Caroline B. Ncube, 2015-10-16 This book examines the harmonisation of Intellectual Property IP policy law and administration in Africa Two recent developments have brought this topic to the fore The first is the escalation of long standing efforts to establish a Pan African Intellectual Property Organisation PAIPO a continental initiative The second is the current sub regional attempt to operationalise the IP provisions of the Southern African Development Community SADC's Protocol on Trade articles 9b and 24 and its Protocol on Science Technology and Innovation article 2m Intellectual Property Policy Law and Administration in Africa discusses the viability of such initiatives with particular reference to the current socio economic status of Africa's nations With a view to contributing to future developments in Africa at both a continental and sub regional level the author considers this issue through the lens of advancing the public interest in IP Ncube argues that harmonisation initiatives ought to be crafted in a way that is supportive of the development aspirations of African states Consequently she urges due consideration of individual states unique conditions and aspirations in any harmonisation venture a necessity outlined in article 7 of the Agreement on Trade Related Aspects of Intellectual Property Rights This book will be of great relevance to scholars and policy makers with an interest in IP law and African law in general

Transmitting the Spirit in Missions Amos Jimmy Markin, 2019-02-05 Transmitting the Spirit in Missions The History and Growth of the Church of Pentecost discourses on how Pentecostalism in general has been involved in the current growth mission and changing face of global Christianity It argues that African Pentecostals particularly are an integral part of the global expansion of Christianity in this century Specifically this book engages the history and growth of the Church of Pentecost an African Pentecostal denomination from Ghana to demonstrate how African Pentecostals have taken their spirituality into their own hands and planted churches in their home country as well as other parts of the globe The focus of this book is that African Pentecostals have achieved this feat through the experiential power and reliance of the Holy Spirit and the indigenous factor The specific highlight is that this book is an updated analysis of the history growth and missions of the Church of Pentecost Although this work is transformed from a PhD thesis the content is presented accessibly to both the academia and general church populace both pastors and the laity Unwritten Rule Alice Beban, 2021-04-15 In 2012

Cambodia an epicenter of violent land grabbing announced a bold new initiative to develop land redistribution efforts inside agribusiness concessions Alice Beban's Unwritten Rule focuses on this land reform to understand the larger nature of democracy in Cambodia Beban contends that the national land titling program the so called leopard skin land reform was first and foremost a political campaign orchestrated by the world's longest serving prime minister Hun Sen The reform aimed to secure the loyalty of rural voters produce modern farmers and wrest control over land distribution from local officials Through ambiguous legal directives and unwritten rules guiding the allocation of land the government fostered uncertainty and fear within local communities Unwritten Rule gives pause both to celebratory claims that land reform will enable land tenure security and to critical claims that land reform will enmesh rural people more tightly in state bureaucracies and create a fiscally legible landscape Instead Beban argues that the extension of formal property rights strengthened the very patronage based politics that Western development agencies hope to subvert Sustainability and Empowerment in the

Secured Transactions Law Reform in Africa Marek Dubovec, Louise Gullifer, 2019-10-31
Over the last few decades many countries have reformed their secured transactions law One of the main reasons has been the clear link between reform and the availability of credit and the drive to improve access to finance particularly for micro small and medium sized enterprises This book focuses particularly on developing economies in Africa which have legal frameworks influenced by English French Belgian Roman Dutch and other laws Reform in this area of law across African countries has taken a number of forms which are explored and discussed in this book
Secured Transactions Law Reform in Africa is a mixture of a critical description of the pre reform law and practice and the reform process itself It also includes a comparative analysis of the legal provisions and an examination of the early results of the reforms The book sets out a road map for the future of secured transactions reform primarily in Africa but also in other countries that have undertaken or are contemplating similar reforms This book is the second in a series of books about Secured Transactions Law in countries around the world and its reform both on a national and an international scale The first book Secured Transactions Law Reform Principles Policies and Practice was published in 2016
Intellectual Property and International Trade: The TRIPS Agreement Carlos M. Correa, Abdulqawi A. Yusuf, 2016-06-27
The Agreement on Trade Related Aspects of Intellectual Property Rights TRIPS is the most far reaching and comprehensive legal regime ever concluded at the multilateral level in the area of intellectual property rights IPR Compared to prior IPR conventions TRIPS constitutes a major qualitative leap which radically modifies not only the context in which IPR are considered internationally but also their substantive content and the methods for their enforcement and dispute settlement This much welcomed treatise now in its third edition thoroughly updates its comprehensive analysis of the substantive provisions of the Agreement and their actual interpretation and application in different jurisdictions with new material on the burgeoning case law and on major changes in plant variety protection As in previous editions the book may be relied upon for in depth clarification of such matters as the following standards established under the agreement enforcement measures social and legal issues legal and policy possibilities offered legislative latitude allowed to WTO Member States incorporation of TRIPS into domestic law protection of integrated circuit design protection of innovation and R challenges raised by ongoing technological changes access to medicines protection of confidential undisclosed information and interface between competition law and intellectual property protection With fifteen chapters contributed by a distinguished panel of experts representing diverse parties international organisations legal practice government policy and academia the third edition offers an incomparable framework for understanding the background principles and complex provisions of the TRIPS Agreement Thoroughly revised and updated the third edition will be of great value to all professionals and business people concerned with international trade It stimulates further discussion and analysis in this area of growing importance to international law and international economic relations particularly regarding the possibilities offered by the Agreement and the loose ends that may need consideration in the future at the national or international level
