Continuities and Decoloniality in the French-Speaking World Sarah Arens, Nicola Frith, Jonathan Lewis, Rebekah Vince, 2024-02-06 This volume pays tribute to the work of Professor Kate Marsh 1974-2019 an outstanding scholar whose research covered an extraordinarily wide range of interests and approaches encompassing the history of empire literature politics and cultural production across the Francophone world from the eighteenth to the twenty first century Each of the chapters within engages with a different aspect of Marsh's interest in French colonialism and the entanglements of its complex afterlives whether it be her interest in the longevity of imperial rivalries loss and colonial nostalgia exoticism and the female body decolonization and the ends of empire the French colonial imagination the policing of racialized bodies or anti colonial activism and resistance As well as reflecting the geographical and intellectual breadth of Marsh's research the volume demonstrates how her work continues to resonate with emerging scholarship around decoloniality transcolonial mobilities and anti colonial resistance in the Francophone world From French India to Algeria and from the Caribbean to contemporary France this collection demonstrates the persistent relevance of Marsh's scholarship to the histories and legacies of empire while opening up conversations about its implications for decolonial approaches to imperial histories and the future of Francophone Postcolonial Studies

The Algerian War in Film Fifty Years Later, 2004-2012 Anne Donadey, 2020-10-07 The Algerian War in Film Fifty Years Later 2004 2012 examines the cultural political and aesthetic significance of narrative films made during the fiftieth anniversary period of the war between 2004 and 2012 This period was a fruitful one in which film became a central medium generating varied representations of the war and Anne Donadey argues that the fiftieth anniversary film production contributed to France's move from a period of the return of the repressed to one of difficult anamnesis Donadey provides a close analysis of twenty narrative films made during this period on both side of the Mediterranean observing that while some films continue to center on the point of view of only one stake holding group a number of films open up new opportunities for multicultural French audiences to envision the war through the eyes of Algerian characters on screen and other films bring memories from various groups together in thoughtful articulations that represent the complexity of the situation Donadey takes this analysis a step further to analyze what types of gendered representations emerge in these films given the important participation of Algerian women in the revolutionary war Scholars of Francophone studies film women's studies and history will find this book particularly useful

Using Fiction to Teach Secondary Students about the Middle East Karl Ågerup, 2023-10-31 This book draws on empirical studies of classrooms teaching The Sirens of Baghdad by Yasmina Khadra to demonstrate how novels can effectively help achieve learning objectives related to intercultural understanding and global citizenship By combining theoretical and empirical research the book offers insights into the most effective ways to discuss cross cultural literature with upper secondary students who have grown up in the Western world It outlines how where and why such literature can enhance students understanding of different cultures and make them more globally aware citizens

The Angels Die Yasmina Khadra, 2025-01-07 However successful you may become you will always be just the little Arab from the souk Even as a child living hand to mouth in a ghetto Turambo dreamt of a better future So when his family find a decent home in the city of Oran anything seems possible But colonial Algeria is no place to be ambitious for those of Arab Berber ethnicity Through a succession of menial jobs the constants for Turambo are his rage at the injustice surrounding him and a reliable left hook This last opens the door to a boxing apprenticeship which will ultimately offer Turambo a choice to take his chance at sporting greatness or choose a simpler life beside the woman he loves Award winning author Yasmina Khadra gives us a stunning panorama of life in Algeria between the two world wars in this dramatic story of one man's rise from abject poverty to a life of wealth and adulation

Monuments Decolonized Susan Slyomovics, 2024-07-23 Statuomania overtook Algeria beginning in the nineteenth century as the French affinity for monuments placed thousands of war memorials across the French colony But following Algeria's hard fought independence in 1962 these monuments took on different meaning and some were repatriated to France legally or clandestinely Today in both Algeria and France people are moving and removing vandalizing and preserving this contested yet shared monumental heritage Susan Slyomovics follows the afterlives of French built war memorials in Algeria and those taken to France Drawing on extensive fieldwork in both countries and interviews with French and Algerian heritage actors and artists she analyzes the colonial nostalgia dissonant heritage and ongoing decolonization and iconoclasm of these works of art Monuments emerge here as objects with a soul offering visual records of the colonized Algerian native the European settler colonizer and the contemporary efforts to engage with a dark colonial past Richly illustrated with more than 100 color images Monuments Decolonized offers a fresh aesthetic take on the increasingly global move to fell monuments that celebrate settler colonial histories The Oxford Handbook of Arab Novelistic Traditions Wail S.

Hassan,2017 The Oxford Handbook of Arab Novelistic Traditions encompasses the genesis of the Arabic novel in the second half of the nineteenth century and its development to the present in every Arab country as well as Arab immigrant writing in many languages around the world Oxford Case Histories in Geriatric Medicine Sanja Thompson,Nicola Lovett,Sarah T.

Pendlebury,John Grimley Evans,2016 This new addition to the Oxford Case Histories series is a specialty based collection of geratology cases Based around the specialist training curriculum for geriatrics Oxford Case Histories in Geriatric Medicine covers the presentation management and treatment of illness in older people and relevant social and ethical issues

French-Language Comics Jennifer Howell,2015-10-08 The decolonization of Algeria represents a turning point in world history marking the end of France s colonial empire the birth of the Algerian republic and the appearance of the Third World and pan Arabism Algeria emerged from colonial domination to negotiate the release of American hostages in Iran during the Carter administration Radical Islam would later rise from the ashes of Algeria s failed democracy leading to a civil war and the training of Algerian terrorists in Afghanistan Moreover the decolonization of Algeria offered an imperfect model of decolonization to other nations like South Africa that succeeded in abolishing apartheid while retaining its white settler population Algeria and its war of national liberation therefore constitute an inescapable reference for those looking to understand today s war on terror and ever expanding islamophobia in Western media circuits Consequently it is imperative that students and educators understand the global implications of the Algerian War and how to best approach this conflict in school and at home so as to learn from the consequences of misrepresentation at all levels of the memory transmission chain These objectives are all the more important today given the West s misunderstanding and mischaracterization of Islam the Arab Spring the Muslim majority world and most importantly the continuing influence of French colonialism especially in the postcolonial era Conceived as a case study The Algerian War in French Language Comics Postcolonial Memory History and Subjectivity argues that comics provide an alternative to textbook representations of the Algerian War in France because they draw from many of the same source materials yet produce narratives that are significantly different This book demonstrates that although comics rely on conventional vectors of memory transmission like national education the family and mainstream media they can also create new and productive dialogues using these same vectors in ways unavailable to traditional textbooks From this perspective these comics are an effective and alternative way to develop a more inclusive social consciousness

The Young Knight and His Metal Steed A.I.V. Esguerra,2022-10-12 A seemingly simple protection job alerts the existence of a shadowy conspiracy The year is 2030 The world is divided into supernational unions yet they don t control all nation states inviting an acceptable quantity of wars for mercenaries to find This was the result of an alien ship crashing into the Democratic Republic of Afghanistan in the year 1985 with the supernational unions born from a world war from 1989 to 1991 that saw the use of nuclear weapons The mercenary group Iron Dutchman Services after another pay cut due to the damage wrought from their last job takes up a job offer from the Foreign Intelligence Service of the New United Nations to go to Japan to secretly protect Maria Hoshikawa a teenage corporate heiress One member Tarou Ganji seventeen years old uses this job as an opportunity to figure out his past as Maria has a similar upbringing growing up in a country with different physical features from its inhabitants The risk comes in acting like a normal teenager something Tarou never learned to do as he learned how to use a gun at the age of ten However shadowy forces intend on using Maria for their own ends They employ a man that made Tarou what he is today to kidnap her having him work with the OVR foreign intelligence agency of the Eurasian Tsardom This will complicate Tarou s mission as many now have an interest with a teenage girl putting the fate of the world at risk

Fear and Faith in Paradise Phil Karber, 2012-06-18 From life along the Tigris River in the 1970s to the ongoing Arab Spring uprisings Phil Karber has witnessed decades of change throughout the Middle East Fear and Faith in Paradise draws on his wealth of experience to sketch a timely and compelling portrait of the region throughout history Going beyond the endless images of terrorism and war he challenges pervasive stereotypes of Muslims and delves into the living history and cultures of Arabs Turks Kurds Persians Jews Tunisians Moroccans Armenians and others Seamlessly moving between past and present Karber skillfully develops two overarching themes How America's footprint can be shifted from a military to a humanitarian emphasis and how fear is used as a cudgel by today's monotheistic leaders to sacrifice the faithful Whether Christian Muslim or Jewish they all invoke their own vision of paradise often as incentive in hopeless conflicts that seem doomed to be repeated Karber's down to earth writing vividly conveys the region's charm and beauty against a backdrop of power struggles among competing faiths nationalisms and outside forces
