

The background of the slide is a collage of historical images. At the top left, there is a map of a coastal region. In the center, there is a portrait of a man with a beard, wearing a blue and white garment. To the right of the portrait, there is a landscape image showing a body of water and a distant shore. The text is overlaid on the top half of the slide.

Fear: An American History Willie Turner, 2022-08-30 History is the foundation of all great societies Willie authored this book to explore why throughout world and specifically American history the seventeenth eighteenth and nineteenth century writers took upon themselves to manipulate or rewrite history in their image His book is written to correct dates times and events that were changed kept hidden or forgotten Willie has uncovered some hidden history that would explain why the world has entered its end time He learned how because of fear America s foundation is built on a bed of sand not solid rocks Sand that is slowly being washed away He exposes the secrets as to how few people have caused so many to struggle for their mere existence on earth how religion became the cornerstone for slavery throughout the world This book explains how and why ignorance has caused so many divisions among the people in America and around the world how a coup d etat in America s past caused majority of the people in America to become slaves struggling to survive in the richest society on earth why slavery has always been a part of the fabric of America starting from so long ago how politics and politicians are leading great nations down a road of destruction and how greed and power has consumed so many people to worship money over God

You Are NOT Negro, Black, Coloured, Morisco Nor an African Slave Kudjo Adwo El, 2016-03-10 Grand Sheik Kudjo Adwo El examines the history of various misnomers of Moorish Americans since their encounter with the nations of Europe and their socio political implications

Poetic Stories About the People of the Sun and of the Soul Michael Washington, 2011-05-04 In the army I often wrote letters for my fellow comrades for a price They would tell me the story and I would put them in words It was a good hustle for me to make a little extra money I would write poems for their ladies or

wives for special occasions You know I liked doing it but I never did make copies to keep for myself Now the education system was a very pleasant experience until about the sixth grade for me when I learned that black people were slaves to white people in our social studies classes That was a defining moment for my educational experience because of the way it was taught It really threw me for a loop as I went home crying to my mother But she explained to me that the truth if you will seek you will find and that will make you free But from then on I lost some faith in the American education system As I learned later in life it was all based upon the theory of white supremacy For the facts that lead to truth were purposely left out of the mix to deprive black people of their righteous place in history and robbed white people of their truth in history The school system was one of the two major vehicles by which the white people claimed themselves as superior and the black people as inferior The other was religion and together as a double edge sword they still continue to put enmity between the different peoples and cultures of the world I did not give up on my learning experience and started to read other materials such as magazines comics and biographies of great men of color especially sports figures But the number one thing that I used to learn how to read better was the sports page of the L A Times I would read that section from front page to back page every morning before school But in school poetry was my most favored reading I liked the rythming of words as well as the message I think it was related to another love of mine as a child and that was music and dancing It didn t take long for me to memorize the lyrics of a song as we danced along singing aloud as if we were endowed with a gift from heaven above with that special kind of love That was the ultimate fun as a young man growing up to meet the girls To write little poems to your girlfriends was what I liked most The poetry of greeting cards was my cup of tea after my education experience on our family festivities and celebrations I would add my own poems to the cards on these occasions The family and friends always seemed to like them so very much always complimenting and encouraging me to write more But I did not pursue poetry much as I continued my quest for facts in pursuit of truth When my marriage ended in divorce in the early 1980s it was music and poetry that brought joy and peace within That s when my writing of poetry increased and my perspective about other things expanded As a single man again it was very interesting living the single life Now I have been married for 18 years living the family life called the American dream with grand children and all the wrappings and trappings that go with it But I don t mind one little bit because most of us should be graceful for the material life this land has produced despite its inequities For the horizon does not look as favorable for our future generations that must cope with the mess we have left for them in the physical mental and spiritual planes of life What They Never Told You in History Class Indus Khamit Kush,2014-08-05

The Idea of Decline in Western History Arthur Herman,2010-06-15 Historian Arthur Herman traces the roots of declinism and shows how major thinkers past and present have contributed to its development as a coherent ideology of cultural pessimism From Nazism to the Sixties counterculture from Britain s Fabian socialists to America s multiculturalists and from Dracula and Freud to Robert Bly and Madonna this work examines the idea of decline in Western history and sets out to explain how the conviction of civilization s inevitable end has become a fixed part of the modern Western imagination Through a series of biographical portraits spanning the 19th and 20th centuries the author traces the roots of declinism and aims to show how major thinkers of the past and present including Nietzsche DuBois Sartre and Foucault have contributed to its development as a coherent ideology of cultural pessimism

What They Never Told You In History Class Vol 1 : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. What They Never Told You In History Class Vol 1 : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. What They Never Told You In History Class Vol 1 : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and suspenseful novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
