African Youth in Contemporary Literature and Popular Culture Vivian Yenika-Agbaw,Lindah Mhando,2014-01-21

This book explores how African youth are depicted in contemporary literature and popular culture and discusses the different ways by which they attempt to construct personal and cultural identities through popular culture and social media outlets The contributors approach the subject from an interdisciplinary perspective looking at images in children s and adolescent literature from Africa and the African diaspora from Nollywood and Hollywood movies from popular magazines and from youth cultures encountered directly through field experiences The findings reveal that there are many stereotypes about Africa African youth and black cultures and that African youth are aware of these Since they juggle multiple identities shaped by their ethnicities race and religion it is often a challenge for them to define themselves As they also share a global youth culture that transcends these cultural markers some take advantage of media outlets to voice their concerns and participate in political struggles Others simply use these to promote their personal interests Contributors ponder the challenges involved in constructing unique identities offering ideas on how African youth are doing so successfully or not in different parts of the continent and the African diaspora and thus offer new possibilities for youth studies On the Shoulders of Giants Steven T.

Bickmore,Shanetia P. Clark,2019-12-30 This first book in a three volume series celebrates and examines the work of four African American authors of young adult literature They are Virginia Hamilton Julius Lester Walter Dean Myers and Mildred D Taylor they serve as the foundation of young adult literature and provide robust stories that center and illuminate African American youth In addition this volume also examines the role of the Coretta Scott King Award in promoting access and visibility to authors and illustrators who shine a spotlight on African American youth and society The chapter authors librarians and established and emerging scholars in the field of young adult literature survey the work of Hamilton Lester Myers or Taylor their accolades and how audiences initially responded to their work Each chapter highlights a single work and discusses how it might be taught providing pre during and post reading activities or in some cases individual small group or whole class activities This volume is a resource for classroom teachers teacher educators reading specialists librarians and other educators who study research and read young adult literature This first volume supplements studies in the foundations of African American authors of young adult literature and explorations of critical works by these authors Developing Trauma-Informed Teachers Ofelia Schepers, Megan Brennan, Philip E. Bernhardt, 2023-01-01 The vision and development of this edited text are driven by a deep desire to ensure that teacher candidates are thoughtfully prepared to more fully address students needs and create classroom environments that are safe for students and teachers Specifically this text will provide an understanding of how educator preparation programs are providing teacher candidates with the knowledge and skills to effectively utilize an asset based approach to foster resiliency skills that support P 12 students who have or are experiencing trauma This text considers how programs are developing equity focused content curriculum pedagogy to ensure teacher candidates can integrate trauma informed practices as well as develop their own resiliency skills This resource highlights important and relevant tools strategies and approaches for preparing future teachers to implement traumainformed practices within their classrooms In recent years much attention and resources focused on preparing teachers to more comprehensively address acknowledge and understand childhood trauma and the impact it has on students lives inside and outside of the classroom This text will be of interest to all those working in institutes of higher education alternative licensure programs and organizations public schools and districts involved with the preparation of teachers and or professional development of in service educators It has the potential to serve as a catalyst for teacher preparation programs to more intentionally integrate trauma informed practices in meaningful ways and contribute to a glaring gap within the literature focused on the systematic ways in which childhood trauma and resiliency development are being addressed in the preparation of teachers Girls' Literacy Experiences in and Out of School Elaine O'Quinn, Elaine J. O'Quinn, 2013 Through thoughtful analysis of girls historical literacy experiences their contemporary reading and writing lives and trends in young adult literature this book sheds new light on how teachers can better understand and create classroom experiences that make girls visible both to themselves and to others Historically the status of girls has evoked much less research than that of boys Recently emerging scholastic and strategic study concerning the vulnerability of girls is adding a vital missing component to this continually emerging discourse Looking at many aspects of girls gendered lives this text considers the specific perspectives of the social and cultural constructions that script gender particularly as they apply to girls in our classrooms Prominent scholars in their respective fields examine the myriad forces that shape the lives of American girls from the earliest didactic records of manuals and books of conduct to current artifacts of contemporary culture By investigating both the scholarly literature on girls as well as the primary sources of a material culture the authors seek to unravel how adolescent girls learn and seek to compose identities By closely examining girls practices in which are embedded issues of class race ethnicity immigrant status and sexuality the text considers some of the values structures and trajectories that have come to define teenage girlhood Its distinctive contribution is to unpack some of the assumptions of girls in English classrooms and to critically examine their experiences as they try to fit preconceived norms while forming their own personhood Provided by publisher

Arts Integration and Young Adult Literature Rebecca Maldonado, 2021-07-15 Arts Integration and Young Adult Literature Strategies to Enhance Academic Skills and Empower Student Voice combines two research based concepts arts integration and the use of young adult literature to provide activities and instructional strategies to boost students communication reading and thinking skills while utilizing a variety of art integrated methods with a diverse range of young adult literature to enable high school literacy teachers to harmonize art and young adult literature into their curriculum

Researching Interpretive Talk Around Literary Narrative Texts John Gordon, 2020-08-25 Drawing on a multidisciplinary approach integrating insights from conversation analysis narrative analysis and narratology this book theorizes teaching around narrative prose in each level of education with a focus on a new framework of Pedagogic Literary Narration which emphasizes the practice of shared novel reading and the importance of the role of the teacher in mediating this practice With insights taken from a comprehensive set of transcripts taken from actual classrooms the volume focuses on the convention in native tongue literary study in which teachers and students read a novel shared over lessons combining periods of reading aloud with those of questioning and discussion In so doing Gordon seeks to extend existing methodologies from literary and social science research toward informing teaching practice in literary pedagogy and address the need for a theorization of literary pedagogy which considers the interrelationship between text in print and text through talk Transcripts are supported with comprehensive analyses to help further explicate the research methodology and provide guidance on implementing it in the classroom This book is a valuable resource for scholars in language and education literary studies narrative inquiry and education research

Poetry and Pedagogy across the Lifespan Sandra Lee Kleppe, Angela Sorby, 2018-10-08 This book explores poetry and pedagogy in practice across the lifespan Poetry is directly linked to improved literacy creativity personal development emotional intelligence complex analytical thinking and social interaction all skills that are crucial in contemporary educational systems However a narrow focus on STEM subjects at the expense of the humanities has led educators to deprioritize poetry and to overlook its interdisciplinary multi modal potential The editors and contributors argue that poetry is not a luxury but a way to stimulate linguistic experiences that are formally rich and cognitively challenging To learn through poetry is not just to access information differently but also to forge new and different connections that can serve as reflective tools for lifelong learning This interdisciplinary book will be of value to teachers and students of poetry as well as scholars interested in literacy across the disciplines

Words Were All We Had Maria de la Ruz Reyes, 2015-04-17 This engaging collection examines the personal narratives of a select group of well respected educators who attained biliteracy when they were young students and in the era before bilingual education These autobiographical accounts celebrate and make visible a linguistic potential that has been largely ignored in schools the inextricable and emotional ties that Latinos have to Spanish The authors offer teachers important lessons about the individual potential of their Latino students These stories of tenacity and resilience offer hope for a new generation of bilingual learners who are too often forced to choose between English and their native language

Resources in Education ,2001-10 Research in Education ,1969 Handbook of Adolescent Literacy Research
Leila Christenbury,Randy Bomer,Peter Smagorinsky,2011-06-10 The first comprehensive research handbook of its kind this volume showcases innovative approaches to understanding adolescent literacy learning in a variety of settings Distinguished contributors examine how well adolescents are served by current instructional practices and highlight ways to translate research findings more effectively into sound teaching and policymaking The book explores social and cultural factors in adolescents approach to communication and response to instruction and sections address literacy both in and out of schools including literacy expectations in the contemporary workplace Detailed attention is given to issues of diversity and individual differences among learners Winner Literacy Research Association s Fry Book Award Beyond the Five-paragraph Essay
Kimberly Hill Campbell,Kristi Latimer,2012 Love it or hate it the five paragraph essay is perhaps the most frequently taught form of writing in classrooms of yesterday and today But have you ever actually seen five paragraph essays outside of school walls Have you ever found it in business writing journalism nonfiction or any other genres that exist in the real world Kimberly Hill Campbell and Kristi Latimer reviewed the research on the effectiveness of the form as a teaching tool and discovered that the research does not support the five paragraph formula In fact research shows that the formula restricts creativity emphasizes structure rather than content does not improve standardized test scores inadequately prepares students for college writing and results in vapid writing In Beyond the Five Paragraph Essay Kimberly and Kristi show you how to reclaim the literary essay and create a program that encourages thoughtful writing in response to literature They provide numerous strategies that stimulate student thinking value unique insight and encourage lively personal writing including the following Close reading which is the basis for writing about literature Low stakes writing options that support students thinking as they read Collaboration in support of discussion debate and organizational structures that support writing as exploration A focus on students writing process as foundational to content development and structure The use of model texts to write in the form of the literature students are reading and analyzing The goal of reading and writing about literature is to push and challenge our students thinking We want students to know that their writing can convey something important a unique view to share defend prove delight discover and inspire If we want our students to be more engaged skilled writers we need to move beyond the five paragraph essay Time and Space in Literacy Research Catherine Compton-Lilly,Erica Halverson,2014-04-24 Literacy researchers interested in how specific sites of learning situate students and the ways they make sense of their worlds are asking new questions and thinking in new ways about how time and space operate as contextual dimensions in the learning lives of students teachers and families These investigations inform questions related to history identity methodology in school and out of school spaces and local global literacies An engaging blend of methodological theoretical and empirical work featuring well known researchers on the topic this book provides a conceptual framework for extending existing conceptions of context and provides unique and ground breaking examples of empirical research
