Validating Technological Innovation David Coniam, Peter Falvey, 2016-04-02 This book discusses Hong Kong's use of onscreen marking OSM in public examinations. Given that Hong Kong leads the way in OSM innovation, this book has arisen from a recognised need to provide a comprehensive coherent account of the findings of various separate but linked validation studies of onscreen public examinations in Hong Kong. The authors discuss their experience of the validation process, demonstrating how high stakes innovation should be fully validated by a series of research studies in order to satisfy key stakeholders.

Integral Green Zimbabwe Dr Alexander Schieffer, Ms Liz Mamukwa, Professor Ronnie Lessem, 2014-12-28 Integral Green Zimbabwe: An African Phoenix Rising by Ronnie Lessem, Alexander Schieffer and Liz Mamukwa is the first book in the Integral Green Society and Economy series, a series which has three overarching aims. The first aim is to link together two major movements of our time: one philosophical, the other practical. The philosophical movement is towards what many today are calling an integral age, while the practical is the green movement, duly aligned with that of sustainable development. The second is to blend together elements of nature and community, culture and spirituality, science and technology, politics and economics, thus serving to bring about an integral green vision, albeit with a focus on business and economics. As such, the authors transcend the limitations to sustainable development and environmental economics, which are overly ecological if not also technological in orientation and exclude social and cultural elements. Thirdly, this particular volume focuses specifically on Zimbabwe, as well as Southern Africa, drawing on the particular issues and capacities that this country and region represents. The emphasis on Zimbabwe and Southern Africa transpired not only because two of the editors, Lessem and Mamukwa, are Zimbabwean in origin, but because Zimbabwe is today like a phoenix rising from the ashes and has the opportunity to recreate itself anew.

Integrated Water Resources Management IWRM has been the dominant paradigm in water resources This book explores how ideas of IWRM are being translated and adapted in Mozambique South Africa Tanzania Uganda and Zimbabwe Grounded in social science theory and research it highlights the importance of politics history and culture in shaping water management practices and reform and demonstrates how Africa has clearly been a laboratory for IWRM While a new cadre of professionals made IWRM their mission we show that poor women and men may not have always benefitted In some cases IWRM has also offered a distraction from more critical issues such as water and land grabs privatisation the negative impacts of water permits and a range of institutional ambiguities that prevent water allocations to small and poor water users By critically examining the interpretations and challenges of IWRM the book contributes to improving water policies and practices and making them more locally appropriate in Africa and beyond Invasive Alien Species Thammineni

Pullaiah, Michael R. Ielmini, 2021-04-21 Jedes Jahr breiten sich invasive gebietsfremde Arten in neue kosysteme aus Die von den Eindringlingen verursachten Auswirkungen können sich in kürzester Zeit bemerkbar machen und verheerend sein. Das Thema der invasiven gebietsfremden Arten ist umfassend komplex und auf verschiedenen Ebenen von globaler Bedeutung. Verschärft wird es durch die Globalisierung der Weltwirtschaft und den zunehmenden Handel durch den die natürlichen Barrieren für den Transfer von Arten durchbrochen werden. Invasive gebietsfremde Arten bedrohen die weltweite Nahrungsmittelversorgung, die Qualität und Verfügbarkeit von Trinkwasser sowie die Stromproduktion und -versorgung. Zusammen mit den zusätzlichen Risiken durch den globalen Klimawandel ist die weltweite Homogenisierung von Pflanzen, Tieren und Mikroben ein wesentlicher Faktor für den sich verschlechternden Gesundheitszustand der Ökosysteme und die nachlassenden Ökosystemdienstleistungen überall auf der Welt. Um dieser Entwicklung entgegenzuwirken besteht die dringende Notwendigkeit einer einheitlichen Ausrichtung von Regierungen, Kulturen und Programmen und einer besseren grenzüberschreitenden Koordination. Nur so lassen sich die vielfältigen Bedrohungen durch invasive gebietsfremde Arten für die Umwelt, die Wirtschaft und die Gesundheit von Pflanzen und Tieren sowie insbesondere die menschliche Gesundheit effektiv bekämpfen. Dieses vierbändige Werk ist das erste, das einen umfassenden Satz natürlicher Materialien zu den zentralen Themen bereitstellt, um die gesamte globale Bedrohung durch invasive gebietsfremde Arten sowie die vielfältigen Probleme in verschiedenen Teilen der Welt deutlich zu machen, und es enthält Material, in dem potenziell replizierbare Lösungen zur Überwindung dieser Bedrohungen aufgezeigt werden. Das Werk betont die Bedrohung durch invasive gebietsfremde Arten auch im Sinne eines globalen Aufrufs zum Handeln. Invasive Arten kennen keine Grenzen. Daher hoffen wir, dass wir durch die Zusammenstellung von Material aus unterschiedlichen wissenschaftlichen und gesellschaftlichen Standpunkten aus aller Welt berücksichtigt sowie durch die Vermittlung von Erkenntnissen und Beispielen zu einer Vielzahl damit zusammenhängender Themen das globale Bewusstsein stärken und einheitliche nationale Reaktionen auf die Bedrohung durch invasive gebietsfremde Arten fördern können.

HIV and Young People Gary Jones, 2015-11-30. Revisiting the thinking on vulnerability to HIV and risk of infection. This book provides better understanding by considering the risk of HIV infection alongside notions of personal and collective resilience, dignity and humiliation. The work shows that young people in the urban slum dignify their world and in doing so establish priorities and draw on a set of references, oftentimes intelligible to them alone. Moreover, humiliation as an interpersonal event adds to a sense of vulnerability and lies closely behind choices directly affecting personal health and livelihood. Thus, dignity and humiliation are shown for the first time to have a critical role in health seeking and risky behavior related to HIV, and this is an area in great need of further research. The crucial focus of this work is further emphasized by the rapid growth of urban slums and high rates of HIV among both slum dwellers and young people who continue to bear the brunt of the AIDS epidemic thirty years on. This comprehensive literature review provides a compelling argument that the time is right to further explore the nexus of risk and resilience from a people-centered perspective. Fresh insight is critical to reach the goal of ending AIDS by 2030.

Corruption and

Constitutionalism in Africa Charles M. Fombad, Nico Steytler, 2020-03-12 This collection of essays focuses on the critical issue of corruption that lies at the heart of the crisis of constitutionalism in Africa. Most anti-corruption measures over the years have been inadequate, serving merely as symbolic gestures to give the impression something is being done. The African Union's declaration of 2018 as the African anti-corruption year belated, though it is an open recognition by African governments of the impact corruption will have on the continent unless urgent steps are taken. The key objective of this volume is to draw attention to the problem of corruption, the complexity of the situation with all its multi-faceted social, political, economic and legal dimensions, and the need for remedial action.

Citizen Science: Reducing Risk and Building Resilience to Natural Hazards Jonathan D. Paul, David M. Hannah, Wei Liu, 2020-01-17

Doctoral Training in Engineering Wilson R. Nyemba, Keith F. Carter, 2024-03-07 The book provides a comprehensive analysis of Engineering Education in industrialising countries with Southern Africa as the case study, benchmarked on institutions from the industrialised world with UK institutions as the reference. This was motivated by the perennial shortage of engineers and engineering skills to drive industry in Southern Africa, compounded by the mismatch of skills between those produced by tertiary institutions and those required by industry. This book focuses on the insufficiencies in training through addressing the gap where the majority of engineering academics' qualifications at MSc/MEng level fall short of the internationally acceptable PhD/DEng/DTech. In order to address such insufficiencies, the book proposes and advocates for reskilling and doctoral training of engineering academics through the proposed and established DTCs within the region. The book is targeted at graduate students, engineering academics, researchers, university administrators, foreign aid agencies, captains of industry and policy makers in governments. To all these readers, the book offers Carbon Conflicts and Forest Landscapes in Africa Melissa Leach, Ian Scoones, 2015-06-05 Amidst the pressing challenges of global climate change, the last decade has seen a wave of forest carbon projects across the world designed to conserve and enhance forest carbon stocks in order to reduce carbon emissions from deforestation and offset emissions elsewhere. Exploring a set of new empirical case studies, Carbon Conflicts and Forest Landscapes in Africa examines how these projects are unfolding, their effects, and who is gaining and losing. Situating forest carbon approaches as part of more general moves to address environmental problems by attaching market values to nature and ecosystems, it examines how new projects interact with forest landscapes and their longer histories of intervention. The book asks what difference does carbon make? What political and ecological dynamics are unleashed by these new commodified, marketized approaches, and how are local forest users experiencing and responding to them? The book's case studies cover a wide range of African ecologies, project types, and national political-economic contexts. By examining these cases in a comparative framework and within an understanding of the national, regional, and global institutional arrangements shaping forest carbon commoditisation, the book provides a rich and compelling account of how and why carbon conflicts are emerging and how they might be avoided in the future.
