Military Assistance on Request and the Use of Force Erika De Wet, 2020-03-26 In countries such as Syria Iraq South Sudan and Yemen internationally recognized governments embroiled in protracted armed conflicts and with very little control over their territory have requested direct military assistance from other states These requests are often accepted by the other states despite the circumvention of the United Nations Security Council and extensive violation of international humanitarian law and human rights In this book Erika De Wet examines the authority entitled to extend a request for or consent to direct military assistance as well as the type of situations during which such assistance may be requested notably whether it may be requested during a civil war Ultimately De Wet addresses the question of if and to what extent the proliferation of military assistance on the request of a recognized government is changing the rules in international law applying to the use of force

Beyond Market Access for Economic Development Gerrit Faber, Jan Orbie, 2009-06-17 The Economic Partnership Agreements between the European Union and the Africa Caribbean and Pacific ACP countries have drastically restructured Europe's trade architecture towards the third world This volume examines the consequences of EPAs for development in sub Saharan Africa SSA Starting from the observation that the establishment of free trade as such will substantially impact upon economic development the different contributions focus on the potential contribution of non traditional aspects of EPAs More specifically the authors analyze the role of Aid for Trade schemes regulatory integration issues and broader foreign policy considerations How can these non market access aspects stimulate development in Africa and how have they been addressed in the EPAs In short this brings us to the question whether the light version EPAs as they currently stand are a missed chance or a blessing in disguise
