Collapsed empires José M. Faraldo, 2020-01-01 The Russian Revolution of 1917 born of the collapses of the War exerted its influence all along the globe and for a long time In Europe and the Mediterranean world the effects of World War I were overwhelming Taking as point of departure the year of the Russian revolutions this book focus on the consequences of the imperial and state collapses after 1917 in spatial and chronological dialogue researching the changing of institutions that created narratives and representations of national memories exploring the nationalist movements that shaped the new countries and describing the communist activists that helped to transform the old world within the framework of a tragedy of terrible dimensions Jos M Faraldo is Associate Professor in the Department of Modern and Contemporary History of the Universidad Complutense de Madrid

Children's Picture Books about Refugees and Campbell's Monomyth Eseta Tualalelei, Martin Kerby, Margaret Baguley, Alison Bedford, 2025-07-14 This book explores the portrayal of refugee experiences in children s picture books using insights from Joseph Campbell s The Hero with a Thousand Faces Chapter 1 considers this emerging genre of children s literature within its social and educational context and explains how the narratives embedded within these books were examined Chapter 2 cites key studies in the field of children s picture books about refugees to uncover common narrative arcs characterisations themes and educative value Remaining chapters detail the three core elements of Campbell s canonical narrative arc to review how the experience of refugees is presented in modern picture books using this familiar narrative structure as a means of exploring a humanitarian issue with overt political overtones In so doing the authors employ an innovative means of analysing picture books that deal with refugees by positioning them within a familiar narrative arc that belies the fear of difference they may otherwise represent

Literary Modernism, Queer Temporality Kate Haffey, 2019-04-24 This book explores the intersection between the recent work on queer temporality and the experiments of literary modernism Kate Haffey argues that queer theory s recent work on time owes a debt to modernist authors who developed new ways of representing temporality in their texts By reading a series of early twentieth century literary texts from modernists like Woolf Eliot Faulkner and Stein alongside contemporary authors this book examines the way in which modernist writers challenged narrative conventions of time in ways that both illuminate and foreshadow current scholarship on queer temporality In her analyses of contemporary novelists and critics Michael Cunningham Jeanette Winterson Angela Carter and Eve Sedgwick Haffey also shows that these modernist temporalities have been reconfigured by contemporary authors to develop new approaches to futurity Diaspora and Multiculturalism Monika Fludernik, 2003 In postcolonial theory we have now reached a new stage in the succession of key concepts After the celebrations of hybridity in the work of Homi Bhabha and Gayatri Spivak it is now the concept of diaspora that has sparked animated debates among postcolonial critics This collection intervenes in the current discussion about the new diaspora by placing the rise of diaspora within the politics of multiculturalism and its supercession by a politics of difference and cultural rights theory The essays present recent developments in Jewish negotiations of diasporic tradition and experience discussing the reinterpretation of concepts of the old diaspora in late twentieth century British and American Jewish literature The second part of the volume comprises theoretical and critical essays on the South Asian diaspora and on multicultural settings between Australia Africa the Caribbean and North America The South Asian and Caribbean diasporas are compared to the Jewish prototype and contrasted with the Turkish diaspora in Germany All essays deal with literary reflections on and thematisations of the diasporic predicament Volume 2 of the Collected Works of Marie-Louise von Franz

Marie-Louise von Franz, 2021-11-01 The Collected Works of Marie Louise von Franz is a 28 volume Magnum Opus from one of the leading minds in Jungian Psychology Volume 1 released on her 106th birthday is to be followed by 27 more volumes over the next 10 years Volume 2 turns to the Hero's Journey within fairytales The Hero's Journey is about the great adventure that leads to a cherished and difficult to obtain prize In these fairytales the Self is often symbolized as that treasured prize and the hero's travails symbolize the process of individuation In its many manifestations the hero embodies the emerging personality In the conscious world the hero is only one part of the personality the despised part and through his attachment to the Self in the unconscious is a symbol of the whole personality Von Franz's prodigious knowledge of fairytales from around the world demonstrates that the fairytale draws its root moisture from the collective realm This volume continues where Volume 1 left off as von Franz describes the fairytale suspended between the divine and the secular worlds creating a mysterious and pregnant tension that requires extreme power to withstand The resistance of the great mother against the hero and his humble origins as well as the hero freeing the anima figure from the clutches of the unconscious are universal archetypal patterns The spoils retrieved by the hero symbolize new levels of consciousness wrested from the unconscious In The Shadows Of Demons MainePhrame, 2011-02-02 Beryl Bainbridge Huw Marsh, 2014 This study analyses Bainbridge's work in relation to some of the pressing debates in post war literary studies Cecilia: The Last Croilar Tier Sandra L Rostirolla, 2017-09-30 Dark dangerous and romantic Cecilia is the story of a detached assassin and a willful innocent and their epic journey to save the dying Goddess of Light Color map inside Theodicy Jill Graper

Hernandez, 2019-05-20 The problem of evil has vexed for centuries is pain and suffering in the world consistent with the existence of God Theodicy attempts to demonstrate or explain why the answer could be yes Some think that the problem of evil was solved a long time ago but theodicy in the 21st century has thus far produced novel approaches uncovered new dilemmas juxtaposed itself with other philosophical and religious fields listened to new voices and has even been explored through uncommon methodologies This is a new era of and for theodicy Though never removed from the logical problem of evil theodicy at least in the near future will generate unique arguments related to the phenomenology of lived suffering modal claims across worlds the possibility of ameliorative analysis narrative theodicy and standpoint difficulties in generating theodical discourse This special issue is dedicated to extending the platform for clear and interesting perspectives on new dimensions of theodicy and in reclaiming perspectives on the problem of evil that have been largely ignored in philosophy of religion

Love Wars Mary Irwin, 2025-02-06 This is the first dedicated overview of the international television romantic comedy genre Mary Irwin builds on the critical work on cinematic romantic comedy to offer a dedicated critical analysis of the romantic comedy on the small screen Drawing on series from the 1960s to the present day Irwin presents five themed chapters around the theme of romantic love from searching for it and finding it to the love wars of the book's title to finding love later in life and in places you didn't expect Chapters explore the genre's key recurrent themes evolving attitudes to love relationships sex class and money feminism and post feminism changes in the nuclear family dramatised through contrasting romantic relationships and shifting discourses of masculinity situating them within the specific socio historic and cultural context in which the series are set Throughout Irwin underscores the centrality of women their friendships and their personal and professional lives and experiences to the television romantic comedy genre demonstrating that it is prominence of female characters and their interests and concerns which have most significantly affected the genre's thematic focus Crucially this thematic approach allows for explorations both of similarities in representations to be found in series decades apart and the way in which such representations ebb and flow across time Additionally the international nature of the comedies selected also makes possible comparison beyond national boundaries

Soviet Space Culture E. Maurer, J. Richers, M. Rütters, C. Scheide, 2011-08-16 Starting with the first man made satellite Sputnik in 1957 and culminating four years later with the first human in space Yuri Gagarin space became a new utopian horizon This book explores the profound repercussions of the Soviet space exploration program on culture and everyday life in Eastern Europe especially in the Soviet Union itself
