When Is The Registration Date Of Fet Colleges 2015:

Change Management in TVET Colleges Kraak, Andre, Paterson, Andrew, 2016-07-25 The Technical and Vocational Education and Training TVET college environment is marked by increasingly stark juxtapositions between what needs to be achieved in the post school education sector and the increasing difficulty of current conditions The triple challenge of poverty inequality and unemployment weighs heavily on the social political and economic fabric of the country and expectations are high that the TVET colleges can make a pivotal contribution to counter these challenges Despite laudable increases in TVET enrolment the education system needs to work harder to accommodate the weight of demand for post school further education and training FET band qualifications from young people not in education employment or training At the same time it is vital to secure adequate quality in TVET programmes which depend so much on the competence and commitment of college lecturers This collection offers a set of research papers that provide new analytic and empirical material on The political economy of TVET types in different countries which by comparison illuminate the South African case A periodisation of government interventions in the TVET sector over the last three decades The unsettled state and status of TVET lecturers in relation to their job requirements and conditions of service The halting evolution of collegial relationships between college lecturers towards higher collegiality Employer expectations of college graduates and how colleges are responding and An analysis of the outcomes of a college improvement intervention in Limpopo and the Eastern Cape This book will offer valuable information and insights for decision makers as well as analysts of institutional change concerning links between education and economic growth with particular regard to TVET graduates employment rates Commerce America, 1978-02-27 New Jersey Register, 2016 CMOS and Beyond Tsu-Jae King Liu, Kelin Kuhn, 2015-02-05 Get up to speed with the future of logic switch design with this indispensable introduction to post CMOS technologies Dictatorship and the Electoral Vote Carlos Domper Lasus, 2020-01-02 Why do dictatorships have elections Dictatorship and the Electoral Vote analyses the role of elections in two dictatorships that were born in the Era of Fascism but survived up to the 1970s the Portuguese New State and Francoism A comparative study of the electoral vote held by both dictatorships is revealing at many organizational and structural levels The multiple political interactions involved in elections worldwide have been subject to social science scrutiny but rarely encompass historical context The analysis of the electoral vote held by Iberian dictatorships is uniquely placed to link the two The issues to hand include drawing of electoral rolls evolution of the number of people allowed to vote candidate selection processes propaganda methods impact on the institutional structure of the regime the socio political biographies of the candidates the electoral turnout and final tally relationship between the central and peripheral authorities of the state and the viewpoint of regime authorities on the holding of elections Comparative analysis of all these issues enables a better understanding of the political nature of these dictatorships as well as a comprehensive explanation of the historical roots and evolution of the elections these dictatorship held since 1945 Based on primary archival documents some of them never previously accessed the book offers a detailed explanation of how these dictatorships used elections to consolidate their political authority and provides a historical approach that allows placing both countries in the framework of European electoral history and in the history of the political evolution of Iberian dictatorships between the Axis defeat and their breakdown in the mid seventies Assisted Reproductive Technology Surveillance Dmitry M. Kissin,G. David Adamson,Georgina Chambers,Christian De Geyter,2019-07-04 Offers a comprehensive guide to assisted reproductive technology surveillance describing its history global variations and best practices Gender from Latin to Romance Michele Loporcaro,2018 This book explores grammatical gender in the Romance languages and dialects and its evolution from Latin Michele Loporcaro investigates the significant diversity found in the Romance varieties in this regard he draws on data from the Middle Ages to the present from all the Romance languages and dialects discussing examples from Romanian to Portuguese and crucially also focusing on less widely studied varieties such as Sursilvan Neapolitan and Asturian The investigation first reveals that several varieties display more complex systems than the binary masculine feminine contrast familiar from modern French or Italian Moreover it emerges that traditional accounts whereby neuter gender was lost in the spoken Latin of the late Empire cannot be correct instead the neuter gender underwent a range of different transformations from Late Latin onwards which are responsible for the different systems that can be observed today across the Romance languages The volume provides a detailed description of many of these systems which in turns reveals a wealth of fascinating data such as varieties where husbands are feminine and others where wives are masculine dialects in which nouns overtly mark gender but only in certain syntactic contexts and one Romance variety Asturian in which it appears that grammatical gender has split into two concurrent systems The volume will appeal to linguists from a range of backgrounds including Romance linguistics historical linguistics typology and morphosyntax and is also of relevance to those working in sociology gender studies and psychology Balancing the Protection of Foreign Investors and States Responses in the Post-Pandemic World Yulia Levashova,Pascale Accaoui Lorfing,2022-05-11 The COVID 19 pandemic has brought the debate on reform of the international investment agreement regime to the fore with renewed force In this important and timely book top professionals in the field collectively offer an in depth investigation of the measures that States have taken or failed to take to deal with the pandemic s consequences and whether these actions or inactions can be construed as investment arbitration risks In an extensive overview of the impact of COVID 19 on States and investors including perspectives from UNCTAD the European Union the United States Russia India South Korea and the African Union this comprehensive guide on State defences and investor protection mechanisms tackles such aspects of the debate as the following as affected by the pandemic treatment of investors in times of pandemic and in the post pandemic world sufficient contribution to the economic development of the host State disparities in bargaining power and use of pandemic power to accord preferential treatment The final part of the book is dedicated to analysing case studies from around the world in the context of the pandemic and investor State disputes Understanding the way public health emergencies can shape international investment law is key to building a sustainable stable investment environment As the first detailed study of the post pandemic development of investment law this matchless collection takes a giant step toward reconciling the interests of foreign investors and sovereign States at various stages of economic development With practical recommendations for both States and investors it will be of immeasurable assistance to practitioners policymakers and academics in anticipating and dealing not only with COVID related measures but also with similar future contingencies

Neoliberalism in the Emerging Economy of India Byasdeb Dasgupta,Archita Ghosh,Bishakha Ghosh,2021-07-07

Neoliberal economic reforms over the last four decades have altered the economic cartography of emerging market economies such as India particularly in the context of international trade investment and finance and in terms of their effects on the real economy This book examines the issues of financialization investment climate and the impact of trade liberalization By analysing these three features of neoliberal reform the book is unique since it accommodates both a mainstream neoclassical approach and a non mainstream political economy approach The major questions answered by this book cover three basic lines of enquiry pertaining to neoliberal reforms They are a how financialization as a new process affects the real economic health of emerging market economies characterized by globalization b how the changing form of international trade in the new regime impacts upon the informal economy and employment and trade potential in the home country and c how global investment has shaped the real economy in emerging countries like India The book will be extremely useful for postgraduate students of international economics particularly development economics and political economy including researchers with a keen interest in India

Wright, Marianne Høyen, 2020-07-03 What are the influences that govern how people view their worlds What are the embedded values and practices that underpin the ways people think and act Discourses We Live By approaches these questions through narrative research in a process that uses words images activities or artefacts to ask people either individually or collectively within social groupings to examine discuss portray or otherwise make public their place in the world their sense of belonging to and identity within the physical and cultural space they inhabit This book is a rich and multifaceted collection of twenty eight chapters that use varied lenses to examine the discourses that shape people's lives The contributors are themselves from many backgrounds different academic disciplines within the humanities and social sciences diverse professional practices and a range of countries and cultures They represent a broad spectrum of age status and outlook and variously apply their research methods but share a common interest in people their lives thoughts and actions Gathering such eclectic experiences as those of student teachers in Kenya a released prisoner in Denmark academics in Colombia a group of migrants learning English and gambling addiction support workers in Italy alongside more mainstream educational themes the book presents a fascinating array of insights Discourses We Live By will be essential reading for adult educators and practitioners those involved with educational and professional practice narrative researchers and many sociologists It will appeal to all who want to know how narratives shape the way we live and the way we talk about our lives

Daily Graphic I.K. Nkrumah, 1976-02-18 Education in a New South Africa Robert J. Balfour, 2015-09-24 A collaborative series with the University of Cambridge Faculty of Education highlighting leading edge research across Teacher Education International Education Reform and Language Education

Being a Teacher in Post-Apartheid South Africa Yusuf Sayed, Marcina Singh, 2025-05-01 In a compelling exploration of the challenges faced by newly qualified teachers NQTs in South Africa's evolving educational landscape this book provides an empirically grounded account of their experiences Drawing on extensive research it offers a poignant narrative that seeks to illuminate the nuanced journey these educators embark upon as they transition from teacher education spaces to the complex reality of classrooms in post Apartheid South Africa The book acts as a crucial platform for the voices of NQTs shedding light on the myriad enablers and disablers they encounter during this transformative period Timely and relevant it tackles pressing questions about the readiness of teacher education to prepare students for the demands of South African schools The book charts the transition from teacher education to active teacher for NQTs The lessons distilled from this research present a clarion call for a re assessment of teacher education policies and practices This book arrives at a pivotal moment as South Africa reviews its teacher education policies With the quality of initial teacher education programmes under scrutiny the book s critiques findings and recommendations serve as indispensable tools for policymakers arguing for the need to reconceptualise South African teacher education policies As South Africa strives to avoid a cycle of developing new teachers only to lose them due to inadequate support this book seeks to support educators policymakers and all those invested in the future of South African education toward creating a more socially just education system recognising the highly unequal society in which teachers work
