When Can I Apply For Nsfas For 2015:

Rebels and Rage Adam Habib, 2019-03-01 Adam Habib the most prominent and outspoken university official through the recent student protests takes a characteristically frank view of the past three years on South Africa's campuses in this new book Habib charts the progress of the student protests that erupted on Wits University campus in late 2015 and raged for the better part of three years drawing on his own intimate involvement and negotiation with the students and also records university management and government responses to the events He critically examines the student movement and individual student leaders who emerged under the banners feesmustfall and Rhodesmustfall and debates how to achieve truly progressive social change in South Africa on our campuses and off This book is both an attempt at a historical account and a thoughtful reflection on the issues the protests kicked up from the perspective not only of a high ranking member of university management but also Habib as political scientist with a background as an activist during the struggle against apartheid Habib moves between reflecting on the events of the last three years on university campuses and reimagining the future of South African higher education

Higher Education, 2023-11-02 COVID wrought havoc on the world's economic systems Higher education did not escape the ravages brought on by the pandemic as institutions of higher education around the world faced major upheavals in their educational delivery systems Some institutions were prepared for the required transition to online learning Most were not Whether prepared or not educators rose to the challenge The innovativeness of educators met the challenges as digital learning replaced the face to face environment In fact some of the distance models proved so engaging that many students no longer desire a return to the face to face model As with all transitions some things were lost while others were gained This book examines practice in the field as institutions struggled to face the worst global pandemic in the last century The book is organized into four sections on Perils and Promises The State of Online Education Goals and Challenges of Online Learning and Innovations in the Age of COVID It presents various perspectives from educators around the world to illustrate the struggles and triumphs of those facing new challenges and implementing new ideas to empower the educational process These discussions shed light on the impact of the pandemic and the future of higher education post COVID Higher education has been forever changed and higher education as it once was may never return While many questions arise the achievements in meeting and overcoming the pandemic illustrate the creativity and innovativeness of educators around the world who inspired future generations of learners to reach new heights of accomplishment even in the face of the pandemic

Utilisation of South African Research on Higher Education Jan Botha ,Gabriele Vilyte ,2021-10-26 The relationship between research on the one hand and policy practice on the other hand is complicated and collaboration between scholars in research on higher education RHE and institutional research IR practitioners is often lacking This book marks a collaborative effort of a diverse range of South African RHE and IR scholars and asks the overarching questions What do we know about the utilisation of South African research on higher education SARHE and its subset of research known as Institutional Research How and by whom is this research used The book begins by looking at the historical underpinnings of SARHE and delineating the shape and size of this body of research This is followed by a series of case studies on South African Higher Education institutions and governmental bodies investigating how when and by whom are research on higher education and institutional research used in the decision making of these organisations This book is the first of its kind in South Africa and sets out to lay the groundwork for further research into the use uptake and utilisation of RHE and IR in this country

Women, Economic Development, and Higher Education Diane E. Eynon,2017-06-19 This book is a multi disciplinary exploration of the intersection relationship and connection between higher education economic development and gender in post Apartheid South Africa In just twenty years South Africa has rewritten its constitution restructured its macroeconomic growth and development policies restructured its higher education system and made a commitment to provide opportunity for all its citizens specifically those who have historically been marginalized women and blacks Eynon weaves together these unique perspectives to illustrate how these multiple domains map onto women and the critical role they play in the present and future of the country Gender equality and women s empowerment and education were considered key drivers to South Africa s transformation

Low-Income Students, Human Development and Higher Education in South Africa Melanie Walker,Monica McLean,2022-07-15 This book explores learning outcomes for low income rural and township youth at five South African universities The book is framed as a contribution to southern and Africa centred scholarship adapting Amartya Sen s capability approach and a framework of key concepts capabilities functionings context conversion factors poverty and agency to investigate opportunities and obstacles to achieved student outcomes This approach allows a reimagining of inclusive learning outcomes to encompass the multi dimensional value of a university education and a plurality of valued cognitive and non cognitive outcomes for students from low income backgrounds whose experiences are strongly shaped by hardship Based on capability theorising and student voices the book proposes for policy and practice a set of contextual higher education capability domains and corresponding functionings orientated to more justice and more equality for each person to have the opportunities to be and to do what they have reason to value The book concludes that sufficient material resources are necessary to get into university and flourish while there the benefits of a university education should be rich and multi dimensional so that they can result in functionings in all areas of life as well as work and future study the inequalities and exclusion of the labour market and pathways to further study must be addressed by wider economic and social policies for inclusive learning outcomes to be meaningful and that universities ought to be doing more to enable black working class students to participate and succeed Low Income Students Human Development and Higher Education in South Africa makes an original contribution to capability scholarship conceptually in theorising a South based multi dimensional student well being higher education matrix and a rich reconceptualisation of learning outcomes as well as empirically by conducting rigorous longitudinal in depth mixed methods research on students lives and experiences in higher education in South Africa The audience for the book includes higher education researchers international capability scholars practitioners and policy makers

Universities, Inclusive Development and Social Innovation Claes Brundenius, Bo Göransson, José Manoel Carvalho de Mello, 2016-10-25 This book examines the ways in which universities can play a crucial role in inclusive development social innovation and social entrepreneurship It aims to prove the importance of inclusive development and inclusive innovation on economic growth and demonstrate the ways in which universities can be pioneers in this area through initiatives in social responsibility and social innovation For example providing access to a university education without discrimination of race gender income status or other factors would help to diminish the increasing income differentials currently being experienced in many countries especially in the developing world The research and studies included in this book provide insight into possible actions that can be taken by universities and public and private shareholders in inclusive development social innovation social entrepreneurship and overall regional economic and social development Innovation is currently considered to be the most important and dynamic factor explaining growth and development At the same time the traditional view considering innovation as having to be commercialized at any price is being challenged Lately there has been growing interest in innovation in the public sector particularly with respect to social innovations designed to reduce income inequality To address these concepts constant exchange of ideas and information between research groups became necessary UniDev Universities in Development the Evolving Role of Academic Institutions in Innovation Systems and Development is an international research group with researchers in twelve countries interested in the role of universities in development This book features the results of research performed by eleven research groups from UniDev country communities presenting in depth and comparative case studies from universities around the world including Latin America Northern and Eastern Europe and sub Saharan Africa This title will be of interest to students academics researchers and policy makers interested in the role of universities in development social innovation and social entrepreneurship      Governance and the postcolony David Everatt, 2019-08-01 Civil society NGOs governments and multilateral institutions all repeatedly call for improved or good governance yet they seem to speak past one another Governance is in danger of losing all meaning precisely because it means many things to different people in varied locations This is especially true in sub Saharan Africa Here the postcolony takes many forms reflecting the imperial project with painful accuracy Offering a set of multidisciplinary analyses of governance in different sectors crisis management water food security universities in different locales across sub Saharan Africa and from different theoretical approaches network to adversarial network governance this volume makes a useful addition to the growing debates on how to govern It steers away from offering a correct definition of governance or from promoting a particular position on postcoloniality It gives no neat conclusion but invites readers to draw their own conclusions based on these differing approaches to and analyses of governance in the postcolony As a robust critical assessment of power and accountability in the sub Saharan context Governance and the Postcolony Views from Africa brings together topical case studies that will be a valuable resource for those working in the field of African international relations public policy public management and administration      Transnational Education and Curriculum Studies John Chi-Kin Lee, Noel Gough, 2020-07-28 In recent years there has been increasing attention placed on international and transnational aspects of school and higher education curricula and the different research approaches and lenses through which these issues are studied This edited volume explores diverse perspectives and discourses of curriculum studies contributed by scholars both within and outside the majority world In addition it tackles both transnational cross border endeavours involving national governments and policy measures and the promises challenges and failings of those formal relationships The book consists of three sections The first section provides an introduction and overviews of transnational education in connection with curriculum studies schooling and higher education The second section deals with transnational and international perspectives on curriculum studies schooling and education The final third section highlights transnational and international perspectives on higher education This timely volume tackles the questions often posed by curriculum scholars and educational researchers around the possibility of a transnational approach to curriculum studies and how and if a common set of means can transcend national boundaries and sensitivities It looks at the common issues and problems across nations that international and transnational curriculum and educational research work could address This volume will appeal to researchers and policy makers interested in transnational education and curriculum studies      Faculty Perspectives on Vocational Training in South Africa Eunice Ivala, Chaunda Scott, 2019-03-06 The Cape Peninsula University of Technology CPUT is one of four Universities of Technology established by the South African government in 2005 with a focus on vocational training This book presents faculty experiences of CPUT's innovative work integrated learning and teaching model as well as findings from practice based research being done in the institution The purpose of this volume is to be a resource for other institutions in South Africa that wish to try similar strategies as well as a to trigger a community of practice with vocationally oriented institutions outside of South Africa

Fees Must Fall Susan Booysen, 2016-10-01 This book explores the student discontent a year after the start of the 2015 South African FeesMustFall revolt FeesMustFall the student revolt that began in October 2015 was an uprising against lack of access to and financial exclusion from higher education in South Africa More broadly it radically questioned the socio political dispensation resulting from the 1994 social pact between big business the ruling elite and the liberation movement The 2015 revolt links to national and international youth struggles of the recent past and is informed by black consciousness politics and social movements of the international left Yet its objectives are more complex than those of earlier struggles The student movement has challenged the hierarchical top down leadership system of university management and it s double speak of professing to act in workers and students interests yet entrenching a regressive system for control and governance University managements while on one level amenable to change have also co opted students into their ranks to create co responsibility for the highly bureaucratised university financial aid that stands in the way of their social revolution This book maps the contours of student discontent a year after the start of the FeesMustFall revolt Student voices dissect colonialism improper compromises by the founders of democratic South Africa feminism worker rights and meaningful education In depth assessments by prominent scholars reflect on the complexities of student activism its impact on national and university governance and offer provocative analyses of the power of the revolt

Reflections of South African Student Leaders: 1994 to 2017 Ntokozo Bhengu, Denyse Webbstock, 2020-05-13 Reflections of South African Student Leaders 1994 2017 brings together the reflections of twelve former SRC leaders from across the landscape of South African universities Reviews of the previous volume 1981 2014 suggested that it contributed significantly to a better understanding of the stringent demands of visionary and transformative leadership required by university leaders in the fastchanging and increasingly complex public higher education sector This volume is based on comprehensive interviews with former student leaders each of whom provided a personal account in their own words of their experience in the position of student leadership The interviewees are from different backgrounds and of diverse political persuasions The book is important for current and future leaders of higher education institutions as it provides insights into the thinking aspirations desires fears and modus operandi of student leaders Such insight can contribute to developing and implementing appropriate strategies for achieving meaningful and constructive engagement with current and future student leaders

Transforming Universities in South Africa, 2020-08-31 The idea of transformation in higher education underpins all policy documents academic literature and on going debates in South Africa Transforming Universities in South Africa Pathways to Higher Education Reform responds to the pressing need to comprehensively review the post apartheid experience and assess where South Africa s higher education stands across the continent and globally particularly within the country s efforts to overcome decades of socio economic imbalances It addresses the question of whether South Africa s transformation strategy from apartheid to democracy was simply a symbolic new flag raising and new anthem singing exercise reflecting a transition akin to those limited decolonization projects elsewhere in the world or whether something more fundamental was possible and was achieved with political and policy implications for other countries in Africa and globally This volume s ultimate purpose is to provide a basis for imagining new futures in which South Africa higher education in the context of Africa and the global world takes centre stage

Student Movements in Late Neoliberalism Lorenzo Cini,Donatella della Porta,César Guzmán-Concha,2021-08-22 This book inquires into the global wave of student mobilizations that have arisen in the aftermath of the economic crisis of 2008 accounting for their historical and sociological significance More specifically its eleven chapters explore the role of students as political actors their ability to build effective organizations to make political alliances with other actors and to win public consensus as well as their impact on cultural political and policy outcomes To do so the volume examines case studies in England Chile South Africa Quebec and Hong Kong covering Europe Africa Asia and North and Latin America Grouped into two major sections the collection covers the organizational structures of student movements and their alliances and outcomes Ultimately this volume examines the understudied political aspects of student unrest exploring how student mobilizations driven by indebtedness precariousness the corporatization of the university and other issues correspond to larger processes of change with wider implications in society

Social Justice and Education in the 21st Century Willie Pearson Jr.,Vijay Reddy,2021-04-10 The world is not an equal place There are high and low income countries and high and low income households For each group there are differential educational opportunities leading to differential educational outcomes and differential labor market opportunities This pattern often reproduces the privileges and inequalities of groups in a society This book explores this differentiation in education from a social justice lens Comparing the United States and South Africa this book analyzes each country s developmental thinking on education from human capital and human rights approaches in both primary and higher education The enclosed contributions draw from different disciplines including legal studies sociology psychology computer science and public policy

Regime and Education in Zimbabwe Bekithemba Dube,Albert Mufanechiya,2024-06-10 This collection focuses on the post independence educational development in Zimbabwe It shows how the ZANU PF regime has presided over the demise of education and covers a wide range of topics such as violence against teachers poor salaries student activism minority languages and curriculum innovations This volume argues that the regime has used education as a tool for repression Curriculum innovations introduced and implemented in Zimbabwe have little to do with improving the performance of the learners and more to do with stopping teachers from pushing the regime change agenda Consequently this has resulted in a nation in crisis marked with high turnover poor economy and mass exodus of teachers and learners The contributors to this volume make various suggestions which could recenter education towards addressing the experiences of the learners as opposed to being used as a tool to push repression and thwart democracy

The Formation of Intellectual Capital and Its Ability to Transform Higher Education Institutions and the Knowledge Society Cardoso Espinosa, Edgar Oliver, 2019-06-28 The knowledge society arises from the combination of four interdependent elements the production of knowledge through research its transmission through education its dissemination through information and communication technologies and its exploitation through innovation For this reason higher education institutions HEIs are the main component of the formation of intellectual capital because they are the key element of the knowledge society so it is necessary that they continue to be the main source of the necessary skills that allow the increase of economic competitiveness sustainability and citizen welfare within the framework of quality education and equity The Formation of Intellectual Capital and Its Ability to Transform Higher Education Institutions and the Knowledge Society is an essential research publication that provides systemic research on the formation of intellectual capital in higher education and its impact on the knowledge society Highlighting topics such as educational programs management strategy and educational studies this book is meant for educators educational technologists students researchers professionals and administrators
