Restoring the Educational Dream. Rethinking Educational Transformation in Zimbabwe Shizha, Edward, 2013-12-07 The role of education in human well being and social development cannot be overestimated After a number of highly commendable policies on education in the first decade of independence the education system in Zimbabwe has taken a tumble that needs both examining and rectifying This volume analyses the challenges facing the education system in Zimbabwe and explores and scrutinises theoretical and practical possibilities for restoring the educational dream that was initiated at independence in 1980 The book is targeted at academics scholars college and university students policy makers and other stakeholders and advocates a multi pronged approach that must involve all stakeholders if educational retransformation reconstruction and restoration are to be achieved The authors provide a range of recommendations for a project that would restore the educational dream in Zimbabwe

International Handbook of Leadership for Learning Tony Townsend, John MacBeath, 2011-07-10 The International Handbook of Leadership for Learning brings together chapters by distinguished authors from thirty one countries in nine different regions of the world The handbook contains nine sections that provide regional overviews a consideration of theoretical and contextual aspects system and policy approaches that promote leadership for learning with a focus on educating school leaders for learning and the role of the leader in supporting learning It also considers the challenge of educating current leaders for this new perspective and how leaders themselves can develop leadership for learning in others and in their organisations especially in diverse contexts and situations The final chapter considers what we now know about leadership for learning and looks at ways this might be further improved in the future The book provides the reader with an understanding of the rich contextual nature of learning in schools and the role of school leaders and leadership development in promoting this It concludes that the preposition for between the two readily known and understood terms of leadership and learning changes everything as it foregrounds learning and complexifies rather than simplifies what that word may mean Whereas common terms such as instructional leadership reduce learning to outcomes leadership for learning embraces a much wider developmental view of learning

Transformative Curricula, Pedagogies and Epistemologies, 2021-08-04 This book presents useful insights on the regeneration of curricula and pedagogies with a particular focus on universities in South Africa and Africa in general Transformative Curricula Pedagogies and Epistemologies Teaching and Learning in Diverse Higher Education Contexts further explores the state of teaching and learning in different contexts together with the emerging challenges and responsibilities that African higher education in the twenty first century is faced with The analysis is put in light of the assumptions borrowed from the West for Western epistemologies and pedagogies are still dominant Instead the book presents a case on the need for rethinking pedagogies and epistemologies within African higher education that include African culture values ethics and indigenous knowledge The new obligations of inclusive education decolonisation transformation and academic and professional experiences are of paramount importance for contemporary higher education Valuable ideas about practices and policies in epistemological and pedagogical transformative mechanisms are discussed which can be used to inform a decolonised teaching and learning curriculum most suitable for an African higher education system Above all the book goes beyond mere narratives as it explores decolonisation strategies suitable for transforming pedagogical and epistemological practices that include the education system as a whole

State Fragility and State Building in Africa Dele Olowu, Paulos Chanie, 2015-10-19 This book describes the contrast between the strong economic growth and democratization that have occurred in Africa and its stalling political progress It presents and discusses fragility as the phenomenon that has caused the state to remain weak and faltering and has led to at least one third of the continent's citizens living in fragile states Following the examination of the drivers of fragility and the impact of fragility on citizens and neighbouring states the book discusses capacity building approaches This part shows how effective states can be built on the African continent a process that would result in a change from state fragility to state resilience It is based on lessons learnt from close studies of the nations where the state has been most developed in the region in Eastern and Southern Africa The book provides and responds to the most recent and up to date information on African development and uses insights of people who have lived and worked in the continent for most of their lives

The Palgrave Handbook of History and Social Studies Education Christopher W. Berg, Theodore M. Christou, 2020-04-03 This Handbook presents an international collection of essays examining history education past and present Framing recent curriculum reforms in Canada and in the United States in light of a century long debate between the relationship between theory and practice this collection contextualizes the debate by exploring the evolution of history and social studies education within their state or national contexts With contributions ranging from Canada Finland New Zealand Sweden the Netherlands the Republic of South Africa the United Kingdom and the United States chapters illuminate the ways in which curriculum theorists and academic researchers are working with curriculum developers and educators to translate and refine notions of historical thinking or inquiry as well as pedagogical practice

Covid-19 and the Dialectics of Global Pandemics in Africa Munyaradzi Mawere, Bernard Chazovachii, 2021-10-01 The prevalence of global pandemics has been timeless and universal In 1918 the Spanish Flue grounded Spain and her neighbours In 1997 2014 and 2020 the Ebola virus wreaked havoc in West Africa in the same manner that polio had ravaged the globe Since 2019 the Coronavirus has forced most economies onto a downward spiral Despite concerted global attempts at observing World Health Organization guidelines the Coronavirus has been changing peoples lives forcing most economies onto their knees endangering lives and livelihoods making a mockery of global medicine and causing the widespread despair and helplessness that has come to be known as the new normal Unlike the other pandemics the mayhem complexities and dialectics caused by Covid 19 have been matchless requiring a systematic study and necessitating a volume like this one The volume s 16 well researched chapters argue that despite Covid 19 s enormous lessons and predictions about even greater future pandemics humanity can ill afford to relent in its determination to conquer the pandemic in the same way that human resolve has defeated past pandemic As such the volume provides hope and direction to the global community on how best to deal with Covid 19 and pandemics of similar or even higher magnitude in the future
