K. Ghai,1992 Tales of the Nation Lene Bull-Christiansen,2004 In light of the uses and misuses of history in Zimbabwean politics in recent years this research report focuses on how versions of the country s liberation war history have become a site of struggle over the definition of Zimbabwean national identity As identity politics often do Zimbabwean nationalism draws on a wide field of cultural symbols of identity and political discourses of inclusion and exclusion Therefore the report takes a cross disciplinary approach to the issue of national identity by mapping out the imaginary field of Zimbabwean nationalism This approach opens up the possibility of cross reading the political discourses of the President and the ruling party ZANU PF with opposing voices such as those in the works of the author Yvonne Vera This cross reading shows how Vera s novels and the political discourses participate in the struggle over Zimbabwean national identity by offering different versions of the nation s history in the form of patriotic history feminist nationalism or narratives of difference In this way the research report adds to our understanding of power and resistance in Zimbabwean politics of national identity Schools in the Struggle ,1991 The Book Trade of the World Sigfred Taubert,1972 The Politics of the Dead in Zimbabwe, 2000-2020 Joost Fontein,2022 Innovative and challenging study that provides fresh insights on the anthropology of death and postcolonial politics In 1898 just before she was hanged for rebelling against colonial rule Charwe

Nyakasikana spirit medium of the legendary ancestor Ambuya Nehanda famously prophesised that my bones will rise again A century later bones bodies and human remains have come to occupy an increasingly complex place in Zimbabwe s postcolonial milieu From ancestral bones rising again in the struggle for independence and later land to resurfacing bones of unsettled wardead and from the troubling decaying remains of post independence gukurahundi massacres to the leaky tortured bodies of recent election violence human materials are intertwined in postcolonial politics in ways that go far beyond yet necessarily implicate contests over memory commemoration and the representation of the past In this book Joost Fontein examines the complexities of human remains in Zimbabwe s politics of the dead Challenging and innovative he takes us beyond current scholarship on memory commemoration and the changing significance of traditional death practices to examine the political implications of human remains as material substances as duplicitous rumours and as returning spirits Linking the indeterminacy of human substances to the productive but precarious uncertainties of rumours and spirits the book points to how the incompleteness of death is politically productive and ultimately derives from the problematic entangled excessivities of human material and immaterial existence and is deeply intertwined with the stylistics of postcolonial power and politics Joost Fontein is Professor of Anthropology University of Johannesburg He was previously Director of the British Institute in Eastern Africa and Lecturer in Social Anthropology at the University of Edinburgh His books include Remaking Mutirikwi Landscape Water and Belonging James Currey 2015 shortlisted for the African Studies Association 2016 Herskovits Prize Southern Africa South Africa Namibia Lesotho Swaziland and Botswana University of Johannesburg Press

Claiming Agency Halima Mahomed,Elizabeth Coleman,2016-10-06 Claiming Agency Reflecting on TrustAfrica's First Decade takes an in depth look at an African led foundation that set out to do things differently Founded in 2006 when solutions to Africa's challenges were often developed outside its borders TrustAfrica sought to practice a kind of philanthropy that both benefits Africans and actively supports their agency Now at the ten year mark the book asks what does this kind of philanthropy make a difference If so how What are its unique ways of working The answers are found in chapters that reflect on how TrustAfrica and its partners advanced a range of issues from womens rights small holder agriculture and democratic reform in Liberia and Zimbabwe to international criminal justice and illicit financial flows In a clear eyed look at money and power the authors observe that donor funds all too often come with strings that constrict African agency and recommend ways in which donors from Africa and the global north can foster independent action and strengthen movements for change

Constitutions and Conflict Management in Africa Alan J. Kuperman, 2015-06-29 Each of Africa s countries has a different constitutional design is characterized by a unique culture and history and faces different stresses that threaten to undermine political stability Presenting the first database of constitutional design in all African countries along with seven original case studies Constitutions and Conflict Management in Africa explores the types of domestic political institutions that can buffer societies from destabilizing changes that otherwise increase the risk of violence With detailed comparative studies of Burundi Ghana Kenya Nigeria Senegal Sudan and Zimbabwe contributing scholars identify key turning points at which a state s political institutions either mitigated or escalated the effects of economic environmental demographic and political shocks They find that stability can be promoted by various constitutional designs not only by accommodative institutions that encourage decentralization and multiculturalism but also by the integrative centralized designs that characterize the constitutions of most African countries The greatest danger may arise from partial or inequitable accommodation that can exacerbate societal tensions culminating in violence up to and including civil war and genocide Accordingly Constitutions and Conflict Management in Africa cautions against the typical international prescription for radical reform to replace Africa s existing constitutions with accommodative designs instead prescribing more gradual constitutional reform to strengthen liberal institutions such as strong judiciaries and independent electoral commissions This detailed and methodical volume provides vital lessons for fostering democracy and reducing civil conflict via constitutional reform in Africa and beyond Contributors Justin Orlando Frosini Gilbert M Khadiagala Alan J Kuperman Karly Kupferberg Eli Poupko Eghosa E Osaghae Andrew Reynolds Filip Reyntjens Arame Tall Hillary Thomas Lake Stefan Wolff I William Zartman

Manning the Nation. Father Figures in Zimbabwean Literature and Society Z. Muchemwa, Robert Muponde, 2008-01-15 Gender studies in Zimbabwe have tended to focus on women and their comparative disadvantages and under privilege Assuming a broader perspective is necessary at a time when society has grown used to arguments rooted in binaries colonised and coloniser race and class sex and gender poverty and wealth patriotism and terrorism etc The editors of Manning the Nation recognise that concepts of manhood can be used to repress or liberate and will depend on historical and political imperatives they seek to introduce a more nuanced perspective to the interconnectivity of patriarchy masculinity the nation and its image The essays in this volume come from well respected academics working in a variety of fields The ideals and concepts of manhood are examined as they are reflected in important Zimbabwean literary texts However if literature provides a rich vein for the analysis of masculinities what makes this collection so interesting is the interplay of literary analysis with chapters that provide a critical examination of the ways in which ideals of manhood have been employed in for example leadership and the nation as a justification for violent engagement in the field of AIDS and HIV etc Manning the Nation Father figures in Zimbabwean literature and society sets the stage for a fresh and engaging discourse essential at a time when new paradigms are needed Society, State, and Identity in African History Bahru Zewde, 2008 The Fourth Congress of the Association of African historians was held in Addis Ababa in May 2007 These 21 papers are a key selection of the papers presented there with an introduction by the distinguished historian Bahru Zewde Given the contemporary salience and the historical depth of the issue of identity the congress was devoted to that global phenomenon within Africa The papers explore and analyse the issue of identity in its diverse temporal settings from its pre colonial roots to its contemporary manifestations The papers are divided into six parts Pre Colonial Identities Colonialism and Identity Conceptions of the Nation State and Identity Identity Based Conflicts Migration and Acculturation and Memory History and Identity The authors are scholars from Benin Botswana Cameroon the Democratic Republic of Congo Ethiopia Mali Nigeria Senegal South Africa and Zimbabwe Bahru Zewde is Emeritus Professor of History at Addis Ababa University Executive Director of the Forum for Social Studies and Vice President of the Association of African Historians He was formerly Chairperson of the Department of History and Director of the Institute of Ethiopian Studies at Addis Ababa University Amongst his publication is A History of Modern Ethiopia 1855-1991 Anabaptist Songs in African Hearts John Lapp, 2006-10-01 When church histories of Africa have been written they've usually been done by Westerners These writers have typically been missionaries or relief workers their analyses and conclusions have reflected those perspectives This book by contrast is written by Africans Each writer is an African church leader or pastor and they write about the emergence and development of the Mennonite and Brethren in Christ churches in the countries from which they come The story of God's work in Africa did not begin with the arrival of the missionaries but rather from the African perspective their arrival continued reinterpreted and re-shaped an ancient story begins this honest collection Themes of the churches claiming their particular expressions of faith of achieving self-reliance of coping with difficult governments of discovering their gifts despite their material poverty thread through the book Anabaptist Songs in African Hearts is the third edition of the first volume in the Global Mennonite History Series
