons et al For others the problems are at a different stage Contributions from South Africa look at three challenges Can we provide enough places in higher education How do we deal with institutional mergers How do we make staff development effective in a situation in which English is the first language of less than five percent of the staff Young scholars in Russian regions face formidable hurdles in achieving academic careers while the best law graduates in Canada are faced with the ethical dilemma of personal career advancement or social justice Topsakal The problem of integrating nursing into a traditional Irish university is reviewed by Grant while the role of a university in regional development is addressed from a Greek perspective by Papaelias et al The comparative international approach features in research into teacher job satisfaction in India and Iran while McMahon reviews the impact of the Bologna Process Women, Economic Development, and Higher Education Diane E. Eynon, 2017-06-19 This book is a multi disciplinary exploration of the intersection relationship and connection between higher education economic development and gender in post Apartheid South Africa In just twenty years South Africa has rewritten its constitution restructured its macroeconomic growth and development policies restructured its higher education system and made a commitment to provide opportunity for all its citizens specifically those who have historically been marginalized women and blacks Eynon weaves together these unique perspectives to illustrate how these multiple domains map onto women and the critical role they play in the present and future of the country Gender equality and women's empowerment and education were considered key drivers to South Africa's transformation Higher Education Pathways Ashwin, Paul, Case, Jennifer M., 2018-12-14 In what ways does access to undergraduate education have a transformative impact on people and societies

What conditions are required for this impact to occur What are the pathways from an undergraduate education to the public good including inclusive economic development These questions have particular resonance in the South African higher education context which is attempting to tackle the challenges of widening access and improving completion rates in a system in which the segregations of the apartheid years are still apparent Higher education is recognised in core legislation as having a distinctive and crucial role in building post apartheid society Undergraduate education is seen as central to addressing skills shortages in South Africa It is also seen to yield significant social returns including a consistent positive impact on societal institutions and the development of a range of capabilities that have public as well as private benefits This book offers comprehensive contemporary evidence that allows for a fresh engagement with these pressing issues Faculty Perspectives on Vocational Training in South Africa Eunice Ivala, Chaunda Scott, 2019-03-06 The Cape Peninsula University of Technology CPUT is one of four Universities of Technology established by the South African government in 2005 with a focus on vocational training This book presents faculty experiences of CPUT's innovative work integrated learning and teaching model as well as findings from practice based research being done in the institution The purpose of this volume is to be a resource for other institutions in South Africa that wish to try similar strategies as well as a to trigger a community of practice with vocationally oriented institutions outside of South Africa
