

¹⁰ "What if we don't know," Black Revolution, 7.

¹¹ "Racial Politics: Politics that affects the Negro," 1950, in getting to the point, part one, a series of six lectures from the country 1950-1951, in the 12 years and a half I spent there that produced the White. (Quoting from a journal that I personally reviewed just after the White came out, 1956.)

Figure 1. A schematic diagram of the experimental design. The subjects were divided into two groups: the control group and the experimental group. The control group received a standard training program, while the experimental group received a modified training program. The experimental group was further divided into two subgroups: the low-intensity group and the high-intensity group. The low-intensity group received a low-intensity training program, while the high-intensity group received a high-intensity training program. The subjects were then subjected to a series of tests to measure their performance and physiological responses.
