From the award winning and bestselling author of Cod comes the dramatic human story of a simple substance an element almost as vital as water that has created fortunes provoked revolutions directed economies and enlivened our recipes Salt is common easy to obtain and inexpensive It is the stuff of kitchens and cooking Yet trade routes were established alliances built and empires secured all for something that filled the oceans bubbled up from springs formed crusts in lake beds and thickly veined a large part of the Earth s rock fairly close to the surface From pre history until just a century ago when the mysteries of salt were revealed by modern chemistry and geology no one knew that salt was virtually everywhere Accordingly it was one of the most sought after commodities in human history Even today salt is a major industry Canada Kurlansky tells us is the world s sixth largest salt producer with salt works in Ontario playing a major role in satisfying the Americans insatiable demand As he did in his highly acclaimed Cod Mark Kurlansky once again illuminates the big picture by focusing on one seemingly modest detail In the process the world is revealed as never before

Our Founding Foods Jane Tennant,2014-07-12

American cuisine has absorbed the best and brightest of every culture world wide and it all began in the early cookbooks of the eighteenth century Martha Washington for instance our first First Lady was America s earliest celebrity chef Her recipe collection was a beloved family heirloom lent out to friends one receipt at a time Others followed In the South Thomas Jefferson s cousin Mary Randolph wrote a best selling cookbook many of whose recipes are still used today In upstate New York an enterprising young woman called Amelia Simmons set out the traditional American fare that graced Thanksgiving tables for generations Her cookbook was said to be the Second Declaration of Independence written on a kitchen table And culinary celebrities kept coming inspired by the bounty of America's fields and streams and gardens and enriched by the many different ethnic traditions at work over the hearth fires. It is all here in Our Founding Foods, pioneer campfire cookery, the first Mexican American cuisine, the liberated voices of former slave chefs and the Grand Dames of the early cooking schools. Author Jane Tennant presents over 200 recipes drawn from the best early American cookbooks, all written during the first two hundred years of our culinary history. Each recipe is referenced to its original source with biographical notes on the chef who published it. The bibliography to this collection extends back to 1615 when Gervase Markham, a contemporary of William Shakespeare, raved about manchet bread. From that moment forward, the text leaps across America's culinary history, culminating with the Fannie Farmer Cooking School in Boston in 1903. Along the way, you'll also learn what George Washington offered his guests at Mount Vernon, the favorite ice cream of Thomas Jefferson, how the cooks during the Civil War managed without flour, and the recipe for the illicit candy found in the dorms of Vassar College. Rich with fascinating historical information and stories of American ingenuity in the kitchen, this tour de force is a unique resource for cooks and historians alike.

What Caesar Did for My Salad Albert Jack, 2011-09-06 Did you know the term hot dog is believed to have been coined during a baseball game between the Yankees and the Giants in 1901? Calzones get their name from their less-than-glamorous looks: calzone means trouser leg or drooping sack in Italian. The word salary comes from Roman soldiers being paid their wages in salt. Shrimp cocktail became popular in the 1920s as a safe way of having a cocktail during Prohibition. The Cobb salad was invented by Robert H. Cobb, founder of the Brown Derby restaurant chain, who threw the salad together for Sidney Grauman, owner of the Chinese Theatre in Hollywood, as a midnight snack based on ingredients in his refrigerator. In What Caesar Did for My Salad, historian Albert Jack offers a fascinating look at the unexpected stories, creators, and bizarre origins behind the world's most beloved dishes. Who was Margherita, for instance, and why was the world's most famous pizza named after her? Why do we call our favorite kinds of coffee espresso or cappuccino? Did medieval Turkish soldiers really invent the kebab by threading bits of meat on to their swords and balancing them on top of their campfires What exactly does horseradish sauce have to do with our equine friends From your morning eggs to America s favorite pies fries and martinis you ll never look at your kitchen pantry or refrigerator in the same light again Beyond the Smoothie: Papaya Recipes for Every Occasion Hennie
