Home and School Reading and Study Guides ,1996 Rural Tourism Katherine Dashper,2015-01-12 Rural regions are experiencing fundamental challenges to their ways of life and social fabric as traditional land based occupations are in decline and younger and better educated rural residents migrate to cities for greater work social and cultural opportunities Rural tourism offers a possible solution to the problems associated with lost economic opportunities and population decline that accompany the waning of agriculture Many governments and regional authorities have embraced rural tourism as an opportunity to bring new money into rural regions stimulating growth providing employment opportunities and thus beginning to halt rural decline However the possibilities of rural tourism to promote rural regeneration have been criticised for being over stated and unrealistic Rural tourism has frequently been found to under deliver in terms of expected economic benefits and job creation and may sometimes exacerbate local hierarchies and inequalities This edited collection questions the contribution tourism can and does make to rural regions Drawing on a range of geographically diverse research driven case studies the book is thematically organised to explore a variety of issues relevant to rural tourism from the perspectives of local communities businesses government policy makers and the tourists themselves The Rough Guide to New Zealand Laura Harper,Paul Whitfield,Tony Mudd,Catherine Le Nevez,2012-01-01 The new Rough Guide to New Zealand is the definitive guide to the world s adventure capital Now in full colour throughout it contains dozens of tempting colour photos illustrating the country s iconic landmarks and its stupendously diverse scenery Detailed accounts of every attraction along with crystal clear maps and plans will show you the very best New Zealand has to offer from white sand beaches and vast kauri trees in the north to the hairline fiords and penguin colonies in the south With expert guidance you won t put a foot wrong when experiencing Maori culture or simply striking out on multi day hikes At every point this guide steers you to little known sights such as secluded hot pools or Wellington s best caf s Insider tips planning itineraries and author picks give you the inside scoop on the best accommodation across every price range how to track down Marlborough s tastiest Sauvignon blancs and where the most delectable Maori hangi can be found Make the most of your time with The Rough Guide to New Zealand Teaching Literature to Adolescents Richard Beach,Deborah Appleman,Susan Hynds,Jeffrey Wilhelm,2013-08-21 This text for pre service and in service English education courses presents current methods of teaching literature to middle and high school students The methods are based on social constructivist socio cultural theories of literacy learning and incorporate research on literary response conducted by the authors Teaching Literature to Adolescents a totally new text that draws on ideas from the best selling textbook Teaching Literature in the Secondary School by Beach and Marshall reflects and builds on recent key developments in theory and practice in the field including the importance of providing students with a range of critical lenses for analyzing texts and interrogating the beliefs attitudes and ideological perspectives encountered in literature organization of the literature curriculum around topics themes or issues infusion of multicultural literature and emphasis on how writers portray race class and gender differences use of drama as a tool for enhancing understanding of texts employment of a range of different ways to write about literature integration of critical analysis of film and media texts with the study of literature blending of quality young adult literature into the curriculum and attention to students who have difficulty succeeding in literature classes due to reading difficulties disparities between school and home cultures attitudes toward school English or lack of engagement with assigned texts or response activities The interactive Web site contains recommended readings resources and activities links to Web sites and PowerPoint presentations and opportunities for readers to contribute teaching units to the Web site databases Instructors and students in middle and high school English methods courses will appreciate the clear engaging useful integration of theory methods and pedagogical features offered in this text Directory of World Cinema: Australia and New Zealand Ben Goldsmith, Geoff

Lealand, 2010-12-15 This addition to Intellect's Directory of World Cinema series turns the spotlight on Australia and New Zealand and offers an in depth and exciting look at the cinema produced in these two countries since the turn of the twentieth century Though the two nations share considerable cultural and economic connections their film industries remain distinct marked by differences of scale level of government involvement and funding and relations with other countries and national cinemas Through essays about prominent genres and themes profiles of directors and comprehensive reviews of significant titles this user friendly guide explores the diversity and distinctiveness of films from Australia and New Zealand from Whale Rider to The Piano to Wolf Creek Free School Teaching Kristan Accles Morrison, 2012-02-01 Free School Teaching is the personal and professional journey of one teacher within the American educational system Faced with mounting frustrations in her own traditional middle school classroom and having little success in resolving them Kristan Accles Morrison decided to seek out answers first by immersing herself in the academic literature of critical education theory and then by turning to the field While the literature on progressive education gave her hope that things could be different and better for students locked into America's traditional education system she wanted to find a firsthand example of how these ideas played out in practice Morrison found a radical free school in Albany New York that embodied the ideas found in the literature and over a period of three months she observed and documented differences between alternative and traditional schools In trying to reconcile the gap between those systems Morrison details the lessons she learned about teachers students curriculum and the entire conception of why we educate our children *Catalog of Copyright Entries.
