WHAT KATY DID A STORY Susan 1835-1905 Coolidge, 2016-08-27 What Katy Did Susan Coolidge, 2017-10-12 Excerpt from What Katy Did A Story Susan Coolidge was the eldest of a family Of four girls and a boy In their home at Newport Rhode Island she and her brother and sisters spent an ideally happy childhood A great part of their life was passed out of doors the grounds surrounding their house comprised meadow orchard and woodland and they seem to have enjoyed greater freedom than was usually permitted to young folk in America seventy or eighty years ago They had not only plenty of room to romp and play but as many animal friends as the heart of a child could desire horses to ride birds to pet and dogs to share their games And to complete their happiness a corner of the woodland was allowed to grow wild and given up specially to their use To the children this was an enchanted land for the imagination of the elder sister peopled it for them with elves and fairies fiery dragons witches and sorcerers brave knights and gentle ladies In Paradise as the children called this favoured spot the future author of the Katy books with her little brother and sisters hanging upon her words made her first essays in romance It was many years before she sought a larger audience Almost as soon as she could write she scribbled poems and stories for her own pleasure and the entertainment of the family but unlike many authors she seems to have had no desire to get them printed The exercise of writing was to her its own reward she had no craving for literary fame and she was not constrained like her contemporary and fellow countrywoman Louisa Alcott to seek an income from her pen About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst

What Katy Did at School (Classic Reprint) Susan Coolidge, 2017-12-22 Excerpt from What Katy Did at School All the last half of Cousin Helen's stay the weather was excessively sultry She felt it very much though the children did all they could to make her comfortable with shaded rooms and iced water and fans Every evening the boys would wheel her sofa out on the porch in hopes of coolness but it was of no use the evenings were as warm as the days and the yellow dust hanging in the air made the sunshine look thick and hot A few bright leaves appeared on the trees but they were wrinkled and of an ugly color Clover said she thought they had been boiled red like lobsters Altogether the month was a trying one and the coming of October made little or no difference still the dust continued and the heat and the wind when it blew had no refreshment in it but seemed to have passed over some great furnace which had burned out of it all life and vigor About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
